Anniversary Of Kings Mountain

Elaborate Preparations for the 131st Anniversary of the Battle of Kings Mountain Are Being Made—Saturday Oct. 7 at Kings Mountain.

Elaborate preparations are under way for a grand celebration of the 131st anniversary of the battle of King's Mountain, which was fought on October 7, 1780. The celebration will be at King's Mountain on October 7th, next.

An attractive program is being prepared and is expected that the event will be the most elaborate of its kind ever held in this section of the Piedmont region since the first anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was held here in 1875. Senator F. M. Simmons and Congressman E. Y. Webb will be the speakers. Music will be furnished by an excellent concert band throughout the day. At 2:30 o'clock there will be a military parade and sham battle by Gastonia and Shelby military companies. Other details of the day's program will be announced later.

Death of Mrs. I. J. Hunter

Miss Isabel J. Hunter, a well known and highly esteemed woman of the city, died yesterday at her home, No. 816 North Davidson street, at the age of 68 years, after a lingering illness of some months.

The funeral will be held this morning at Prosperity church, in Mallard Creek township, where the deceased was formerly a member, and the interment will take place there. The deceased was a woman of admirable character and beloved by a large circle of friends.

Mrs. James M. Scarff Dies in Baltimore

Mrs. Wilson Snell, of this city, received news yesterday of the death of her aunt, Mrs. James M. Scarff, which occurred Monday night in Baltimore. She was formerly Miss Jennie Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell, of Catawba county, where she has many relatives. She also has two nephews residing here, Messrs. James and Eli Caldwell. The funeral and interment were in Baltimore.

"No Kin to the Estate"

One of the leading business men of Charlotte, in commenting on the advertisement we ran Saturday evening and Sunday morning papers, said: "There was an expression in that ad. that you ought to make your slogan." We asked what that was and he replied:

"WE ARE NO KIN TO THE ESTATE."

Now this man is a very sensible man — the head of one of the largest manufacturing concerns of this section of the Carolinas. He saw the soundness of the argument contained in that sentence of seven words—towit: that the American Trust Company, being a corporation, and, therefore, unrelated to any of the parties interested in an estate, will make a better executor or administrator than some member of the family; that it can manage an estate and wind it up without favoritism, partiality, or the suspicion of selfish motives, and without danger of disrupting family ties.

So, Remember—

"WE ARE NO KIN TO THE ESTATE."

SAWING WOOD

Yes, Malinda, we saw the stuff day and night; have been saving it for 30 years, and have never had to shut down on account of high water, low water, storms, cyclones or lack of grease.

WHEN IT THUNDERS IN CALIFORNIA

your lights may go out and the tallow dip has to be brought from its hiding; the cars may strand you, and your connection for Stouts missed by 2 seconds; the Hendersonville folk may fool and fumble and fizzle about while crime stalks about at will, but the MUTUAL BUILDING AND LOAN grinds on just the same, earning a goodly interest for the widow and the orphan, the capitalist and the wise man of business. Yea, my erring and procrastinating friend, it does more. In summer heat, and in winter a cruel blast, when other financial institutions are tottering and fading from view, carrying with them the fortunes of the affluent as well as the savings of the poor and needy, this ship sails into port on time, and as she ties up at the wharf every 3 months, a cargo of sunshine and happiness is unloaded.

THIS IS THE PROPER CAPER, BOYS, and you're wasting precious time and opportunity by dallying with other schemes and propositions which spell disappointment and failure.
