

Caton Is Arrested Across The Line And Brought Here

Whose Conditional Pardon was Virtually Revoked is Found After a Search of Almost Fifteen Days.

Deputy Sheriff Porter Locates Him And Wires His Chief He is on The Way Here in an Automobile Bearing Prisoner

Ed Caton, whose conditional pardon was a serious charge was received by Gov. W. W. Kitchin March 15, and was allowed ten days in which to answer allegations made by a group of township people who were his neighbors, has been arrested in South Carolina and will be brought here this afternoon in an automobile driven by the son of Sheriff Wallace. He was just across the border when he was taken into custody by Deputy Sheriff Porter who had knowledge of his whereabouts for two days.

Caton is the man upon whose land a recent fight occurred some weeks ago and who was arrested with a view to more of others for a violation of the law. He was convicted, but escaped with a slight fine. Immediately afterwards his neighbors circulated petitions, signed freely, asking that the governor revoke the conditional pardon granted a year ago to the men. These petitions set forth that Caton had violated the pardon by participating in and aiding and abetting the recent fight on a Sabbath, but that he had done other things which were in violation of the laws of the county and state.

Governor Kitchin waited several days after receiving the papers from the people of Sharon, Sardis, Ebenezer and Carmel neighborhoods in South Carolina before he acted. Then he issued an order to the sheriff of Mecklenburg county to arrest Caton and to force him to answer the accusations. In the event he did not comply with the order to arrest within ten days, so the unexpired sentence of his term of 18 months on the public chain-gang, inasmuch as the order was issued on the 16th, and more than ten days have elapsed since its issuance, it is taken for granted that Caton has violated its provisions and he is not now to have an opportunity to present his case to any court of inquiry.

He lives within two miles of two churches, in one of which he was recognized a bad man by those people who had been his neighbors for more than two years. A meeting was held in the church and resolutions of a most serious nature were passed by the members of the church.

The man, however, remained at his home until the day the governor ordered his arrest, when he is alleged to have suddenly left. Sheriff Wallace went to his residence on the day of the 17th, and again visited the place that night. Caton's arrest was made by Sheriff Porter who was on duty at the time. The result is that a telegram was received this morning saying that Caton would be brought here in an automobile within a very few days. He may or may not be fetchable, but the indications point to the conclusion that he will occupy a cell in the Mecklenburg county jail to come here in an automobile.

INSURRECTOS AND FEDERAL S HAD FIERCE FIGHT

By Associated Press. El Paso, Texas, March 31.—Advices to the Herald from Magdalena, Sonora, by mail, declare that Monday's battle reported from Agua Prieta as a victory for the federals, was really a victory for the rebels.

