Social and Personal

(By ADDIE WILLIAMS CALDWELL)

ENID'S SONG.

By Alfred Tenneyson.
Turn, Fortune, turn thy wheel and lower the proud;
Turn thy wild wheel through sunshine, storm and cloud;
Thy wheel and thee we neither love nor hate.

Turn, Fortune, turn thy wheel with smile or frown;
With that wild wheel we go not up or down;
Our hoard is little, but our hearts are great.

Smile and we smile, the lords of many lands;
Frown and we smile, the lords of our own hands;
For man is man and master of his fate.

Turn, turn thy wheel above the staring crowd;
Thy wheel and thou are shadows in the cloud;
Thy wheel and thee we neither love nor hate.

(Browning.)

Then welcome each rebuff
That turns the earth's smoothness rough.
Each sting that bids nor sit nor stand, but go!

Be our joys three parts pain!
Strive, and hold cheap the strain;
Learn, nor account the pang; dare never grudge the throe!

"Dream delivers us to dream, and there is no end to illusion. Life is a train of moods like a string of beads, and as we pass through them, they prove to be many-colored lenses which paint the world their own hue, and each shows only what lies in its focus. From the mountain you see the mountain. We animate what we can, and see only what we animate. Nature and books belong to the eyes that see them. It depends on the mood of the man, whether he shall see the sunset or the fine poem. There are always sunsets, and there is always genius; but only a few hours so serene that we can relish nature or criticism. The more or less depends on structure or temperament. Temperament is the iron wire on which the beads are strung."—Emerson's Essay on Temperament.

Miss Laura Augusta Lynch left yesterday for Virginia to visit friends in several cities. She will be absent until school commences in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott and daughter, Marion, of Charlottesville, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Scott and little son, Morton, of Spartanburg, are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Scott, on east Morehead street.

DR. NISBET RETURNS.

Dr. W. O. Nesbit returned Saturday night from Linville, where he spent a week or so. He was joined there by Dr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Nesbit, of New York; the former a brother of Dr. W. O. Nesbit. Dr. and Mrs. J. Nesbit will remain at Linville for a month.

HOME FROM WRIGHTSVILLE.

Miss Dolores Bellinger has returned from a most delightful trip to Wrightsville.

Miss Sarah Kelly is home after a month's absence spent at Chapel Hill Summer School and a visit to Miss Woodbin Chambers at Graham.

Miss May Gates will be the guest for a week of Mrs. Robt. Lassiter.

SOCIETY EVENT IN RUTHERFORDTON

Of interest here will be the following cards which came today:
Dr. and Mrs. Edward Brockman Harris request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter Kathleen

to
Mr. Howell Nelson Klueppelberg on Thursday evening the twenty-seventh of July, one thousand nine hundred and eleven at seven o'clock "Cedar Hill"

Rutherfordton, North Carolina. The bride and groom are both pleasantly known here.

MRS. HACKETT ACCEPTS CHURCH OFFER

After service at the Second Presbyterian church last night, a meeting of the music committee was held to receive Mrs. Lois Long Hackett's answer in regard to the offer made her to become solo soprano at the church. Mrs. Hackett accepted the offer—a fact which will be heard with infinite pleasure by the Second church congregation and outside friends and admirers of Mrs. Hackett. She will continue her residence in Statesville, coming down on Saturday and remaining until Monday morning. During her week-end stays here Mrs. Hackett will be with Mrs. D. W. Oates at her home on North Tryon street.

Mrs. Hackett has a sweet musical voice—sympathetic and excellent. She sings with charming simplicity and ease. Last night in quartet, "I Will Magnify Thee, O Lord," her voice rang true and clear on high A and blended most beautifully with the other voices. Mrs. Hackett is not only a vocalist but an artist. She reads at sight without hesitation and knows music from a literary as well as musical standpoint.

As Mrs. Hackett cannot be here during the week, and as it is the custom for the church choir to sing at funerals in the church, a choir for funeral occasions will be an adjunct to the regular choir.

VISITING IN COLUMBIA

Mrs. Alex Stephens and sons, Messrs. Alex, Jr., and Louis, are visiting relatives in Columbia, S. C. Mrs. Stephens, who is organist of the First Baptist church, will return to the city in time for her duties at the church. Her mother's family were from Columbia and she has relatives who are

LEFT THIS MORNING

Mrs. D. W. Oates left this morning for Flat Rock, according to her purpose, as announced several days ago. She will remain with Mr. Oates until he is able to come home, or recovers sufficiently to remain and enjoy Flat Rock. Mr. Oates is in a very weak condition. He has taken no nourishment for several days.

