A RELIABLE MEDICINE—NOT A NARCOTIC.

Mrs. F. Martl, St. Ole, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. HICKORY NEWS NOTES.

Special to The News.

Hickory, April 4.—Two fire alarms were turned in Sunday afternoon. The first was a call from a dwelling on Ninth avenue at about 2:30 o'clock. Owing to the occupants of the house not being at home the fire had gained such headway before it was discovered that by the time the fire department reached the scene the whole roof was aflame. By quick work on the part of the department the fire was soon under control.

It is thought that it was partially covered by insurance. The second alarm was turned in about 5:45. This time it was two adjoining stables belonging to Messrs. A. A. Whitener and Will Seabock. These stables were only a block from the fire station, both being erected of wood, and filled with forage, etc. They made an excellent place for the ravages of the flames, which completely enveloped them before the fire department arrived.

New Series, Boys

1st payment, Saturday, this week, 1st day of April. You failed to get in the January series, and you led to Mollie again. Your poor wife knows what it is to have no money, no nest egg but aside for the dark days, days when you're sick, out of work, or when death overtakes one of her little flock. Money, Jno., money is always necessary, and you can't find it on the trees. You've got to save it to have it, and the king of financiers on Wall Street is a lousy when it comes to helping a poor man to stand alone compared to this little shop.

YOU, YOUNG MAN are going to ask a fair daughter of this Sunny Land and, perhaps, from a laughing, happy household, to join you in growing a family tree! Listen to me now—where are you going to take her? Have you a home? Have you shares in Kessler's "Billy Malone"? Are you saving something each week? No, did you say, No? Then you've got gaul, young man, undiluted audacity. The old man will show you the door—you'll feel like a punch nickel looks. Why, the girl that would marry a thing like that is a menace to society. She ought to be locked up.

WHAT AM I TO DO THEN? If I can't marry Mittle, I'll commit suicide. Now, you said something, Jno., you're just right. I'll go right down to Weddington's store and get you a little $2.00 gun, and I'll pay for it, for you have no credit, and I don't want you to fail to get off. We don't want any family trees such as you and Mittle will grow. Cheaper to bury you than to care for you and Mittle and branches a little later.
