Atlanta Correspondents Not Unfair to Joe Brown

Special to The News. Atlanta, Oct. 4.—Georgia editors of the state press, particularly those who have a strong leaning toward the Joseph M. Brown candidacy, have been entering serious complaint editorially that Atlanta correspondents never seem to send out any news about anybody in the race but Pope Brown and Judge Richard Russell.

McNamara Trial

Preparations for the holding and handling of the trial here have been under way for several months here. Judge Walter Bordwell, who is to hear the case, has decided that the trial will be held in the new Hall Records building. The court room in this building has not yet been selected but it is probable that the largest room in the building will be used. Sheriff W. A. Hammel has charge of the polling and has arranged that the two prisoners and McNamara will not be taken back to the jail after the proceedings of each day. Under the present plan the two brothers will be kept in the jury room during the night; and the district attorney has arranged for McNamara to have quarters near to the district attorney's floor or rooms. They will be closely guarded during the entire trial and any attempts of rioting will be promptly checked. McCourt tapper in the arena.
