

Presbyterian College--
New Regime To-morrow--
Faculty as far as Completed

Wide interest has been manifested in the new faculty of the Presbyterian College for Women, in this city, since the News first announced to the public last spring the change of regime to be made at the college.

Tomorrow marks an epoch--the history of all things old being done away with and all things becoming new at the college.

The official key has been handed by ex-President Bridges to the new president, Dr. J. L. Caldwell.

Dr. Caldwell takes official charge, assuming the duties of the presidency tomorrow.

Since Dr. Caldwell accepted the presidency, he with the assistance of the board of trustees, has been busy securing a faculty for the new era upon which the college is entering.

After voluminous correspondence, and winnowing, accepting only those of highest recommendation to suit the higher course of study to be inaugurated, Dr. Caldwell has secured a faculty which will be second to none in the south.

The faculty is not entirely complete, there being several places yet to fill. The following though incomplete in the points designated, gives the public an idea of the excellence of the faculty to be inaugurated with the new regime.

Officers for government and instruction: John L. Caldwell, D. D., Princeton University, Union Theological Seminary, Va. Princeton Theological Seminary, President.

SEVEN YEARS OF MISERY

All Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sikeston, Mo. "For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed operation for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like I, too, I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."

—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is more widely and successfully used than any other remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, the bearing-down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed. Why don't you try it?

Surviving Mrs. Franklin and three children: Mrs. Pickard, Capt. T. S. Franklin and Mrs. Oren Franklin.

As Mrs. Pickard is too unwell to come to Charlotte, the funeral services will be conducted in Wilmington this afternoon and the remains brought here tomorrow noon. The interment will take place in Elmwood, the funeral party going immediately from the train to the cemetery.

The commitment services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Hutten, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The pallbearers will be the deacons of the church: Messrs. W. C. Dowd, J. A. Durham, Willis Brown, B. F. Withers, J. A. Yarbrough, H. G. Harper, J. F. Mosteller, J. W. Lewis, J. E. Murphy, C. H. Robinson, C. E. Mason, J. F. Hackney, I. W. Durham, H. A. Cook.

Capt. Franklin is a member of the board of deacons.

Death of an Infant. William Myers, the 10-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Williams Yandele, died at 9 o'clock this morning at their home on 610 East Fifth street. The funeral services will be conducted tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the house, by Rev. Mr. Kennedy.

To Be Operated On. Mattie, a young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ford, of Steel Creek, was brought to the Charlotte Sanatorium today for an operation. The bill was brought in by Dr. Pressley's automobile.

On account of the death of Capt. T. S. Franklin's mother, the Extension Chapter of the Y. W. C. A. will not meet at the Misses Liddell's Friday afternoon, but at Miss Ruth Rellie's.

A FUTURE DOCTOR. Miss Margaret Whiteside, a sister of Mrs. J. Arthur Henderson, who is studying to be a doctor, at the Pennsylvania College for Women, will be here next week to visit her sister. Miss Whiteside is in the junior class this year. She will get her degree next year. She is a remarkably talented young woman.

GUEST OF MRS. MILLER. Miss Lula Reid, of Norfolk, Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Brevard Miller, at Tenth avenue. Miss Reid is delightfully remembered here as a guest of Mrs. Miller last fall.

MRS. BUSSEY LEAVES TUESDAY. Mrs. E. L. Bussey leaves Tuesday next for Clifton, a pretty suburban settlement near Cincinnati to join her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Brannon, for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Brannon have a pretty summer home at Clifton. They spend the winters in Cincinnati. Mrs. Bussey will close her flat on Garland Court, during her absence.

Mrs. R. L. Patterson went to Mt. Pleasant today to visit her father, Mr. G. W. Blackwelder, who has been in failing health for the past month.

ALEXANDER HOME MANAGERS. The managers of the Alexander Home will meet tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church instead of the Home.

$3.50 Recipe Free For Weak Men. Send Name and Address to day--You can Have it Free And Be Strong And Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory and lameness brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many weak and nervous men right in their own homes--without any additional help or medicine--that I think every man who wishes to regain this manly power and vitality quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor fail ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quickly and quietly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4819 Luok Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $3.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this--but I send it directly free.

Mrs. Franklin Dead --End Came Today

After Several Weeks of Illness the Mother of Capt. J. S. Franklin Died at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. Pickard, in Wilmington.

Mrs. James Benjamin Franklin, mother of Capt. T. S. Franklin, of this city, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Pickard, in Wilmington.

Mrs. Franklin, as noted several weeks ago, in The News, had recently had a stroke of paralysis, and death was due to that cause.

Mrs. Franklin was born and reared in Charlotte, and spent all of her life here until about six or seven years ago, when she went to Wilmington to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Pickard. She was beloved by a wide circle of friends in Charlotte, all of whom esteemed her for her many fine womanly traits, her gentleness of spirit and strength of character. She was a devoted wife and mother, self-sacrificing and self-forgetting in her service for those she loved. She was a loyal and devoted member of the Baptist denomination, her membership being in the First Baptist church of this city, to which she rendered faithful service, in attendance and work when a resident of Charlotte.

Surviving Mrs. Franklin are three children: Mrs. Pickard, Capt. T. S. Franklin and Mrs. Oren Franklin.

As Mrs. Pickard is too unwell to come to Charlotte, the funeral services will be conducted in Wilmington this afternoon and the remains brought here tomorrow noon. The interment will take place in Elmwood, the funeral party going immediately from the train to the cemetery.