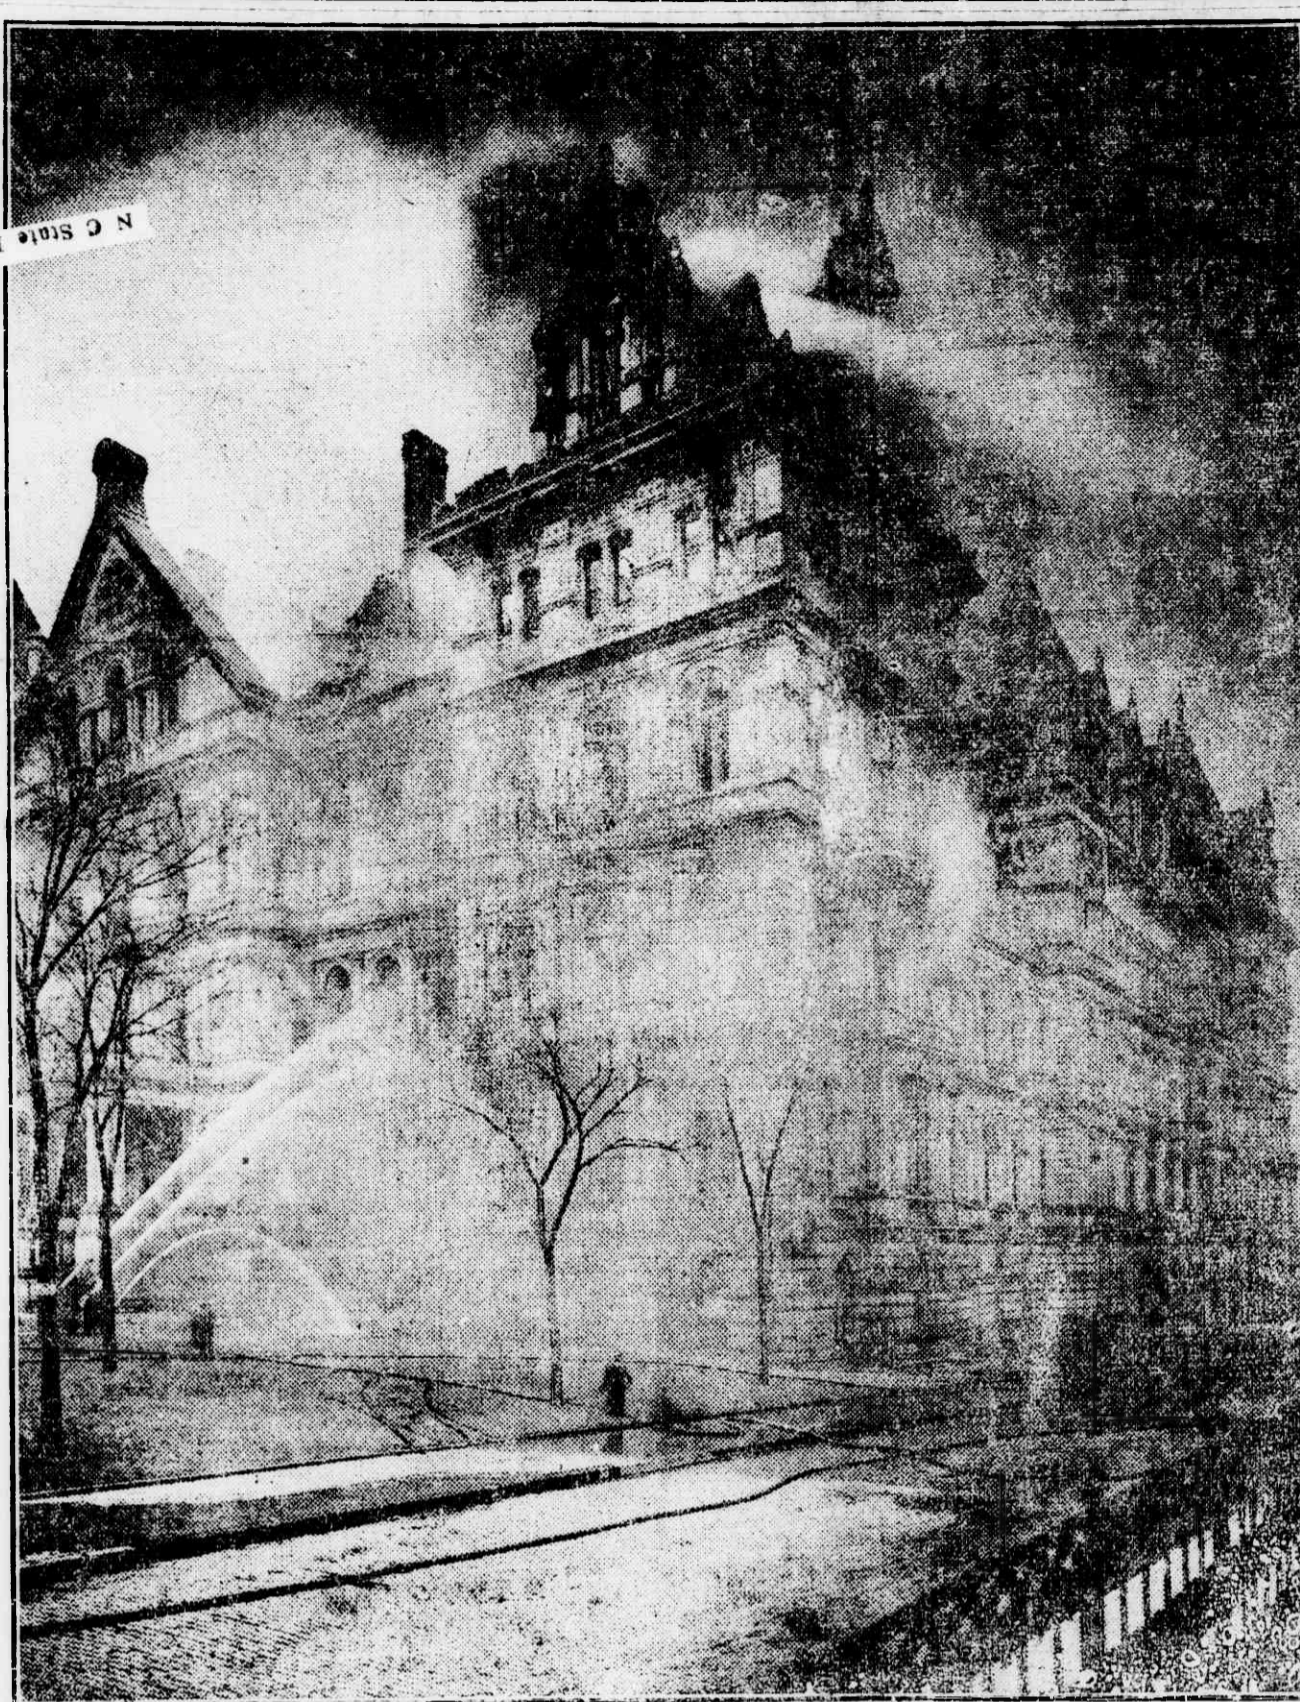

Instead of being ambushed themselves, the rebels ambushed the federals at San Rafael, and the federals were driven to a mill at Santa Rosa, where the rebels surrounded them, says the correspondent. Then reinforcements came out from Hermosillo and the battle was raging on Wednesday when the letter was written.

Mail advices yesterday from Hermosillo say of the fighting: "The battle that is being fought at San Rafael is the most important engagement of the revolution in this state."

"There are 700 revolutionists and some 1,000 federals. It is a stand-up fight. The revolutionists knew the federals were coming to the attack and stood their ground. Last night the government here issued a bulletin claiming that in the battle 78 revolutionists had been killed, and that the government had lost 15 killed and 22 wounded. "This morning fifty-six badly wounded federals arrived here from the front. After three days of fighting the government has issued no new bulletins or claimed the victory. The city is waiting. All know the news is bad for the government."

"There is a rumor that the 200 Yaquis who were well armed by the government have gone over in a body to the revolutionists."

Thousand Reported Killed. Tucson, Ariz., March 31.—A thousand men have been killed on both sides in a battle between federals and rebels in the vicinity of San Rafael and Ures, Mexico, since Monday according to a dispatch to a local paper from Nogales. The office who is authorized for the news is said to have given this report to fellow officers upon receipt of advices from Hermosillo.

Albany, March 31.—The damage to the state capitol building as a result of the fire may reach $10,000,000. The west and north wings are total losses, while great damage has been done to every part of the great structure. The state library, which was totally destroyed, contained many priceless relics. The assembly and senate galleries, with all their valuable documents, also are gone. The ornate building was built at a cost of $10,000,000 having been spent on it. It was 300 feet north and south by 400 feet east and west and covered three acres. The first stone was laid in 1869, and the building was formally occupied in 1879.

Famous Libel Suit Is Dropped

By Associated Press. Washington, March 31.—The curtain was rung down today on the Panama libel suits against the New York World and the Indianapolis News when United States Attorney Wilson requested permission of Justice Wright, in criminal court No. 1, to enter a nolle prosequere. The United States supreme court had decided the cases in favor of the defendants.

