Anderson, S. C., June 24.—Andy Mc
Carthy went in to pitch for the locals yesterday and won, 6 to 5. This is the home runs were driven in as a result their six runs. Had it not been for his offensive stick work the game would have caused runs to count. The Red Sox played an up-hill game all the way won. Four of the runs of the visitors have been more interesting than it through, and although they did not win were due to errors and should not have was Scheesley was in masterful form they managed to keep up with the been made. In the fourth Howard got gracious and walked Coutts and Wofford and Seigfried beat out a would-be sacri fice. Malcolmson then proceeded to break things up and put one over the fence causing four runs to count. In the second Coutts walked, Wofford singled, and Seigfried sacrificed and Malcolmson, who followed, brought Coutts ome on a sacrifice fly to the outfield. In the eighth he managed to count one more for the visitors, knocking his second home run of the game.

In the second the Twins shoved one over on a base on balls to Gates, an intended bunt by Stewart, who turned it into a hit, a single by Daley, and Seigfried's error of Clemens' grounder. In the ninth the Twins also annex-

Hard to Get Good Men. Have to Make Sacrifices

There are very few baseball fans who realize the concessions that minor league club owners must make in order to obtain ball players worth while from the "big fellows." Bridges Time and Space

TT WAS A QUESTION of life or death and the victim's life hung by a slender thread. A difficult operation was necessary. To be successful the operation must be performed at once. The services of a specialist were required, but he was in a distant city.

The specialist was reached over the Long Distance Bell Telephone, the case described and the operation arranged for.

The sufferer's life was saved through the ability of the Universal Bell Telephone Service to bridge time and space.
