

Second Day's Session

As Dr. J. S. Brown says is "the place we meet next year."
Able Address.
The addresses delivered at the opening of the medical convention yesterday morning were pronounced amongst the ablest ever heard on a similar occasion.

Interurban to Begin Work - Rails are Here

Fourteen car loads of rails for the Interurban have been received here, and are being delivered at the western terminal of the car line, at Chadwick-Hoskins Mills.
Work on the Interurban will begin within a few days, starting at Chadwick-Hoskins and going toward Mt. Holly. The first bridge to be crossed is that at Long's creek. The Southern Power Company, as will be remembered, is to build about 13 new bridges for the Interurban tracks. Long creek being one. The work of building the foundation for the new bridge there is under way.

Alumni Banquet to N. C. Med. Students

Held Last Night at the Central Hotel was the most brilliant in history of College - Dr. J. P. Munroe, Pres. of College, Presided.
The annual banquet by the alumni of the North Carolina Medical College was held last night in the dining room of the Central Hotel, the largest and most elegant in proportions of any in the city. The banquet table was set in the centre of the room, extending more than half the length of the room.

Class of 1905 are Having a Reunion

Among the many interesting events in connection with the meeting of the doctors here, will be a reunion of the class of 1905 of the North Carolina Medical College. The meeting will be held at the court house this afternoon in the criminal court room.
The feature of the reunion will be the presentation of a memento to Dr. J. P. Munroe, president of the North Carolina Medical College, by the class of 1905. The memento will be in the shape of a set of diamond cuff buttons and is intended as an expression of the esteem in which Dr. Munroe is held by that class.

1st. Church May Call Dr. Thompson

It is expected that there will be a congregational meeting at the First Presbyterian church Sunday week to consider the matter of calling a pastor. In connection with the pastorate the name of Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Charlestown, West Virginia, is prominently mentioned.
Mr. Thompson is a son of Rev. Mr. Thompson, formerly of Sharon church.

Doctor's Prescription Failed - the Great Kidney Remedy Proves its Merit

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one of the best patent medicines that is better than many of the prescriptions prescribed by doctors, at least it has done more good for backache and kidney trouble than any other medicine I know of and I always recommend it to my friends as I know it can't be beat.
I had a severe backache sometime ago, which could not be cured by the doctors' medicine. I am glad to say, however, that Swamp-Root cured me in a few weeks' time.

First Cotton Bloom Reported by Mr. Blakney

Mr. J. A. Blakney, of Lower Providence, phone in the first cotton bloom to the News today. For 25 years, with the exception of one year, Mr. Blakney has marketed the first bale of cotton on the Charlotte market. Mr. Lark Robinson beat him to it one year - thereby hangs a tale which is ancient history.

MRS. PERSON TO START WEST.
Mrs. Joe Person and daughter, Miss Josie Person, of Hickory, will leave Monday on an extensive trip West. They will go to New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Texas and may follow the insurrection into Mexico, "cause you know there's no telling where Mrs. Person will go. She's been over every inch of ground "round here" and sighs for new earth upon which to tread. She isn't going in any party - "just Josie and myself, so we can stop when we want to and start when we want to" - she says.

MRS. ARLEDGE'S TRIP.
Mrs. Richard Arledge and five little sons, Richard, Jr., will leave in a few days for Chattanooga, where they will spend several weeks. They will also visit on Missionary Ridge.

RECEPTION TO VISITING PHYSICIANS.
The event of the evening will be a brilliant reception to be tendered the North Carolina Medical Society, in all of its component parts, by the Mecklenburg County Society at the Southern Manufacturers' Club. This elegant building will never witness an abler gathering or more scientific. To meet these men of science who have come from mountain, plain and coast will be several hundred representative men and women of the city, who will assist the local committee of arrangements in extending greeting from the city which feels sensibly the honor of having the state society as a guest.

LANDED AT PLYMOUTH.
Dr. and Mrs. C. B. King, of Elizabeth College, who left about a week ago for Europe, landed day before yesterday evening at 6 o'clock at Plymouth, England.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT VANDERBILT.
Nashville, Tenn., June 21. - Commencement exercises were held this morning at Vanderbilt University. The commencement address was delivered by President Harry Pratt Judson, of the University of Chicago. In the course of his address he spoke at length on the wide prevalence of disregard for inconvenient restraints imposed by law. "We rejoice in Andrew Jackson," he said, "when he violated international law by invading Spanish territory in time of peace and by hanging outlaws outside American jurisdiction. Some of us canonize John Brown as a saint of liberty, although in fact he was guilty of insurrection and wilful homicide; and we instinctively sympathize with Roosevelt's Tammany friend in the New York legislature 'what's the constitution among friends?'"

There were 88 graduates in the several departments.

AFTERMATH OF CRIPPEN CASE.

London, June 21. - Arthur Newton, the attorney for Dr. H. H. Crippen, who was hanged for the murder of his American wife, the actress, Belle Elmore, has been found guilty of professional misconduct in connection with the notorious case by a committee of the law society and today the division court was asked to "deal with him."
The charges against Newton are that he abused his privileges as a lawyer by giving and abetting newspapers to publish false statements regarding the Crippen case.

GUESTS OF DR. AND MRS. NEWELL.

Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Newell have as their guest, Dr. Wm. McNider, of Chapel Hill, a noted physician of the east.

Fumes Go Over For Ten Days

The case of R. A. Mayer and citizens of Dilworth, against the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, complaining of the fumes from soda plants, has been continued 10 days, the defendants having agreed to shut down the plants until they could install modern condensors for the purpose of condensing the odors and fumes from the plants. The complaint of the citizens of Dilworth was made through Mr. B. A. Mayer, of Dilworth. Mr. H. W. Hoed is local manager of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company.
The citizens of Dilworth were represented by Burwell & Casner, Mr. J. A. Parker, city solicitor, and Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick. The chemical company is represented by Osburn, Lucas and Cox, and Cameron Morrison.

THE IMPRUDENCE OF PRUE

A New Novel by Sophie Fisher
This is ostensibly an historical romance, with the scenes laid in England at the time of Queen Anne, but the history is kept entirely subordinate to the romance. The story indeed has the effect of gay and high-spirited comedy, and laughter knows no distinctions of time or history. It aims not at depth but at affording sheer entertainment, and this it does in fullest measure.
The heroine is a wholly delicious creature, whose gaiety, wit and love of adventure set the pages stirring like a gale of wind. Her sweetness, her recklessness, her cleverness of resource, the nimbleness of her tongue, are unfailing. Prue's prime imprudence is a marriage with a highwayman confined in Newgate Prison and condemned to death - a marriage contracted as an escape from her debts. But the highwayman is unexpectedly reprieved, and then -
