Cashion Presented One Goose - Egg To Cross Crowd

The Big Davidson Pitcher, with a Change of Pace And a Swift Ball, had Hornets at His Mercy.

Score Was 11 to 0 When the Final Frame Frizzled Out, and "Big Liz" was The Hero of the First Day.

Cashion did it. There ain't no use a-tall of trying to get around the proposition with any rhetorical utterances, or paradoxical subtleties. Nor can baseball slang help but little. For Charlotte was beaten and beaten badly. One large goose egg was presented by that "Big Liz" Cashion, who once twirled for Davidson and who is now drawing a salary from the Spinners. Three score was 11 to 0 when the ninth frame had ended.

Schaeffer, Cummings and Henry tried to stop the Greenville crowd from scoring, but none was successful. Schaeffer lasted four rounds, Cummings one and Henry four. There wasn't much difference in their pitching, each man allowed some hits, walking some men and throwing them across so the other fellows could do most anything with them.

There were no home runs, though, and this helped a lot. Cashion was in his best form. The four hits gotten off his delivery were scattered and one was a Texas-leaguer of the rankest order. He used an underhand ball, an overhand ball and a speedy one that was something on the order of those shot across the plate by Walter Johnson of Washington. He pitched a greater game here yesterday than has been seen upon this diamond since the season opened. There are prospects, too, that he will pitch again before the Spinners leave. May luck favor us if he does.

Cross and Garman made errors in the first inning and that started the ball a-rolling. Jenkins sacrificed and Goodman hit for three sacks, scoring both men and being thrown out at the plate himself when he tried to stretch the hit into four sacks. The throw from the field was a perfect one. From this minute until the last man was out in the first frame there was absolutely nothing for the Hornets. They did not swing. Some one threw dirt in the air, perhaps, or maybe a bell was rung. Anyway, they settled down to their defeat.

The game was featured by more double plays than any one played here yet. It was a common occurrence for two men to be on the bases and both get caught. It was also featured by a boneheaded play of Cummings who took a throw from the field and tossed it over the catcher's head. Hargrave and Canny were both behind the bat. Each worked well. Brandon at third was in excellent form and Coutts in left field did all that was required of him. Roth was there with the goods except the fact that he did not hit as well as usual. But no one hit Cashion.

"Big Liz" was in great form and he turned the trick. It was said some time ago in these columns that he was the best pitcher in the league with the possible exception of Swindell of Winston. It is stated right here, right now, that he is the best pitcher, Swindell, not excepted.

The box score will tell a lot about that game yesterday though. It's an interesting thing to study. There is another game this afternoon at four o'clock and Griffin will work for the Spinners while Hankie will mount the mound for the Hornets. The box score:

LYON BEATEN BY WINSTON-SALEM IN SPARTANBURG

Spartanburg, May 9.—Lyon was not ferocious yesterday and Winston won the opening of the series by the score of 9 to 5. Swindell, Winston's star twirler, was batted from the box in the early stages, and Ray relieved him. Manager LaVal took the place of Lyon after the game was lost, but two runs were scored off his delivery. The game was an uninteresting one, dragging for two hours and a half and tiring many of the fans.

Y. M. C. A. Boys to Have Day on River

Next Saturday promises to be a red letter day for the members of the boys department of the Young Men's Christian Association. The members of Bible classes and their teachers will spend the day at Davidson place on the Catawba river. The members of the Bible classes extend a cordial invitation to every member of the department to accompany them for the day. It will be a basket picnic and each boy is expected to carry his own lunch. As it will be necessary to know beforehand just how many are going, every boy who intends to go should notify the boys' secretary or some member of the committee not later than Thursday. The following committee have charge of the arrangements: Ed DeArmond, Martin Boyer, and Everit Nisbet. The committee are requested to meet with the secretary to-night at 7 o'clock to complete arrangements.

Jupiter Pluvius on Job in Greensboro

Jupiter Pluvius prevented a good game of ball, perhaps, in Greensboro, yesterday. The little pearly drops descended in their iridescent purity and "Rabbit" Doyle would not allow his hares to chase around the field, nor would Kelley think of allowing his Electricians to be struck by any bolt from the blue. It was the first postponed game of the season.

German Rifle Club Meets. By Associated Press. Charleston, S. WARNING TO RAILROAD MEN
E. S. Bacon, 11 East St., Bath, Me., sends out this warning to railroaders: "As conductor on the railroad, my work caused a chronic inflammation of the kidneys, and I was miserable and all played out. A friend advised Foley Kidney Pills and from the day I commenced taking them, I began to regain my strength. The inflammation cleared and I am far better than I have been for twenty years. The weakness and dizzy spells are a thing of the past and I highly recommend Foley Kidney Pills." Bowen Drug Store, on North Square.
