Executive Board

Met at Noon Today

The city executive board met today

it noon to complete some of the deails lookin to the execution of the contract with the West Construction Company for the paving of certain streets of thec ity. While the bid of thec ompany had previously been accepted by the board the matter had not been stated clearly enough in the minutes of the board to satisfy the scrutinizing eye of the city attorney, who suggested that a clearer statement of the facts be inserted in the minutes and in such language as to safeguard the city's interests in Thec ity attorney was also author-zed to draw up a contract in proper form accepting the bid. Thee ity attorney and city engineer were also authorized to enter into a contract with Warren Brothers, who will furnish the material for the permanent paving, which contract shall include a submission of their patent license, laboratory service and inspection, etc, It was also voted that the city attorney be authorized to obtain the opinion of a competent patent attor-ney relative to the patents held by

Warren Brothers. All this is done that the city may run no risks of future litigation in carrying out the permanent improvement work.

The Young Men's Christian Association which has conducted a successful night school for men and employed boys will again have such a night school as will prove of great value to those who are wise and Six teachers will comprise the force for the Young Men's Christian Association night institute this year they are as follows: Messrs. M. J.

O'Neill, C. B. Miller, L. Eugene Wightman, W. M. Wilson, Lewis J.

Hunter, H. P. Harding. Every one of these men have had from two to six years experience in teaching in this particular night school and not men whom they will instruct. The association takes pleasure in presenting so capable a force to the young men

Any one contemplating entering the school will do well to make further inquiries at the association office and have a personal conversation

on the subject of night instruction

withone of the association secreta-

At a meeting of the city board of water commissioners last night Sam-ple's Mill was decided upon as the place where the new war the location being 9.1 miles from the present water works plant. The life will be direct to a huge reserved at the location, where sufficients atter the improvement to war.

be impounded to war with possibility of such a catastropes as happened last summer in the water coppir.

Bids will be opened here by the water board on October 17th for unload-

White and have been distriation among those who have signified

No Verdict in The

In Regard to Coun-

mates of the county home. The facts were that Mrs. Lucy Walls died day before yesterday at the advanced age and the figures opposite the names

Mrs. J. Renwick Wilkes is to return not only the social life of the city, but in her church and in the city in general, for she lent a ready hand to many causes. A delightful, charming woman, she is popular with all circles.

Mrs. James H. Warburton and little sire to bid upon the work.

e impounded to W

Sample's Mill Be

of thec ity.

know their subjects but the

will take advantage of it.

the Night School

Six Teachers for every detail.

The First Presbyterian church is elaborately decorated for the marriage ceremony of Miss Sarah Phifer Jones and Mr. H. A. Morson, which will be solemnized this evening at 8:30 o'clock. The aisles are carpeted in white bunting, the pulpit and choir loft are banked with palms and ferns. Rev. A. A. McGeachy, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, will officiate. For a half hour with Mecklenburg is highly esteemed before the bridal pageant enters the wide aisle of the stately and historic edifice, the organist, Mr. J. H. Craighill, will render a program of bridal music, his selections being: St. Cecilia Offertoire-Batiste. The Swan-St. Saens.

Introduction to third act of "Lohengrin"-Wagner.

'Processional March-Bridal Chorus, from Lohengrin"-Wagner. Improvisations during ceremony

Recessional March-March Taunshauser'-Wagner.

The bridal party will enter the church on the stroke of the hour, in the following order: Groomsmen-Messrs. E. P. Coles Evans of Maxton. and Fabrius Briggs, of Richmond,

F. M. Caldwell and Hamilton Durham, and John L. Morehead, of Edward Jones, of Charlotte. Spray, and John A. Tate and Dolph slips and wearing hair ornaments of and Clare King. pink meline roses with ultra-style coiffures, will be the bridesmaids: eigh, and Adelaide Orr, Mary Butler, of Richmond, Va., and Nancy Brown, Katherine McClung, of Knoxville, Tenn., and Heloise Beebee, of Easton, Md., and Sarah Wilson and Lula Tal-

Miss Stuart Jones, the maid of honattractive, with her brother, Mr. fusion. Morehead Jones, who will give ther

The bride's dress will be of white satin trimmed with real lace. She will a wreath of orange blossoms. As they pass under the middle three courses having the sparkling acchandelier over the bridal aisle, the companiment of were—sauterne, chamgroom and his best man, his brother, Mr. William Morson, of Raleigh, will leave the choir room meeting the bride in front of the pulpit. Dr. Mc-Geachy's wedding ceremony is exceedingly beautiful. It will unite, tonight, one of the loveliest girls in Charlotte and one of the most popular of young men-one whom Charlotte and Raleigh both claim-a young man of high type.