CARDS FOR THE 20TH

Friends in Charlotte have received the following cards:
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hampton request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their niece Lillie Mae Grubbs

to
Mr. Theodore Felix Bodenhamer Thursday, July twentieth, nineteen hundred and eleven at half-after eight o'clock at the home of the bride North Liberty Street, Winston-Salem.

VISITED MISS GIDNEY.

Cleveland Star: "Miss Stella Scroggs of Charlotte was here last week visiting her friend, Miss Leona Gidney."

ANOTHER SONGBIRD FROM STATESVILLE

Miss Martha Simmons, of Statesville, who is the present guest of Miss Jean Dowd, has an unusually sweet soprano. She is a member of the choir of the First Presbyterian church of Statesville, the choir which also claimed Mrs. Lois Long Hackett as a member. Statesville has always been noted for its musical talent. Mrs. Hackett and Miss Simmons are charming evidences of the fact that Iredell is filled with sweet voices.

D. A. R. COLUMN

The D. A. R. column is indebted to Mrs. John Van Landingham, ex-regent of North Carolina, for a copy of the proceedings of the tenth annual congress of the national society Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Van Landingham's last report to the state congress as regent is one of the most interesting articles in the book. In speaking of the growth of the organization, Mrs. Van Landingham said:

"Since our last delightful congress in Charlotte another year has brought its pleasures and its sorrows. Many have been added to our roll, but precious ones have been taken from us. In national work the death of Mrs. John A. Murphy, who so capably acted as chairman of the national committee, "Children of the Republic," brought distinct loss, though her work has been vigorously carried on by her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Gardner of Tennessee. Mrs. Ellen J. Foster has recently died. Few years ago she has been a conspicuous figure in D. A. R. circles. As chairman of the national committee on Child Labor she contributed to the organization her talents as a lawyer, her large experience in public affairs, and her eloquence as a writer and a speaker.

"In this state five times has Charon's boat wafted loved members to the other shore, leaving us to weep and wonder. But their memory shall be dear to us. The record of their loyal services will be a new inspiration to duty. With bowed head and in lowered voice I call the names of Miss Dixie Alexander.
Mrs. J. J. Horney.
Mrs. W. A. Thomas.
Miss Marcia Rodman.
Mrs. Edward D. Latta.

"The number of admissions to the national society last year exceeded any previous year. North Carolina is contributing her quota. Two years ago we had only 250 members. Last year the number reported by the chapters to your state meeting was 374. Eighty-two members have been admitted this year. Five have died and four have been dropped. Our present membership therefore is 447.
"One new chapter has completed its organization, the Mt. Reading Blount at Washington, with Miss Lida Rodman as regent. This gives us 16 chapters (as against 11 two years ago) and 19 votes in Continental congress. A chapter is now forming at Gastonia authorized as the "William Gaston," under the leadership of Mrs. Rufus Johnston, and one at Durham, enthusiastically guided by Mrs. John F. Wiley.

"Daughters of North Carolina, I congratulate you upon what you have done, and I have faith in what you are going to do.

"O, daughters of a hero race!
Because your lineage you trace
Back to those mighty ones of old,
Think not that you may safely hold
You are of them. Not so; unless
Like them you live the world to bless;
For now, as then, the great world
Needs
Pure thoughts, strong words and noble deeds."

Shriners Gifts Are Magnificent

Several of the Shriners who have returned home from the great things done by the Rochester Shriners—Damasus Temple. A precedent was set which will be hard to follow. Imperial Potentate Fred A. Hines, of Los Angeles, was given a $3,500 auto painted with the Shrine colors, and Deputy Imperial Potentate John P. Treatoff, of Fargo, N. D., was the recipient of a 40-horse power car. That's going some.

Mr. Pruett to Assist.

Says the Cleveland Star: "Elizabeth Church will hold a revival meeting beginning on the fourth Sunday in July. Rev. John W. Suttle, pastor, will be assisted by Rev. L. R. Pruett, of Charlotte."

Lawn Tennis Stars In Tournament

By Associated Press.
Boston, July 17.—A galaxy of lawn tennis stars assembled at the Longwood Cricket Club today for the 21st annual tournament for the Longwood cup and the annual contest for the eastern championship in doubles. William L. Larned, the national champion, is the present holder of the Longwood cup and will defend that trophy against the winner of the tournament in the challenge match which is not likely to be reached until next week. The play in the eastern doubles begins tomorrow.
Among the entrants for the singles who reported today is William J. Clothier, of Philadelphia, who is again in the game after a years rest. There are also the two Pacific coast stars, Maurice McLaughlin and Melville E. Long.
Among others in the draw were Raymond D. Little, of New York; G. F. Toehard, the national indoor champion; N. W. Nies, of Boston; the Massachusetts title holder; T. R. Pell, C. B. Gardner, F. C. Inman, R. C. Seaver, W. H. Hall, E. H. Whitney, R. Bishop and E. P. Larned.

