Chicago's Mayoralty Campaign Comes to Close--A Bitter Contest

Chicago, April 3.—Amid a blitz of oratorical pyrotechnics and political rallies, one of the bitterest municipal campaigns in the history of the city will come to an end tonight. Tomorrow the voters of the city will elect a mayor, a board of aldermen and other city officials, and from the bitter character of the campaign, trouble is expected at the polls.

The republicans, however, were not without their troubles. They had five candidates for the mayoralty nomination in the field, and had to contend with a strong anti-laborer feeling among their followers. Beside Merriam, there were John R. Thompson, Tom Murray, John Scully and John Smulski—the last named is said to have been favored by Governor Deneen. The struggle between this quintette was also marked with personal attacks in speeches, newspapers and placards. At the primaries, however, Merriam's work as head of the commission bearing his name brought him in a winner by a large majority—25,000.

DEMOCRATS ARE BEHAVING BEAUTIFULLY

Washington, April 3.—The democrats of the house are behaving beautifully. One day after another is the order of the day. The trouble that many anticipated over the assignments to committees by the committee on committees did not come. Instead there was harmony and good feeling. Everybody seems satisfied. There are some sore places but not enough to hurt, inside of a short time all will be well with the ones named. For the first time in years the democrats of the popular body of congress are presenting a united front to the enemy. The give and take spirit helped to bring this sort of feeling about. The committee has the support of most of the members of the house. Serious trouble was threatened with Representative Sulzer of New York, who by ratification of the chairman of the committee on military affairs, when the position was given to Mr. Hay of Virginia. Among other things the New Yorker charged a "Southern conspiracy" which endangered the union. To quiet him Representative Flood of Virginia, who was slated for foreign affairs, gave way so that the committee in charge could appease Sulzer. Frank Clark of Florida, gave up merchant marine and fisheries so that Sparkman of Florida could be elected chairman of rivers and harbors. These are two of many instances of a similar nature.

NASHVILLE SOFT DRINK MEN FINE D

Nashville, Tenn., April 3.—Two hundred and seventy-five druggists and grocers of Nashville, indicted for violating the revenue laws, came forward in the criminal court of Davidson county this morning, through their attorney, with a plea of guilty, and were assessed fines of $25 and costs, each, by A. B. Nell, judge of the court. This was a compromise measure of the wholesale number of indictments found November 11th, 1910. It follows the outcome of the cases against Robert Brothers about two weeks ago, in which the defendants were found guilty and assessed a fine of $50, in accordance with a sweeping charge of Judge Nell, who held that a federal liquor license was prima facie evidence of violation of the revenue laws only.