After the ceremony an elegant reception will be tendered the bride and groom by Mrs. Simmens B. Jones, mother of the bride, at her hospitable home on Ranson Place. After a two-weeks stay in New York, Mr. and Mrs. Morson will be at home at Mrs. Jones. occupying a beautiful suite richly furnished for them by Mrs. Jones.

DR. AND MRS. TUCKER TO

ing home on East Seventh street extension. The guests will be Mr. Chewasse, Miss Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Willard G. Rogers and Mrs. Rogers' guests, Mrs. Sidney Cooper and Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, of Henderson.

Mr. Chavasse is a noted clergyman of illustrious clerical and literary descent. His mother, Francis Louis av-ans, was a niece of George Elliot.

MISS ANTHONY TO LEAVE.

Miss Beulah Anthony, of Richmond, who has been with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Parker, for a year at her attractive home in Piedmont, leaves Saturday for home. Miss Anthony has made a number of friends in Charlotte. She is make friends. MRS. DURHAM

NO BETTER.

Mrs. I. W. Durham's many friends will be pained to know that her condition is no better. She is still at the Charlotte Sanatorium, and every effort is being made to master her disease, but her condition is still precarious.

MRS FOWLER
TO ENTERTAIN.
In compliment to Mrs. R. S. Busbee and Miss Hal Morson, of Raleigh, who are her guests-and exceedingly popular one—Mrs. Henry B. Fow-ler will entertain at cards Friday, at her prettily set home on South Tryon

HOME FROM ATLANTIC CITY.

Misses Sallie and Blondis Davidson 1911. have returned from an extended trip on the Atlantic City excursion, going from there to New York for a week; from there to Asheville, Alexander rated than Mrs. W. G. Rogers, the new president of the club. Yesterday

Grows Hair at 65 Years of Age

M'CLINTOCK-BLAKE CARDS AND EVENTS.

Announcing officially the brilliant upital event of October 18, are the llowing cards received last night: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Blake give in marriage their daughter Beatrice

Mr. James Latimer McClintock on Wednesday evening, October the eighteenth Nineteen hundred and eleven at seven-thirty o'clock

First Presbyterian Church Charlotte, North Carolina The honor of your presence is re quested.

The bride-elect is one of the most charming and popular of the society girls of the city, while the groom whose family name is synonymous in the city and county. That enthuslastic interest should attend the marriage, is but natural. enthusiastic That should attend the marriage, is but natural. The bridal party will be composed of the following:

Bridesmaids: Misses Elizabeth Mc-Master, of Winnsboro, S. C.; Lora Ferrell, of Winston; Myrtle Pemberton, of Concord; eJsse Burns, of Maxton, Lily Mae Loving, Mary Elizabeth King, Mary McCausland and Manjer Moseley, of Charlotte.

Maid of honor: Miss Evelyn Blake.

Dames of honor: Mrs. James F. Flowers of Charlotte, and Mrs. T. O.

Groomsmen: Messrs. Lonnie Mills of Statesville; Tom Reid, of Rock Hill, C. Jones, Phil L. McMahon and John John Irwin, Geo. E. Wilson, Jr., Clar-Morson, of Raleigh; William Carr, of ence Blake, Flyn Wolfe, J. E. Eves and Best man, Mr. Banks McClintock.

Ribbon girls: Misses Armide Blake, Following in pink chiffon over silk Mildred Henderson, Elizabeth Mather, Bridal Courtesies.

The first of several beautiful af-Misses Sarah Brockenbrough and fairs planned for Miss Blake was the Martha Howell, Hal Morson, of Raleigh, and Adelaide Orr. Mary Butler. T. Croft Woodruff at her lowely home in Dilworth.

The color scheme was yellow and never was that pretty daylight color more beautifully expressed.