THUMBNAIL WIRTH $100.

Newton, N. J., July 17.—Determined that he shall not suffer financially for any injury causing him enforced idleness, Charles Heinsey, a grainer employed by a local painter, took out an accident policy for $50 on his thumbnail. Heinsey says he would not take $100 and part with the nail, but he thought that $50 of insurance would be enough.

Heinsey's nail is on his right thumb and is one and one-half inches long. He uses the nail almost entirely in his business, and says it is much better than an artificial grainer. Heinsey says he got the idea of insuring his nail when he suffered an accident some months ago which caused him to lay off. He says that several times the nail has been broken and each time he lost money by remaining idle. Now he says if another accident occurs he will be paid $50 insurance, and consequently won't feel the "lay off" so much.

BOY WAS "BLOWING" CHUMS.

Trenton, July 17.—Eddie Barry, 10 years old, who has been in police court three times his age, is being held by the police pending investigation as to where the boy obtained a large sum of money with which he was "blowing" his companions.
The case is one of the most peculiar the local police have had in years. They have been unable to ascertain where the boy got more than $50 with which he was making himself popular, though they are convinced he did not earn it or receive it as a reward for honesty. The boy just holds his tongue.

WALKS COOLLY OUT OF JAIL

Trenton, July 17.—Harvey A. Wise, alias Harry Shirk, a horse thief with a record, escaped the county jail. He was arrested in suspicion of having stolen a horse in Newark. Later it was found that he was wanted for horse-stealing in Bucks county, Pa., and was held awaiting extradition.
Wise has served 24 years, or nearly half his life, for horse-stealing. He apparently walked out of the jail unapprehended while employed in carrying whitewash to some other prisoners who were at work.

FIRST CAR OVER NEW LINE.

Phoenixville, Pa., July 17.—The first car over the new line of the Phoenixville, Valley Forge & Strafford Electric Railway made its trip Saturday over the line, which has been completed as far as the village of Corner Stores.

The car contained a number of guests of President Thomas E. O'Connell, of the railroad company. In another week another mile of the line will be opened to Williams' Corner.

TO TACKLE CHESTNUT BLIGHT.

Harrisburg, July 17.—Governor Tener held a consultation with Harold Pierce, of Philadelphia, one of the members of the commission for extermination of the chestnut tree blight, and discussed the proposed work of the commission. It is the plan to begin work within a short time.

Crabs Run Up the Delaware.

Woodbury, N. J., July 17.—Crabs are plentiful in the Delaware at the mouths of Woodbury, Mantua and Timber creeks. This only happens periodically in long droughts. The same conditions prevail further down the river, it is said.

REGARDING HAPPINESS

Mr. S. Hahn, of this town, who is employed in Charlotte, will return home tonight. He will spend this week attending court.

Miss Nenn Query, of Huntersville, is spending a while at the home of Miss Mary Hahn. Misses Hahn and Query spent few days in the country at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Honsucker.

Interesting Things Excursionists Will See

Those going on the B-B excursion on the Clinchfield will be interested in the following facts concerning the road:
It is the costliest railroad in the country, exceeding $200,000 per mile. Total cost more than $30,000,000. Its stone ballast ranges from twelve to twenty-four inches in depth.
One hundred and ten-pound best steel rails were used in its construction, and a grade of only six-tenths of one per cent has been maintained.
An elevation of 300 feet is reached at Alta Pass.
From Marion to Spruce Pine, in a stretch of eight miles, there are nineteen tunnels. Where these nineteen tunnels are located the road makes some wonderful curves, making a complete loop of six miles and returning to within 300 feet from where it began.
The road is also remarkable for its great cuts and fills.
The largest cut is called Soldiers' Home Cut, near Johnson City, which is nearly a mile in length and 85 feet deep. Near this cut is the largest fill known as Knob Creek Fill, 125 feet deep and three-fourths of a mile long.
The road traverses for 45 miles, the beautiful Nolichucky and Toe river gorge or canon, whose walls rise precipitously a thousand feet or more. Many ideal resort places are found along the Clinchfield road.
The annual B-B excursion will be operated over this route to Johnson City, Tenn., next Thursday, leaving S. A. L. depot at 8 a. m., rain or shine. Stops will be made at Spruce Pine, Tennis Racket Loop and Unaka Springs. Round trip fare will be only $3.00.
