

Social and Personal

(By ADDIE WILLIAMS CALDWELL)

COUNTERFOISE.

When I was a child and laughed in school... (For laughter little or nothing would do)

A Beautiful Character

It is in the formative period of our individual existence that our characters are moulded...

A DAILY THOUGHT.

Nobody has a right to find life interesting or uninteresting...

TO BE MARRIED TOMORROW

An interesting marriage to occur in Wilmington tomorrow in which Charlotte is interested...

MRS. VICTOR TO ENTERTAIN.

In honor of her very pretty and attractive sister, Miss Janet Green...

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew McGhee announce the engagement of their daughter, Juliette...

AT THEIR ISLAND HOME

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Watt are spending some weeks at their island home near Savannah.

MRS. WOODY VISITING

Mrs. W. E. Woody, of High Falls, Moore county, is the guest of her brother, Mr. W. E. Hackett...

MRS. WILCOX COMES FRIDAY

Friday of this week will bring Mrs. Harris Wilcox and son home from the mountains...

MRS. WEARN RETURNS

Mrs. J. E. Wearn and little daughter, Celia Lindsey, returned last night from a visit to relatives at Kernesville...

LIBRARY NOTES.

(Edited for the Sunday Social Page by the Librarian of the Carnegie Library.)

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

Members of the Bessie Dewey Book Club will be interested in the following about Stevenson...

MRS. CONNER'S DIARY

(Continuing the diary of Mrs. Henry Conner, June-October, 1827. Last Sunday's story left Mr. and Mrs. Conner at Jackson, Tenn., the guests of relatives of General and Mrs. Andrew Jackson.)

Tuesday, 18th Sept., 1827.—We took a friendly farewell of our hospitable friends and retraced our steps to Nashville. The road was but indifferent, the weather excessively warm.

Wednesday, 19.—Left Colonel Brown's, where we stopped for the night, and reached the banks of the Tennessee about sunset. Crossed after dark and entered the town of Reynoldsburg, 28 miles.

Thursday, 20.—Took breakfast with the good lady and commenced another day's ride. The road was good. Drove 38 miles to Charlotte (Tenn.).

Friday, 21.—Left before sunrise. We halted with pleasure the sight of Nashville and entered it before 6 o'clock, having accomplished our day's journey of 40 miles much sooner than we anticipated.

The discovery was the occasion of one of the most painful of the scenes between father and son.—Chicago Dial.

Within three months of publication, Mr. Henry Synner Harrison's novel "Queed" has reached the fifty thousand mark.

Gardner Teal, who is at present writing a novel in a vine-covered pergola in "Calm Capri" has just accepted the position of editor of "American Homes and Gardens."

Jean Webster, well known to many readers by her "When Patty Went to College" has another story in which the same heroine figures.

The pronunciation of the surname of Samuel Pepps, the immortal diarist, has long vexed readers of that engaging and ingenious writer's work.

There will be a called meeting of the board of trustees of the Carnegie Library, Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

A party of merry-makers enjoying a supper at the Country Club Friday night consisted of Mr. Walter Lambeth and Miss Sarah Brockenbrough.

Miss Louise Murphy, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy, entertained the "42" club yesterday morning at her lovely home on North Church street.

CONFEDERATE COLUMN.

Major Robert Stiles' Confederate war volume, "Four Years Under Mars Robert," was published by the author several years ago and has been selling right along ever since.

Thursday, 27.—This was the important day—great in the annals of the fashionable world, anticipated with delight by many a youthful beauty and gay gallant.

Mrs. Jackson arrived in the morning and sent me word that she would call for me. I waited on her and we made our arrangements accordingly.

Mrs. Jackson called at an early hour and we drove to Dr. Shelby's. We were ushered into a drawing room filled with ladies.

A bride of course, was never yet pronounced to be otherwise than beautiful, lovely, or interesting.

The groom, (Mr. Barrows) was a good-looking young man, extremely tall, forming a strong contrast to his little wife.

Admittance into the ball room was now a great object to affect, for it was literally crowded.

My next partner was Governor Houston, who is certainly a most graceful man, yet I can not agree with the general opinion relative to his beauty.

Mr. Rutledge, jr., was there and was often my partner. Being a Carolinian we could converse of home.

Friday, 28.—I had intended paying my respects to the bride, but a message from Mrs. Jackson saying she would call to see me, prevented my going abroad.

Among the number General Jackson today, the oftener I see him the more am I pleased. He is certainly a most superior man.

While at breakfast General Jackson called to bid farewell. He would not wait for his wife as he was fearful that we had left, but he requested us to stop and see her on our way to which, of course, we assented.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Guthrie have returned from Atlantic City and New York, where they spent two weeks.

NEW YORK.

It is probably by way of an instinctive and unconscious reaction from Lubiquitous elbows...

There is a stiffer soldier and subordinate officer. He writes without bitterness and the Northern veteran can read the book without having his patriotic feelings harrowed up.

Much has been written in regard to the great seal of the Confederate States of America.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

The design as shown in the drawing was approved, but an electrolyte was directed to be made from the mould and sent for approval before the die should be cast.

STATEN RESIDENCE COMPLETED

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Staten expect to move into their beautiful new residence on Hawthorne avenue this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Staten have been occupying Mrs. H. C. Jones' residence on East avenue. Mrs. Jones and sons, Messrs. H. C. and William Messrs. Jones, will resume residence at their home.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.

Mr. Joseph Craighill is to reopen his music studio this winter. He has secured a suitable room over Hann's candy store, on North Tryon street.