The indictments nolle prosequere charged that the newspapers libeled President Taft, former President Roosevelt, Charles P. Taft and William Nelson Cromwell, when they published an statement that in the purchase of the Panama canal $4,000,000 had been made by the syndicate which bought it from the French owners and transferred the property to the United States.

LITTLE ROCK IS SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE

By Associated Press. Little Rock, Ark., March 31.—Little Rock was shaken by an earthquake this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mirrors were shaken from walls, desks and chairs in offices rolled about and windows clattered. A near panic occurred in the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone building.

H. F. Ablesator, section director of the weather bureau, whose offices are located on the tenth floor of the Southern Trust building reported considerable sway in that building. The Union railroad station, built of heavy concrete and stone, was rocked perceptibly. Pine Bluff, Dumas and Wilmar also reported as having experienced shocks.

BODY OF FIRE VICTIM WAS FOUND TODAY.

Albany, N. Y., March 31.—The body of Samuel J. Abbott, the only victim of the state capitol fire, was found today on the fourth floor in the southwest corner of the building where the flames raged fiercest.

Alleged Camorrist Chief Denied All Accusations

By Associated Press. Viterbo, Italy, March 31.—Enrico Alfano, commonly known as Erricone, accused as being the real head of the Neapolitan Camorra, perhaps the most powerful and certainly the most feared man in southern Italy, was called for interrogation in the court of the Assizes today where 25 of his alleged associates are on trial.

The crimes laid at this man's door are numberless and the machinations with which he is credited are almost beyond belief.

The court room was crowded to the doors and the interest was intense. Under the grueling today, Erricone maintained the insolent assurance which, if not disarming suspicion, repeatedly saved him from arrest. At his headquarters in the Cafe Fortuna, where he received his agents, his victims and the police, Erricone was wont to smile blandly upon those who mentioned the Camorra, and say: "Do you really believe there is such a thing? Why, those are stories of other times."

The prisoner was well prepared for today's examination, which was a thorough one. He denied every accusation made against him and ridiculed the tradition of his power.

