This is what a prominent Charlotte business man said of his experience with a small classified advertisement in 'The News':

"I am not much of a hand at giving testimonials and don't like to see my name in print except at the bottom of an advertisement, so I don't want you to go and print what I say to you over my name. You know I never did use 'The News' for advertising until last month and then I ran a little 'For Sale' ad that brought me so much business that I think I ought to tell you about it. You see I had some lots I wanted to sell and I spent a little more than $175 trying to find buyers for them. Evidently the expenditure was not wisely made for as from some experience with methods that will not sell real estate I brought me nothing—not a single buyer or even an inquiry from a prospective customer. Nothing the matter with the lots, price all right and terms easy but no one was interested. Then I put a little ad in the classified columns of 'The News' and it seemed as if every one wanted to know about my lots. To the people who answered that little ad I sold nine lots. It was a revelation to me and if the advertising had cost me $100 I would have considered the money well spent. Your bill, however, says I owe you 87 cents. I'll pay it, and hereafter when I have a proposition I want quick action on you will see it advertised in 'The News.'"

Egan Met Moser in Six Round Bout

Kid Egan, a boy who has stood before Abe Attell twice and who has fought some of the best ones in the country, met Earl Moser, the "Sailor Boy," here in the auditorium last night for a six-round bout. No decision was rendered, but Egan was easily the victor. He carried the fight all the way, poking out his jaw and inviting a swat upon it. He hit as hard as he could, but the blows amounted to but little. Egan has a head that won't be jarred but a very little. The match was one of the best ones seen here in a long time.

Mr. Anderson is Made General Manager

Mr. Robert L. Anderson, of the Novelty Manufacturing and Foundry Company, located at the corner of South Poplar street and the railroad, has been appointed general manager of the business, which was originally the Dixie Foundry Company. Mr. Anderson was the pioneer in the waste paper industry in this section of the country, coming here from New York where he has had long experience in various manufacturing industries in the novelty line as well as in heavy casting.

May Hold Sunday Services at County Jail

For some weeks of late two or three Christian people, filled with a desire to do some good for the fallen, have been holding meetings at 5 o'clock on Sunday afternoons in the Mecklenburg county jail for the benefit of those who are so unfortunate as to have been placed there.

The attention of some of the young men of the city having been called to this work and learning that an organ was needed in the meetings, they placed the matter before the Young Men's Bible classes of four Sunday schools, Second Presbyterian, Trinity Methodist, First Baptist and First Presbyterian, with the result that an organ has been secured and placed at the disposal of the good people who are engaged in carrying on this work.

As this work progresses there is a need of additional helpers and it is sincerely hoped that a number of people will be found who are willing to devote an hour on Sunday to this noble work. Any one who is so disposed will be doing the right thing to go to the meeting on next Sunday afternoon.

Why doesn't somebody write an article on how to build one of those $1,500 bungalows at a cost of less than $5,000?

Funeral of Harry Harding, Jr. This Morning

The funeral of little Harry P. Harding, Jr., son of Prof. and Mrs. Harding, whose death was noted in yesterday's News, was held this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence and was conducted by Rev. Alva W. Plyler, pastor of Trinity Methodist church. The entertainment was in Elmwood and a profusion of beautiful flowers were strewn over the small mound.

Baird School Finals On Monday Evening

The closing exercises of the Baird school will take place Monday evening at Hanna hall, Y. M. C. A. building, at 8 o'clock. Although the school actually closed Wednesday, the commencement exercises were postponed until Monday night because of the congestion of all the other events of the week. The exercises on that evening will consist of declamations, essays and a debate. The school has had a very prosperous year and has developed among the young men some debaters of more than usual ability. The public is cordially invited to come to the exercises.

"The Colonel's Maid" Given Again Tonight

At the request of many friends the faculty and students of the Southern Industrial Institute will repeat the delightful little play, "The Colonel's Maid" Friday night at the Institute. It was presented for the first time several weeks ago and the friends were very insistent that it be repeated. But, because of the rush of work it has been impossible to give it before now. Because of the increased familiarity with their parts the members of the cast will be received with even greater enthusiasm than they were on their first appearance.

Mrs. Shaw's Mother Died At Asheboro

Mrs. Francis A. Porter, wife of the late David Worth, pastor of Asheboro, and mother of Mrs. A. R. Shaw, of this city, died at her home in Asheboro last Wednesday. Mrs. Shaw was at the bedside of her mother when the end came and Rev. A. R. Shaw left yesterday to attend the funeral, which was held in Asheboro.

"What a strangely interesting face your friend the poet has," gurgled the maiden of 40. "It seems to possess all the elements of happiness and sorrow, each struggling for supremacy." "es, he looks to me like a man who was married and didn't know it," growled the Cynical Bachelor.
