

TAR HEEL SOCIAL CIRCLES

High Point

High Point, Aug. 26.—The Delta Tan Club was the honoree Friday morning when Misses Clara and Hazel Harmon entertained with a Salmagundi porch party. The hostesses received their guests at the foot of the steps. Mrs. Harmon and Miss Blanche Harmon received at the door Miss Hazel Harmon directed the way to the punch bowl where Mrs. Chase, Hauser and Miss I. Lewis Taylor dispensed hospitality.

Asheville

Asheville, Aug. 26.—The second recital and musical of a series that is being given by Morris Lazaron, was rendered Tuesday night at the Jewish temple on Spruce street and was attended by numbers of people who were enthused by the songs and readings on the program. It was a miscellaneous selection and Mr. Lazaron's remarkable powers of voice were well brought out. He was frequently and heartily cheered.

Durham

Durham, Aug. 26.—This week in society has been the liveliest of the torrid term and small parties have been abundant. It has been a sort of training for the fall opening when all of the book, card, embroidery and what-not clubs start their social activities. These begin as early as the second week in September and the middle of the month will have witnessed the first meeting of them all.

Concord

Concord, Aug. 26.—The past week has not been as crowded for the people of the social class as is usual. Notwithstanding this fact there have been a few most pleasant occasions and social functions. The beautiful and most delightful luncheon given by Misses Pemberton and Brown in honor of Miss Pearl Boger, charming young bride to be whose wedding is announced for the early fall, was most charming in every detail. Miss Pemberton's home, where the luncheon was given, was artistically decorated for the happy occasion, and the excellent arrangement of ferns and cut flowers only added to the lustre of the occasion.

Statesville

Statesville, N. C., Aug. 26.—On Wednesday evening the auditorium and Sunday school room of the First Baptist church of Statesville were filled to overflowing with friends who had gathered to witness the marriage of Mr. J. Paul Leonard and Miss Sude Turner. Promptly at 8:30 the organist, Mrs. S. D. Swan took her seat and a short musical program followed.

You can Dress yourself and your family Stylishly and well but inexpensively by the use of Beik Bros. Charlotte, N. C.

Hickory

Hickory, N. C., Aug. 26.—Mr. Somers Alexander and family, of Charlotte, on their way from Blowing Rock stopped at the Hotel Huffoy. They expressed themselves pleased with Hickory and its beautiful streets, and especially they were pleased with the Hotel Huffoy. Misses Grace Patrick and Adelaide Johnson will leave about the 20th of September for Randolph-Macon college for young ladies at Lynchburg, Va.

High Point (continued)

Miss Edwin D. Steele has issued plans for a large party at home to be given the early part of the week. The guests are to be Mrs. Steele's young women, Mrs. W. B. Newell of Richmond, Va., and Miss Mattie Jones of South Boston, Va.

Asheville (continued)

The singles tennis tournament which has been going on at the Country Club for several days in which only unmarried members participated has closed. Miss Therese Chapman won the ladies cup defeating Miss Pearson in the finals and minor section won the gentlemen's cup defeating Mr. Silverman in the finals.

Durham (continued)

The Friday bridge club met this week with Mrs. M. L. Stevens on West Chestnut street. The Thursday bridge club was entertained this week by Mrs. D. Hoffman at her home on Orchard street. Mrs. C. N. Brown entertained a few days ago with an afternoon tea party at her home on Haywood street in honor of her guests Mrs. Frank Lethco and Mrs. Harry Epps of Charlotte.

Concord (continued)

A most delightful birthday occasion was celebrated at the home of Mrs. E. M. Menius, who lives at the old Johnson place in No. 3 township. Mrs. Menius presented to each of her guests four married daughters a quilt made by her own hands. The old lady is well up in years, and quite a large assembly of relatives and friends were present to help her enjoy the anniversary of her birthday.

Statesville (continued)

The guests were met on the veranda and given hand-painted cards decorated with daisies. In the progressive games that followed, Miss Clara Suite, of Greensboro, scoring highest, was presented with an ivory-mounted fan, and the guest-of-honor girl a pearl bandeau, was given to Miss Turner. After the games the guests were conducted into the dining room, where the colors, white and gold, were everywhere in evidence.

Miss Alice Johnson and Mrs. Oscar Kearns are spending some time at Hiddette. Mrs. P. D. Gold of Raleigh and Mrs. William Spicer of Goldsboro are the guests of Mrs. Gilbert Clark. Mrs. Will Hammett of Winston, is visiting Mrs. Bert Fields. Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Farris are guests at the home of Dr. James Richardson.

Asheville (continued)

William Simpson of Charlotte was in Asheville Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Pitt of Laurens, S. C. left Friday for their home after a visit to Mrs. Fuller on Starnes avenue. Mrs. B. J. Smith and Clarke Smith Smith arrived in Asheville Monday from Charlotte.

Durham (continued)

A large number of Asheville people and visitors left this week for Atlantic City where they will stay for a week or ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rollins and Mrs. Haywood Parker left this week for Norfolk whence they will sail for Boston for a short visit.

Concord (continued)

Miss Lottie Ivey, Etta Belle Stephens, and Mr. John Ivey all of Albemarle, who have been spending several weeks camping in the mountains of Western North Carolina, passed through the city Thursday morning on their way home. They made the trip in covered wagons drawn by two pairs of fine mules.

Statesville (continued)

Miss Sarah West was the hostess Friday evening at her home on Chestnut street at a porch party given in honor of Miss Rebecca Duhning of Philadelphia. Mrs. J. B. Cefalu gave an informal card party Thursday afternoon complimentary to her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Morgan.

REAL AID TO PARTY

Hackinsack, N. J., Aug. 26.—Robert A. Sibbal, who ran for register of deeds of Bergen county and was elected on the platform that the $5,500 office ought to be abolished as useless, and who pushed through legislation which shut off both office and pay, became the subject of special eulogy when the democratic county leaders met for conference on the fall ticket.

APPENDICITIS AT 99 YIELDS.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 26.—Mrs. Elizabeth Hillman, of this city, who was 99 years old last March, and was operated on for appendicitis two weeks ago, was announced to have completely recovered from the operation. Her condition is normal; her pulse strong and the wound has healed. She expects to be up and about in another week.

TORTURED FOR YEARS

A cure-drying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "till I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. Its surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble." Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c at W. L. Hand & Co.

CHAUFFEURS ROUGH ROAD.

Atlantic City, Aug. 26.—From a hospital cot to a magistrate's donkey, was the fate of Raymond Donnelly, of Washington, the young chauffeur who sent a 40-horse power automobile into a trolley, injuring the trolley with nearly fatal results to himself, two young women, who gave fictitious names, and two other men. Donnelly, who was at first thought to have been fatally injured, recovered rapidly and was discharged from the hospital. He was met at the door by a constable with a warrant sworn out by E. H. Stevens, Newark, his former employer, charging the young man with taking the machine out without authority. Donnelly was released under $500 bail.

ARREST MAN WITH DYNAMITE

Cottsville, Pa., Aug. 26.—A. S. Jackson, chief of the Lukens Iron & Steel Company's police force made an important arrest here, when he took a forger into custody who had two sticks of dynamite and a lot of fuses in his possession. The stranger was on the Lukens property when arrested. Asked what he was doing with the explosives, the forger was unable to explain. He gave his name as Bill Senski. He is now in the borough jail.

FALLS VICTIM TO THIEVES.

J. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., has a justifiable grievance. Two thieves stole his health for twelve years. They stole a liver and kidney trouble. Then they stole his New Life Pills. He felt strong and the wound had healed. She expects to be up and about in another week.
