

Negroes Whipped In Texas

Marshall, Texas, July 22.—The anti-prohibition chairman here within the section where the alleged whippings occurred, announced that they know the names of the negroes punished, but that they are withholding them from publication at present for reasons to be announced later. It is reported that the anti-prohibitionists charged that night riders have been going through the country districts for several days intimidating negroes from going to the polls because of reports that the negroes would vote against prohibition. According to the reports four negroes were whipped near Roseborough Springs, one or two near Nesbitts and some punished in other localities. Will Allen, a negro, was whipped about four miles from here by five men yesterday.

At one o'clock the state chairman on both sides claimed the reports to them at noon indicated victory. The anti-prohibition headquarters claim a 75,000 majority and the prohibitionists 65,000 majority. The rains, it was reported, ceased falling in many parts of north Texas. No reports of serious disturbances were reported.

EXCUSE ME!

THE SHOE QUESTION.

No article of dress should be purchased with the care that should be expended on shoes. The appearance of the feet is extremely important, but the feeling of them is much more so. A woman who puts on a fine dress and an elaborate hat and forgets that her shoes are running down in the heels is sure of adverse criticism. Gloves and shoes are the tell-tale articles of attire. Well polished shoes are perhaps the surest sign of a neat person and vice-versa. Buy more shoes than you think that you can afford; never buy a cheap pair; let shoes be your luxury. Shoes are varied in type and style and the time and place, for the different styles should be carefully considered. Tan shoes were never intended for afternoon or evening wear. They are very useful for traveling, since they stay in good condition longer than black ones do. White shoes are necessary with a white costume, although black pumps of a light weight are sometimes seen. The second point about shoes is that they must be comfortable—the most important thing of all. Have you ever noticed the expression when a woman at some social function when her shoes were too tight or too new? The pain of a tortured foot is worse than all others because we dare not confide it even to our dearest friend. If a shoe is not comfortable when you try it on don't get it; you are laying up trouble for your self in the future years if you contemplate squeezing your feet in a moment of folly.—Norfolk Ledger.

THE ROTHSCHILD SUCCESS.

One day in September, nearly 10 years ago, and old Jew lay dying in a garbled house that bore the device of a red shield in the ghetto of Frankfurt-on-the-Main. Grouped around his bed were five stalwart sons. In a firm voice his children to Israel admonished by Moses; to remain loyal to the faith; to intermarry, and to obey their mother in all things. "Observe these rules," he declared, "and you will be rich among the rich, and the world will be long to you." Such was the earthly valedictory of Mayer Amchel Rothschild. As everybody well knows, that deathbed prophecy came true long ago. The world's only "billionaire" dynasty is evidence of his wisdom and foresight. Premiers, cabinets, and whole royal successions have risen, whole royal families have fallen, and their reign of the Rothschilds has but continued. Their scepter has been continued; their royal decree the bank note.—Munsey's Magazine.

MUSIC.

A certain well known composer now in the full vigor of his established reputation, was at one time, when he was comparatively unknown, engaged in writing the music for a production fathered by two managers who knew exactly what they wanted, in addition to knowing next to nothing of the musical classics. After having burned much midnight oil and worked himself into a state of semi-collapse in a vain endeavor to produce a finale which would please them, the composer tore up page after page of rejected manuscript, and in despair took to the theatre an entire section of "Faust" to which he had somehow managed to fit the words assigned to him. He layed it over and one of the managers said quite unfeelingly: "Well, Gus, the other were pretty bad, but this one is the rottenest of them all." "So?" remarked the weary musician dryly: "it was considered good when God wrote it!"—Metropolitan Magazine.

SCORES CHURCH SNOBBISHNESS

Chicago, July 22.—"Snoobishness is dividing the church against itself in America," declared Miss Clara Barge, secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in an address before 3,600 Chicago Methodists. "We must go back to the democratic ideals of our fathers and mothers, and it is up to the women to bring this about," she said. "Women control the customs of society. One rich woman can disrupt the discipline of any church by her social misdemeanors and her efforts to out rival some other woman."

MOSQUITO CANOPIES

Here's a cut of the "Old Reliable" Palmer Canopy that is absolutely guaranteed to keep out mosquitoes. You often wonder why mosquitoes get under your canopy. The reason is easily explained—the canopy does not reach to the floor or it is not closely woven, so the pests either get in from underneath or crawl through the mesh. Now we sell you a full size properly woven canopy that is close enough to keep out the mosquito but does not exclude the air. Visit our store and see what a wonderful store we have and note the difference in prices you get here and elsewhere.
