won the dual track meet from Harvard. on Yale Field Saturday by 54 1-2 1-2 points to 48 1-2 points. A dispute arose over the start of the 220-yard hurdles, the Yale runners having heeded the starter's recall while the Harvard men refused to come back Ref. cree Sullivan declared it a race, but the event was run over at the request of the Harvard advisors with the result that Chisholm, of Yale, won. The event remains undecided as the run off will not count. As more than 52 points wins the meet, Yale has a clear title to victory.