The rich mahogany table in the dining room was a floral poem. On a large or, will enter next. Then comes the charming bride winsomely petite and vellow marguerites, in riotous pro-

Over them shone sofe leyyow lights and by them gleaned yellow taperssix-in cut glass candle sticks, each being tied with yellow satin ribbon honor the wedding tradition, wearing and being shaded in yellow silk shades. Silver was laid for eight courses, pagne and the Frenchy finish of an inspiring pousse cafe. Each glass was tied with yellow satin ribbon. The place cards were hand-painted hearts on which cupid presided. The cards were tied with yellow satin and were attached to a tiny yellow satin bag full of rice.

The handsome young matron, hostess of the hour, and the radiant brideelect, shared the head of the wide board, the former in rainbow radium which become her wondrously; the latter in an equisite old rose metier of ultra make.

As the guests left the dining room for the drawing room to enjoy cafe noir, almonds and mints, they passed under a large burch of yellow flowers suspended from the door way. As the bride passed the hostess cut a satin ribbon, and a shower of yellowwrapped bundles fell before her. Each grapper contained a pair of silk hose. The affair was perfect in every detail. In honor of their distinguished guest, The names on the cupid-cards were: Rev. Thos. L. Chavasse, of London, Miss Blake, Miss Eleanor Alexander England, and Miss Amy Butler, of Mrs. J. F. Flowers, Miss Flora Jeff-Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. John Tucker ries, Mrs. Thos. Mackey, Miss Lora will entertain at an elaborate and bautiful dinner tonight at the charm- Loving, Miss Cornie Fore, Miss Mary McCausland, Miss Maujer Moseley, Miss Ruth Reilley.
MRS. COLE TO ENTERTAIN.

Welcoming Miss Blake into the family, Mrs. E. A. Cole, who was Miss Janie McClintock, will entertain to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at a fruit-can shower for her charming sister-to-be. Mrs. Cole has one of the most attractive homes on the Law yers' road—a home that every one notes in passing. Assembling therein tomorrow in honor of Miss Blake will be: Misses Lora Ferrell, of Winston; Maujer Moseley, Mary McCausland, Lily Mae Loving, Katherine Pegram, Daisy and Beulah Wallace, Pattie, Mary, Margaret and Bertha Morris, Murrill Pickard, Ellie and Anna Calattractive and it is easy for her to make friends.

She is der, Carrie Maxwell, Martha Moore, make friends.

Ella Cole, Mary Elizabeth King, Blanche Leak.

Mesdames John S. Blake, J. H. Mc-Clintock, A. W. Burch, Brice McLaughin, J. M. Boyce, of Ansonville, S. C.; P. B. Powers, Duncan Calder, J. F. Flowers, A. M. Cole, A. M. Pittman, E. O. Cole, C. H. Wolfe, Sr., C. H. Wolfe, Jr., T. Croft Woodruff, H. S. Mather, D. A. Johnston, H. C. Dotger, J. M. DeArmond, D. C. Moore, J. M. Renfrow, J. O. Sprinkle, McKean Maffitt, and Will Kirby.

COMING NEXT WEEK.

Mrs. William Bear will return in a week's ime from a two months stay out west. She visited her home people in Kansas City, Mo., and afterward stopped in Louisville, Ky.

PRESIDENT'S DAY

was president's day. It was marked by an all-afternoon reception at the president's. The guests of honor were Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, Mrs. Sidney Cooper, of Henderson, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and Mrs. R. E. Cochrane, honorary members of the club, and Dear Sirs: "I heard of PARISIAN SAGE and as my head would itch a good deal, I thought I would try it. I never used and remedies before and was bald on top of my head.

I never used and remedies before and was bald on top of my head.

I was bald on top of my head. I am using the third bottle and have a lot of hair where I was bald.

I would like you to see the new hair sprouting from my head. The itching in my scalp quickly disappeared. I am 65 years old and have been at the Bassar 51 years.

Secutive board: Mesdames Nicholson, Wray, Doggett, Yarbrough, Finger, Garsed, Platt, V. J. Guthrey, Reilley, Miss Lily Long and Miss Josephine Dellehay. The color note of pink was effectively and fragrantly expressed throughout the receiving recommendation of this year of 663.

Until a short time ago, scarcely one person in a thousand had ever tasted a really good soda cracker—as it came fresh and crisp from the oven.

Now every man, woman and child in these United States can know and enjoy the crisp goodness of fresh baked soda crackers without going to the baker's oven.

