A wonderful cure by

"About ten years ago my eyesight began to fail to such an extent that it became necessary for me to consult a specialist. My trouble increased until I found it necessary to consult several others. My case was diagnosed as Atrophy of the Optic Nerve, caused by impoverished blood supply. The progress of my trouble was slow but steady, with never any rellef, until finally my physician advised me that nothing further sould be done. About this time, about two years ago. I could not see to read, and my range of vision was so sbort that I could not see anything at a greater distance than fifty or seveny-five leet. I often found it difficult to recognize acausintances when I met them, distinguishing hem more by their voices than their features. In May, 1909, a friend advised me that if the abysician's diagnosis was correct, MILAM will pure you, because it will purify and enrich the slood, increase the flow, and build up the system; but it will take a long time and the improvement will be slow."

It being evident from all the testimony that the driver had no malic-ious intent in handling the horse and probably unwillingly brought on its condition by giving a feed of green oats followed by all the water it wanted to drink, the case was compromised. The negro agreed to compensate the owner for injury done the horse, Mr. Jake Newell represented the defendant.

The next matter of importance was the opportunity of local school committeemen in every township in the county. This selection of committeemen, of course means a great deal to the county schools. Several delegations were present with the board from several sections of the county and their pe-

Special to The News

Raleigit, N. C., July 3.-The most noticeable development in connection with the four-cornered contest for the senatorial toga now worn by Senator Simmons, the past week, was the mail ing to leaders in every section of the open letter that Governor Aycock wrote some weeks ago in announcing his decision to enter the race. While quoted in the folder did not specifically commit the paper to the Avcock candidacy while paying tribute to he most of them did and they make quite a formidable showing. It is an interesting fact that each of the three other candidates for the zenate, Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Walter Clark, received copies of this folder. Ex-Governor Aycock says he did not send out the foider or have anything to do with the copies being mailed to others in the race but that he would be most happy to have the support of either or all of them.

Chief Justice Clark had the North Carolina Bar Association all to himself the past week at Toxaway so far as the actual presence of senatorial candidates was concerned, and that he made all the "hay" possible in connection therewith is the general verdict. The chief justice of the state in the annual convention of jurists and lawyers was a field for campaign work rich in possi bilities and well justifying the greatest effort of Justice Clark, who is a campaigner of acknowledged supremacy. Governor Kitchin was asked if he did not fear to allow official duties to keep him from the bar association, thereby leaving the chief justice with an unchecked sway there and he replied that he was hoping that the lawyers there would so urge upon Judge Clark that they want him on the supreme court bench still that he would ultimately decide to withdraw from
