On this page appears Twenty-six Separate Bargains, every one worth reading, for it represents a chance to save money. This is a regular Sunday feature of THE NEWS and most of the ads will be changed weekly.

These ads alone make mighty interesting reading, but to make it still more attractive THE NEWS will print each week a silhouette of one of the advertisers.

Each advertiser is a well known business man or woman and you may be able to tell who it is at a glance, but to make it easier we print a write up of each advertiser.

Last Sunday we published picture of W. H. Morris whose splendidly equipped meat market attracts many housekeepers and prudent buyers to West Trade street and is one of the best known establishments in that section of the town. We thought it a pretty good likeness but must have been mistaken for there were no claimants for the rewards at this office. are going to publish this picture again soon and warn our readers to be on the watch for

The name of the advertiser and those receiving the rewards will be published next Sunday.
