High Point

High Point, Aug. 12.—Plenica of description have been much in demand during the past week, the good old fashioned, all-day wagon picnic and the pretty afternoon affairs where the automobile was used as transportation and the glorious moon light as a homeward guide. Among the former the Elias picnic of last Thursday out on Deep river was the biggest thing, and among the latter, the delightful picnic given out at Mr. Ed. Steels farm a few miles out of town, which Mrs. Steele was the hostess and her lovely and conspicuously popular young guest, Mrs. Sadie Royer of Greensboro was the attractive homemaker.

Mrs. L. E. Ingram

Thursday afternoon, August tenth, nineteen hundred and eleven, from 4:30 to 6:30.

Mrs. E. Albert Hart.

The above card is the signal for a most happy affair. Receptions at the Ingram home—especially receptions of this nature—the introducing of a dainty and winsome bride, of which there have been two within the last few years—are always most wholesome and delightful to the smallest detail and as the strong crowd to pay homage to the lovely young bride of a month, who as Miss Francis Ingram sprang such a surprise upon her friends by the marriage not unlike those of romance and which took place at White Sulphur Springs, they do not know today, that they will receive announcement cards of the betrothal of another daughter of the home.

In addition to the several minor entertainments so thoroughly enjoyed, Mrs. W. Gordon Bennett has issued cards to a reception to be given this evening at her residence on Rankin street and at which her attractive guests, Misses Sarah and Francis DeLoss of St. Louis, Mo., will be the honored guests. Mrs. Bennett is always a most delightful hostess.

Mrs. James H. Petty has issued cards to a large party to be given Friday morning at her home on North Main street. The game of "42" will be played and the guests will be the matrons of Mrs. Petty's visiting list.

One of the most important meetings of the week was that of the executive board of the Woman's Club, at the directors' rooms of the Commercial bank. With the exception of two departments, that of constructive philanthropy and civic, who have met regularly during the summer, this is the longest time of the club proper, but far from play time with the board.

In order that the winter's work may be well executed, they are busy getting their plans on a new foundation. It is sure that two new departments will be added—those of "Health" and "Music and Art." The board recommends the department and many members have signified their wish to join, and it is more than likely they will be organized within the next month.

The chairman with the board at the next meeting of the club year, that before the general meeting which will be held the 2nd Wednesday in October and be called a reunion and membership day, and at which the "double mark" will be made a special aim. The board is busy getting out the year book which promises to be most attractive—a key to scores of things in filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Charles Franklin Long who is on a lengthy tour of the Old Country, the board was fortunate in being able to add the name of Mrs. Rufus King as club secretary. Mrs. King is a most capable woman. The official board of the club is:

President—Miss I. Irene Taylor.
 Vice President—Mrs. J. Elwood Cox.
 Second Vice President—Mrs. Anna Tomlinson.
 Recording Secretary—Mrs. Rufus King.
 Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Jonathan Jackson.
 Treasurer—Mrs. Gordon Bennett.
 Auditor—Miss Mary Alexander.
 Reporter—Mrs. B. E. Moore.
 Chairman of Department of Construction, Philanthropy—Miss Clara Cox.
 Social Economics—Mrs. Henry White.
 Literature—Mrs. Charlie F. Long.
 Parliamentary Usage—Mrs. James S. Petty.
 Clerks—Mrs. S. Halstead Tomlinson.

IN SOLITUDE.

He is not desolate whose ship is sailing
 Over the mystery of an unknown sea.
 For some great love with faithful-ness unflinching
 Will light the stars to bear him company.

Out in the silence of the mountain
 The heart makes peace and liberty its own—
 The wind that blows across the scented grasses
 Bringing the balm of sleep—comes not alone

Beneath the vast illimitable spaces
 Where God has set His jewels in array,
 A man may pitch his tent in desert places
 Yet know that heaven is not so far away.

But in the city—in the lighted city
 Where glided spires point toward the sky,
 And fluttering rags and hunger ask for pity,
 Gray loneliness in cloth-of-gold goes by—

 Whilti my soul a lordly pleasure
 house,
 Waereth at peace for aye to dwell,

An Antidote handy.

The woman was the author of a cook book that had been published at her request with wide margins and occasional blank pages for notes and additional recipes. Often she had expressed a wish to see an old copy of the book and find out to what use the blank spaces had been put. One day in a second-hand book store her husband unearthed an old volume. Noticing that it had been annotated freely, he bought it. After a day or two he said:

"How about the notes in that cook book? Were they interesting?"

"No," she said curtly, "they didn't amount to anything."

When he got a chance he looked through the book himself. Every note the book contained was a remedy for dyspepsia and stomach trouble.—New

Hiddenite

Hiddenite, Aug. 12.—The most successful season of the Davis White Sulphur Springs was entertained on last Saturday night by a most interesting entertainment given in the spacious skating rink by the Dramatic Club composed of hotel guests. The entertainment consisted of plays, songs, readings, impersonations, interspersed with selections by the Piedmont Orchestra. The talent shown by each member of the dramatic club was far above the ordinary and greatly delighted the large audience composed mainly of the summer guests. The expressions of approval were many.

The program was as follows:

Moving picture show—"The Trails of Two Lovers"—Misses Davis, Marguerite Ivey, Ruth Ivey, Flowers and Gray, Messrs Ivey, Smith, Huff, Gray, and Bowles.

Reading—"A Triving Situation" and other selections by Mrs. Eula McKee. Recitation by Mr. Huff, assisted by Mr. Gray.

"Near Sighted Professor Comes to Town to View the Pictures" by Mr. Huff.

Vocal Duet—"Silver Threads Among the Gold" by Miss Pearl Davis and Mr. Smith.

"Crave Yard Scenes"—by Messrs. Smith, Ivey and White.

"John Henry and his Pa"—Messrs. Smith, Ivey and White.

The entertainment was most artistically and ably managed by Miss Choate and Mrs. Norris. The proceeds were given to charity.

The large hotel while not crowded is filled to its comfortable capacity. Each train brings in its quota to take the place of those who leave.

On Sunday Aug. 6th, Dr. T. N. Ivey, editor of the Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn., delivered a fine sermon to a large audience in the Sulphur Springs church near the hotel. The service was well attended by the guests of the hotel, and by many from the surrounding country.

On Wednesday evening, the young men gave a hay ride in honor of the visiting young ladies. Two large wagons filled with hay were secured and 12 couples and chaperones left the hotel early in the evening returning about 10 o'clock. The ride was a most pleasant outing, and every one enjoyed it thoroughly.
