Pennsylvanians to Reside Here

That Charlotte's fame as a good place to live is known far and wide. Many have hastened to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the "Queen City," commercially or socially.

Coming within the past few days from Pennsylvania as to reside in Charlotte are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Baxter, Misses Lola L., Flora E., Ruth C., and Nell Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Willyard, Mrs. R. E. Creswell and Misses Isabel and Sadie J. Reimer, all of Panassus, a town 17 miles from Pittsburg.

The above constitute a family and a family connection, all being at the Central hotel for the present. Mr. Baxter has rented the residence on Tenth avenue, formerly occupied by Mrs. L. J. Dowd and family.

Mr. Baxter and Mr. Witty will engage in business in Charlotte. They are substantial, good citizens in the community which they came. The ladies of the party have already made friends. They are most pleasantly impressed with Charlotte.

Mr. Butt's Tent For Raleigh Show

Raleigh is to have a big exhibit of live stock on Wednesday. A requisition was made on Mr. Arthur Butt for his tent, so he came home from the beach, where he spent the summer, to get the tent ready and ship the same. The exhibit is held under the auspices of the agricultural department.

HAVE ELEGANT RESIDENCE Mrs. A. B. Sanders has returned from Hiddenite where she has been spending several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are erecting an elegant residence on the broad boulevard along which the car line passes in North Charlotte. It will cost about $10,000, and will be finished very soon.

There are some things that money cannot buy. Still, if we have the money we can generally manage to struggle along without them.

DUBLIN HORSE SHOW A GREAT SOCIETY EVENT

(By DENNISON GORDON.)

Dublin, August 26.—Despite the strike unrest that great society dual event, the Dublin annual horse show, and the Leeperstown races attracted many people to Ireland from England. The American Ambassador and Mrs. Reid were the guests of Lord and Lady Aberdeen at the Viceregal Lodge and Mrs. Reid, who has a keen sense of humor will doubtless retail to her friends some picturesque details of Lady Aberdeen's housekeeping arrangements.

Lady Aberdeen has done great good in the battle against consumption and leads a strenuous life generally, but both she and her husband are so economical that Dublin society spends a great deal of time inventing "stingy" stories about the worthy couple.

Among other guests at the Viceregal Lodge who hope to get enough to eat are the Maharajah Gackwar of Baroda, the Earl and Countess of Portlinton and the Bulgarian minister.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen find it impossible to secure lively or interesting house parties, owing chiefly to the hostess' insistence upon strict "court" etiquette. At one house to which, by the by, Lady Aberdeen had invited herself, she sent down word that she would not enter the drawing room with her suite until every one had assembled.

One of the leading lights at the horse show was the Marchioness of Headfort, formerly Mrs. Rosie Boote, of the Gaiety, who has made herself immensely popular with all classes in Ireland. Augustine Birrell, chief secretary of Ireland, and Mrs. Birrell entertained an intellectual party which included the Hon. Alfred and the Hon. Harold Tennyson, but a leveller party was that of Lady Lyttleton, wife of the commander-in-chief in Ireland, who is soon to be replaced by General Sir Arthur Paget, as was announced recently.

NO WATER IN THE CAPE FEAR The Catawba can beat this: Fayetteville Observer: "The Cape Fear river, after a sharp rise of three or four feet the first of the week, has been falling, falling, falling ever since, until now everything has dropped out—except the bottom, and that is standing in bold relief—"acres" of it—with only a tiny stream of 18 inches wending its way to the sea."

A BAD LOT

When charged with being drunk and disorderly and asked what he had to say for himself the prisoner gazed pensively at the magistrate, smoothed down a remnant of gray hair, and said:

"Your Honor, man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn. I'm not as debased as Swift, as profligate as Byron, as dissipated as Poe, as debauched as—"

"That will do," thundered the magistrate. "Ten days! And, officer, take a list of those names and run 'em in. They are as bad a lot as he is."

You'll find a great many insurance companies that are a "Bad Lot." Not so here, all "A-1."