Erricone has had a checkered career. Many times arrested, he was invariably discharged because of lack of evidence or, at the worst, received light punishment. These escapes are said to have been due to his influence with the authorities, many of whom owed their offices to his control over the votes of the poorer classes, whom he often helped.

Following the murder of Genaro Cuocolo, Erricone was arrested and charged with instigating the crime, but a way to his release was found in the false testimony of the priest, Ciro Vittozzi. Fleeing to America he was re-arrested in Brooklyn by Police Lieutenant Petroshko, and has never since been a free man.

Abbatevaggio, the informer, has testified that Erricone approved the sentences of death imposed upon his traitorous associates, Genaro Cuocolo and his wife, and after the deed was done distributed sums of money among the assassins.

Chas. Murphy Arrives Day's Caucus May End Deadlock

By Associated Press. Albany, N. Y., March 31.—Supreme Court Justice James A. O'Gorman, of New York, probably will be the next senator from New York if the insurgent democrats in the legislature will accept him.

Justice O'Gorman was announced as the organization candidate this morning upon the arrival from New York of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall. The insurgents on the ground said that they were not sufficiently familiar with O'Gorman's record to act intelligently, brought about a postponement of a final caucus vote.

The vote at noon today resulted in no choice, a quorum not being present.

Albany, N. Y., March 31.—Charles F. Murphy arrived here this morning to take personal charge of the organization forces in today's caucus, which may prove the crucial battle of the long fight to elect a United States senator. Foremost among the reasons why the regular democrats were anxious to break the deadlock today is the proximity of April 4th, and the assembling of the special session of congress. The legislators feared popular criticism would follow a failure to send a new senator to Washington in time to give New York its full representation.

A second reason was the overtures the republicans are making to the insurgent democrats and the threat of the latter that the question is not settled today they will accept re-nomination to elect an "independent democrat" hostile to Tammany Hall.

The caucus this morning was late in assembling. The members have been driven by the fire at the capitol and the expectation that if the deadlock was settled today a recess could be taken until the regular senate and assembly chambers were ready for use made for hope of a settlement at once.

Soon after Mr. Murphy's arrival a report was circulated that supreme court justice, James A. O'Gorman, of New York, was the latest name to receive serious consideration by the organization leaders.

After a conference with Mr. Murphy, Senators Ferris, of Utah, and Saxe of New York, the latter an insurgent, went to the home of Senator Roosevelt to sound the insurgent leader as to whether the name of Justice O'Gorman would be an acceptable addition to the list to be considered at the caucus.

Twenty-two insurgents were assembled at Senator Roosevelt's house when Saxe and Ferris arrived. After a short discussion they turned down the O'Gorman proposition until they could look up his record.

The insurgents declaring that they could muster enough strength to prevent O'Gorman's election at today's caucus. On this proposition they expected aid from some of the Sheehan men who have threatened to join the organization in refusing to caucus if the organization insisted in forcing O'Gorman's name upon them.

At 10:30 the organization leaders were in conference with Mr. Murphy. The conference in Mr. Murphy's room ended at 11:15. The understanding at this time was that Justice O'Gorman's name would be presented to the caucus as the organization candidate. The leaders said they thought they could depend on twelve or thirteen insurgent votes.

Rates on Cotton Seed.

By Associated Press. Washington, March 31.—Freight rates on cotton seed were attacked today in complaint filed with the interstate commerce commission by the Louisville Cotton Seed Products Company.

The complaint was directed against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad and other Southern carriers, and alleges that the rate of fifteen cents a hundred pounds on cotton seed shipped from Memphis to Louisville, Ky., is excessive and should not exceed ten cents.

Coca Cola Case Uninteresting

By Associated Press. Chattanooga, Tenn., March 31.—The early part of the morning hearing in the coca cola case in the federal court was rather uninteresting. Local physicians, including Dr. B. H. Brown, former food inspector; Dr. J. W. Johnson, an insurance examiner, and Dr. Cooper Holtzclaw and Dr. B. S. Wert, practitioners, were on the stand and they all gave it as their opinion that a moderate use of coca cola was not injurious to health.

Drs. Brown, Holtzclaw and Wert in 1910 conducted an examination on 100 coca cola drinkers. All were males ranging in age from 14 to 56 years and they drank from one to 15 glasses of coca cola daily. The results was that on seventy-six subjects it had no effect; on 11 it stimulated; eight were kept awake at night and one was nervous; the others showing minor effects.

Dr. Holtzclaw had during his long practice only treated one patient for coca cola drinking and she suffers from indigestion because of improper food and excessive use of coca cola tea and coffee. These drinks were stopped and the patient recovered.
