

Will Manning Died; Found Unconscious

In the Back Yard of Carson Place And Died a Few Minutes After 7 O'clock at The Police Office - Was Moulder by Trade.

Mr. Will M. Manning was found early this morning in a dying condition in the back yard of the old Carson place, on South Tryon street. He was removed to the police station and died there at 5 minutes after 7 o'clock. The body was removed at once to Z. A. Hovis & Co's new undertaking establishment, on North Tryon street.

Open Branch House In Winston-Salem

The Winston-Salem Journal says: "The Ben-Vonde Company, dyers and French cleaners of Charlotte, have the past week opened a branch receiving office at 515 North Liberty street in this city, thereby filling a long-felt want in this vicinity. This concern now has offices in many of the leading cities of both North and South Carolina and are constantly adding to the chain. Mr. E. W. Bender of Charlotte, vice president of the company, has been in Winston-Salem the past week opening the local office, which will later be changed to 789 1/2 St. later he is in charge of a good office manager.

OUR SUMMERROUTING

and they haven't intelligence enough to tell you what they do know. I know we piloted ourselves, else we would have been in trouble all the time. This useless to try to talk New York. We did just what all tourists do: A trip up Riverside Drive; a stop at Grant's tomb; a trip to Coney Island; the shops; rides on the elevated railway, and, oh, that subway. I nearly suffocated every time we were forced to use it. The Hippodrome was itself worth a trip to New York. I am afraid I am spoiled and anything that may be at our local playhouse this season will not taste right. I wished for all Charlotte theatre goers as I witnessed this wonderful performance. There is entertainment in it for all classes and all conditions of men. We met many friends in New York. 'Twas no unusual occurrence to meet half a dozen Charlotte citizens on Broadway any evening—for Charlotte people will go to the great city. We met some very pleasant New Yorkers, among the number, Mr. Scott, the promoter of the Tidewater Portland Cement Company, also Governor Tenner, of Pennsylvania, who is largely interested in the same. Governor Tenner is a strikingly handsome man, six feet four inches and well proportioned. We found him a most genial and attractive character, and many others, not quite so large, possibly. After being out 10 days Dr. McManaway proposed coming home. We each were glad—for all were so weary looking and catching trains and boats. We proposed that all save himself remain, for thirty days longer, but, no, we had enough for this season. We found ourselves on 37, bound for Charlotte and everything so crowded we wondered why everybody wanted to come South on the same day. We reached home wiser, wearier and more soiled than we had ever known ourselves before.

Taken To The Hospital After Operation Failed to Help, Mrs. Kendrick Found that Cardui Made Her Well

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from Jonesville, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet.

The doctor said I never would be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer.

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and I began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm."

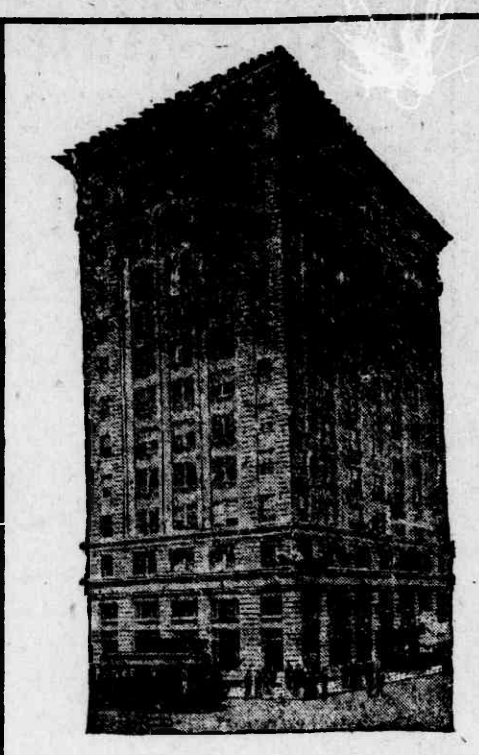

There must be merit in this purely vegetable tonic remedy for women—Cardui—when it will help such an apparently hopeless case as this. Its ingredients are mild herbs, with a gentle tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble—relieves the symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you to get well.

Cardui goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause.

Have you tried it? If not, do so. It may be just what you need.

Death of Mrs. Austin Yesterday Esteemed Woman of North Charlotte Passed Away Yesterday at 3:30 p. m.—Was Native of Union County.

Mrs. M. E. Austin, wife of Mr. H. L. Austin, died at her home in North Charlotte yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock after an illness of some duration. She was in the 56th year of her age and is survived by her husband and seven children who live in Charlotte with the exception of two sons, one of whom lives in Texas and the other in the state of Washington.

Mrs. Austin, before her marriage was a Miss Watkins, and was reared in Union county, where she became a member of Hopewell Baptist church 35 years ago. She was a charter member of the North Charlotte Baptist church and a most consistent and devout Christian. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her and her death brings sorrow to many friends.

The funeral services will be conducted at the North Charlotte Baptist church at 3 p. m. today and will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. F. Conrad, assisted by Rev. J. C. Gillespie. The interment will be in Elmwood cemetery.

Rev. T. A. Sykes At Tryon St. Church

The congregation at Tryon Street Methodist church had the pleasure of hearing a most helpful and inspiring sermon from Rev. T. A. Sykes, of the North Carolina Conference, yesterday morning. Mr. Sykes is a son of Mr. C. B. Sykes, of this city, and before entering the ministry was a well known printer and mail carrier here, and his many friends heard him with pleasure, noting the success that has attended his ministry. Mr. Sykes is now on his annual vacation, a part of which he always spends in Charlotte.

That Hendersonville Murder

The two physicians intended to aid the coroner's jury make a farce of its action. Why was this? Why did her family not make known her strange absence sooner? This charming, mountain city has more than one peculiar citizen within her gates. Send them away, good people, but not to Charlotte, if you please.

THE MAN OR MEN COMMITTING this crime should be hung. If the law doesn't provide just punishment, the next legislature should correct it. The state is watching Hendersonville. We take off our hat to Virginia. The conclusion of the Bishop case is Charlotte was a disgrace to North Carolina.

HUMAN LIFE IS TOO CHEAP, brethren, in these diggings. What about calling in the foreign missionaries and putting them on local work?

HANG EVERY SCOUNDREL who despoils virtue, electrocutes every villain who aids in its concealment, ostracize every man and woman who delight at the escape of such criminals and condemn the strict execution of the law, and better conditions will prevail.

remarked the other day that after looking the town over very carefully he had concluded that PIEDMONT LOTS as now offered are the best purchase of anything in Charlotte.

His judgment was sound, for you can carefully compare our present offering at Piedmont, noting the fact that we have ALREADY all the city public utilities, and you will also decide that the best place to buy is at PIEDMONT.

SEND TODAY for Pocket Map, showing the location and prices of our few remaining lots, and a statement of our remarkably easy terms.
