GYPSY EYES.

From muddy road to muddy lane I plodded through the falling rain; For miles and miles was nothing there But mist and mud and hedges bare. At length approaching I espied Two gypsy women side by side; They turned their faces broad and bold And brown and freshened by the cold, And stared at me in gypsy wise With shrewd, unfriendly, savage eyes. No word they said, no more dared I; And so we passed each other by— The only living things that met In all those miles of mist and wet. —Francis Crawford.

Barrel of Booze And Nine Negroes

Nine negro men are in the county jail charged with breaking into a freight car of the Southern Railroad and stealing therefrom a barrel of booze and six cases of bonded spirits. They were captured yesterday afternoon by Special Officer Johnson and E. H. Evans of the railroad. The car was broken into Sunday night and the negroes were "fighting the booze" when driven from the spot by a negro employe of the road. The nine who are now on the inside looking out are: Dave Moore, "Sonny" Wood, Jim Crockett, John Chambers, John Tate, John Bradley, Willie Wade, Carl Byers and Henry James. They were assessed by the slouts while they were engaged in pleasant conversation and were locked up for the night and for the day.

Tomorrow morning these nine negroes will play tag with each other before Recorder D. B. Smith in police court. One has said that eight broke into the car and took therefrom the booze. Eight have said that one did all the mischief. Seven declare two were implicated and one lay incriminating stress upon seven. Six positively enunciate derogatorily about four and four speak in vitriolic terms about half a dozen. A quintette "jaw at" another quintette, and out of all of this the usually serene, placid, smiling, debonaire Recorder is to find an answer.

Mr. Hooper to Manage Tarrymore

It will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. C. E. Hooper and the summer visitors at Wrightsville to know that he has accepted the management of the Tarrymore hotel at Wrightsville for the coming summer. However, it will no longer be known as the Tarrymore, but as the Oceanic hotel.

The season will open June 1st and will continue until October. Mr. George Norman, of the clerical force the Buford, will be associated with Mr. Hooper at the Oceanic. It is Mr. Hooper's intention to operate the hotel on much larger scale than has ever before been attempted, and, as he knows all there is to know about running a hotel, there is no need to expect anything else than a very successful season for the Wrightsville hostelry.

Mr. Hooper is also under contract to manage the Atlantis, a splendid new hotel that is to be built on the Wrightsville beach, but which will not be in operation before 1912.

Would Adjust Potash Dispute

By Associated Press. Berlin, Feb. 15.—It is learned here that Ambassador Bernstorff is conducting negotiations with the state department at Washington looking to the adjustment of the potash trade dispute on the basis of the note recently presented to Secretary Knox by the German government. This note set forth the German attitude, suggesting that the question of whether the German producers or the American buyers should pay the surtax imposed by the recently enacted mining law might be a matter for arbitration and that in the event it was established that the penalty properly fell upon the Americans, the export price be mutually agreed upon by the two governments.