Uneeda Biscuit bring the bakery to you.

Millions of people know these perfect Soda Crackers in their original goodness. More millions will enjoy them daily when once they know how good they are.

A food to live on. Stamina for workers. Strength for the delicate. Bone and flesh for little folks.

It will cost you just 5 cents to try Uneeda Biscuit. Never sold in bulk, always in the moisture proof package.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

Local Cotton Recerpts 663 Bales Off

Receipts at the local cotton platform today were 69 bales at 9 3-4 cents per

The total receipts at the local plating: form up to September 1st of this amounts to 261 bales. The total receipts up to the first of September 1910 were 3273, showing a decrease for this year of 663.

Bank Trade Letter

Large bottle of PARISIAN SAGE 50 eled beading.

Large bottle of PARISIAN SAGE 50 eled beading.

Mrs. Rogers wore light blue chiffon over silk with garnitures of jew-tional Bank, contained a head referring to the Union National Bank. The article should have stated also that this trade letter of the Commercial National Bank. The article should have stated also that this trade letter of the Commercial National Bank. The article should have stated also that this trade letter of the Commercial National Bank has been issued month. Description of the stated also that this trade letter of the Commercial National Bank has been issued month. A. Yarbrough presided at the lovely table, serving from the midst of a bed of pink roses and other lovely adornment, a dainty lunch.

Mrs. Rogers wore light blue chiffenday's News, relative to the monthly trade letter of the Commercial National Bank. The article should have stated also that this trade letter of the Commercial National Bank has been issued month. National Bank has been issued month. A. Yarbrough presided at the lovely table, serving from the midst of a bed of pink roses and other lovely adornment, a dainty lunch.

FOR RENT—Three unfurnished rooms. Apply 404 W. 11th St. 4-2t

Glidden Tour--Official Wire of 99 years. The other names given are the names of the present inmates of Charlotte, which is at present in Offical Notice. Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 4., 1911.

The Greater Charlotte Club, Charlotte, N. C.

he A, A. A. as night control for Glid-

Of interest to the automobile world are their respective ages.

pound against 144 bales last year on the same date at 13 3-4 cents per to see the dust arising" from a Glidden tourist car, will be interested in home today affiliation. home today after a sojourn in the mountains of Western North Carolina for nearly a year. The fact that Mrs. the following wire received this morn-Wilkes returns greatly benefitted will be a cause for rejoicing throughout,

Charlotte has been designated den tour, Thursday, October 19th.

Salisbury noon stop that day, Spartanburg noon stop Friday.
Eighty cars, about 250 people in tour.
THE ATLANTA JOURNAL.

VISITING IN

ROCKINGHAM.

of Monroe.

Start a Savings Account

account will grow surprisingly fast after you have once formed the saving habit and we will help its growth by paying you four per cent interest

Southern Loan & Savings Bank

JNO. M. SCOTT, President. W. L. JENKINS, Cashier. W. S. ALEXANDER, V.-Fres.

WAIT! WAIT! WAIT!

Opening

Which We Expect to Have About

October 5th

Where you will find all the New Things in Suits, Coats, Dresses, Millinery, Piece Goods, Silks, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, White Goods, Underwear, Notions and Novelties of every kind.

LILES-NIX CO.

Charlotte's Authority on Women's Wear

17 and 19 W. Trade St.

Phone 776

වෙම වසවසමසමසමසම සමස

Tapping Point If Your Dollars Spent Here, Will Do More Than Your Dollars Spent Elsewhere---Wouldn't it be Well to Spend Them Here?

You, we, everybody is desirous of making their every dollar accomplish all that it possibly will. But how to make them do it is the question.

There is just one way to be sure-and that is to test by a careful comparison the comparative buying power of your dollars.

Test there and then here — compare carefully quality for quality — price for price. Such a comparison will readily and surely convince you that at the PARKER-GARDNER STORE you will supply your needed Furniture and Housefurnishings.

new stocks are magnificently complete. You will find choosing mighty satisfactory, the prices right, the terms reasonable, everything will convince you that your dollars will do most when spent at the PARKER-GARDNER STORE.

at the drama

MA

Mai

Mai

the a tel

terne Mad

laws. plary cess v

they €

servicution Mineral Mi

frien