

HORNETS TAKE THE SPINNERS

Showing a great improvement and reversal of form over the day before. the Spinners and Horners tightened up and pulled off one of the fastest and exciting games that has been played here this year. Sheesley and Bussey were the hill-toppers and up to the eighth it was a battle roya! between these two artists, when Busweakened and allowed the alocals to race over the dish three was exceedingly fast, being pulled in Greenville 5, Charlotte 4 one hour and 12 minutes.

Spinners Score First.

In the third paragraph Sheesley allowed Bussey to take an amble off down the first line. Griffin ran for - STANDING OF the pitcher and accidentally stole second and lumbered in home on the hit-and-run play with Sharp lambasting to right.

Hornets Tle Up Matters. Not until the seventh inning die

the Hornets have a look-in. In this frame, with one in the oats, Wofford walked, Weiser whiffed, and Hankie also drew a free ticket. Malcolmson came up, and assuming his accustom ed position when a hit is needed smacked the pill on the nose for a bingle to left and matters stood tied up. In the very next inning the insects got busy and sewed up the thing by racing over three runs. Agnew douoled, Sheesley bunted and both were safe when Bussey threw to catch Ag. at third. Seigfried then singled to cen-ter and Agnew romped. Garman grounded out, second to first and Sheesley scored. Wofford sacrificed out to deep left and another was pushed cacross. Score: Charlotte 4; Green-

The game was snappy and fast with the good work of the Spinner's infield holding down the local score considerably. Weiser was probably the hero of the game by pulling off one of the prettiest catches in left ever seen on the local diamond. In the fourth Goodman hit a Texas leaguer over short and Weiser racing in at break-neck speed accoped the pop as it was about to hit the ground, almost cutting a filp. It was a wonderful catch and the stands nearly went wild. Seigfried stabbed a liner from the bat of Doak in the ninth that would have fetched over Hoey, who had just doubled. The score:
