

TAR HEEL SOCIAL CIRCLES

Statesville

Statesville, N. C., Oct. 14.—An unusually pretty marriage was seen in Broad Street Methodist church Wednesday evening by a audience which filled the main auditorium and Sunday school department, when Miss Mattie Nicholson was wedded to Mr. G. E. Hughes. Nothing had been spared in the decorations of the church and the scene was truly a very beautiful one. The entire pulpit and chancel had been covered with white and pinked plants, while ivy was draped here and there, and on each side of the pulpit stood a beautiful crystal candelabra.

Immediately following the marriage a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nicholson at their home, corner Front and Race streets, and a large number of guests attended.

Entertained for Bridal Party.

Following the marriage rehearsal Thursday night Miss Mabel Laughenour entertained at her home on Front street in honor of the bridal party. The decorations were of pink and white, and the refreshments, ice cream and cake, and pink and white mints, as the guests left the dining room each was presented with a piece of wedding cake in a small box having the initials of the bride and groom.

Announcement Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kimball announced the marriage of their daughter, Kathleen, to Mr. Samuel S. Tomlin, Tuesday the tenth day of October, 1911, St. Louis.

This read the cards announcing the marriage of a young Statesvillian to a fair young woman of the state of Missouri. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tomlin, was reared here and needs no introduction to Statesville people. For the past few years he has been a traveling salesman and has met with success. Miss Kimball is a native of Mr. D. J. Kimball, of Statesville, and spent a portion of the past summer here with Mr. and Mrs. Kimball, and it was during her stay here that Mr. Tomlin began his courtship, which had its happy culmination when he went to St. Louis a few days ago to claim her as his bride. The marriage, which was a surprise to many of the friends of the couple, took place at the home of the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Tomlin left immediately for Statesville, arriving here on the evening train Wednesday.

Bridal Party.

Mrs. H. O. Steele entertained at six tables of bridge Monday afternoon at her home, corner Mulberry and Bell streets, the affair being in honor of Mrs. E. R. Rankin, of Tryon, and Mrs. C. L. Corpening, of Battle Creek, Mich. In the spirited game Mrs. J. H. Hoffman won the score prize, which has a pretty picture. Each of the guests of honor were presented with ivory stick fans. The color scheme of the decorations was pink and many beautiful pink roses were used. Punch, ice cream and cake were served.

Embroidery Circle.

Mrs. E. S. Pagan was hostess to the Ladies' Embroidery Circle at its last meeting. There were no special features aside from the fancy needle work. A salad course was served.

Sans Souci Club.

The Sans Souci Embroidery Club held a pleasant meeting with Mrs. F. Bunch last Friday afternoon at her home on Walnut street. Mrs. Bunch had as special guests for the afternoon Mrs. C. L. Corpening, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Miss Lois Reitzel, of Burlington. The time was given to embroidering and social intercourse. Seasonable refreshments were served.

Home Wedding.

Miss Nola Barnhardt and Mr. J. Luther Powers, of Bennettsville, S. C., were married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Barnhardt, in West Statesville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Lutz, and immediately thereafter Mr. and Mrs. Powers left for Bennettsville, where they will live. For a year or so Miss Barnhardt has lived in Bennettsville, where she had a position, and while there she met Mr. Powers, who is a plumber at Bennettsville.

Returns Home.

Mrs. F. A. Carpenter, who visited some people here, has returned to Mooreville.

Raleigh

Special to The News.

Raleigh, Oct. 14.—Miss Patti Carroll, who is to become the bride of Mr. Walter Wickard, of Norfolk, this month, was the guest of honor for a charming bridge luncheon by Mrs. C. W. Gold. There were covers for twelve and the setting was lovely with pink and white, there being also a lovely bouquet of pink carnations for the bride-to-be. There were a number of sparkling and appropriate toasts for the bride. The guests were: Miss Alice Aycock, Miss Mary Grimes Cooper, Miss Margaret Moylan, Miss Josephine Boylan, Miss Emmie Drewry, Miss Mary Latta; Miss Annie Rute, Miss Fannie Johnson, Miss Rubie Norris, Miss Edith Pou, and Mrs. P. D. Gold.

Marriage Invitations.

Wedding Thursday.

Miss Katherine F. Brown, and Mr. Edward C. Grissom, of this city were married Thursday at the parsonage of the Central Methodist church, by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, the pastor. They were accompanied by a few close friends. They have many friends who wish them much happiness.

Merchants' Carnival.

A big success was scored Thursday night by the Merchants' Carnival presented by some of the most prominent young people of the city for the benefit of the building fund of the church of the Good Shepherd. Especially notable participants were Miss Economic Dumais, who was queen of the carnival, Miss Flora Creech, Miss Vivian Moncure, and others.

Prominent Wedding.

There took place Wednesday morning in the First Presbyterian church the marriage of Miss Irene Lacy, daughter of Hon. B. R. Lacy, state treasurer, and Mr. G. Ross of Fayetteville, there being assembled a fine audience of Raleigh's representative people. Dr. J. M. Rose of Laurinburg, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. McC. White, the pastor. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rose left for a trip north after which they will reside in Fayetteville where Mr. Rose is a prominent young attorney. He was a member of the lower house of the 1911 legislature.

Surprise Marriage.

Miss Lillie Viola Solomon and Mr. Battle Yearby surprised their friends Tuesday by calling at the parsonage of Central Methodist church and taking the vows of matrimony with Rev. A. D. Wilcox rendering the marriage service. The young couple are highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

Faculty Entertain.

The faculty of Peace Institute were at home to the hundreds of friends of the institute in this city Friday afternoon and a delightful afternoon was accorded to a large number of ladies who took advantage of the special occasion to call. Numbers of the fair students aided in the entertainment of the callers.

Book Club Entertained.

The Tuesday afternoon Book Club was entertained this week by Mrs. J. W. Harden, the literary features of the program bearing on the life and writings of Robert Browning. Indeed, much of this session will be devoted to the study and reading of Browning, Miss Daisy Denison is president of the club and Miss Elizabeth Colton is chairman of the program committee.

New Residents.

Go to New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Barwick have removed from Raleigh to Newton where Mr. Barwick has taken up the practice of law. He has been for quite a while chief clerk in the state department of education and secretary of the state board of managers. They had a lovely home Glenwood and will be greatly missed here.

Visiting in Washington.

Mrs. Willis G. Briggs and little daughter Sarah Wooten, have gone for a visit to Mrs. Briggs' mother, Mrs. Sanderlin of Washington, D. C.

Ex-Congressman in City.

Ex-Congressman Fred A. Woodard and Mrs. Woodard, visited several days here the past week with relatives.

Durham

Special to The Sunday News.

Durham, Oct. 14.—Durham society maintained a pace set three weeks ago by celebrating three weddings of exceptional importance and by giving the biggest university banquet yet given on the institution's day commemorating its new birth.

University Day.

October twelfth was the date of the alumni celebration at which there were covers for fifty guests laid and an elaborate course dinner served. The annual "University Day" took a more cosmopolitan scope to itself this time, having for guests Judge Platt D. Walker, of Charlotte, supreme court justice; Judge Oliver H. Allen, of the superior court bench; George W. Watts, of Durham, and Dr. W. L. Cranford, dean of Trinity College and professor of philosophy. This was the first time that the alumni of the two institutions, Trinity and Carolina, had fused in social celebration. It was a delightful innovation and the Trinity guests were mightily pleased. Judge Allen is a Trinity alumnus. Judge Crawford Biggs was also guest and made one of the after-dinner speeches, the distinguished company thus having in it one resident superior court and one resident supreme court bench alumnus, and two visiting justices, one of each court. Judge Walker attended the state university through his junior year.

Prof. Horace Williams, of the chair of philosophy at the University, gave the principal address, "Democracy and the Corporations," and the Durham judge, both university alumnus, made short speeches. At the conclusion of the social feature, a short business meeting was held which resulted in the selection of Mayor W. J. Brogden, president to succeed Judge R. H. Sykes; Prof. W. D. Carmichael, vice-president and T. B. Peirce, secretary-treasurer. The banquet committee consisted of City Attorney S. C. Chambers, T. C. Worth, R. H. Sykes, John W. Umstead and W. T. Bost, was elected for life against protest.

Meeting of Bridge Club.

Yesterday afternoon the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club met with Miss Jean Venable at her home on Vickers avenue. Progressive Bridge was played by the four tables of invited guests and at the close of the game 'twas found that Mrs. W. J. O'Brien had made the highest score among the club members.

The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. W. J. O'Brien on Duke street, the hour of meeting to be at 3:30.

Misses Cora and Sarah Vaughan, daughters of Gen. C. P. Vaughan, of Franklin, Va., arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and will be the guests of Miss Anna Branson at her home on Queen street.

From Asheville.

Miss Myrtle Rollins of Asheville, is in the city, the guest of Miss Annie Mae Corbett, at her home on Morris street. Miss Rollins is to be maid of honor in the Corbett-Booker wedding which took place Wednesday morning.

Aged Couple Wed.

They would reprobate the idea of making it a social item, though Durham society took interest enough in the event to deluge the pair in rice, but the most interesting wedding of the week was that joining Mr. Charles F. Burnett and Mrs. Harriet Matilda Currin Wednesday morning.

The groom is sixty and the bride fifty and both young in heart, in hands and feet. They were old friends who met after an unbroken lapse of perhaps a quarter century. While at some springs in Virginia the past summer, they renewed the old friendship and began a courtship so youthful it rebuked the mother for staying out late of night. The mother became child to the daughter and told her secret. There was no more child to the daughter and told her secret. There was no more child to the daughter and told her secret. The bride came to live near Durham. He paid earnest court and Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, they were married at the home of Mr. W. E. Moss, where Mrs. Currin had been visiting. The mother was given away by her son and Rev. M. D. Giles of Hester officiated.

Prominent Marriage.

The marriage of the same morning and at the same hour of Miss Annie Mae Corbett and her son, Lyle S. Booker at the First Presbyterian church, was one of the big events of the week.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. R. Leyburn and the bridesmaids, Misses Susie Cox and Evelyn Jones of Durham, Miss Gretchen Clement of Lynchburg, dressed in white marquisettes over yellow satin with black picture hats, presided with black picture hats, Miss Myrtle Rollins of Asheville, to the altar. The bride wore white corduroy and the groom wore white corduroy, the hat being of felt and mated marabou. The groomsman crossed the aisle bearing the bridesmaids, these being Dr. S. A. B. Hopkins of Richmond, Dr. E. A. McPherson and Dr. E. B. Booker of Durham. The groom entered with his brother, Mr. A. B. Booker and met in the center aisle, the bride with her brother, Mr. W. J. Corbett.

Notable Wedding.

The third and last of the more notable weddings of the city was that of Thursday evening at 6:30, which commemorated the twenty-third anniversary of Miss Rosa Parrish Crawford and Mr. William Crawford Staples.

The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crabtree by Rev. S. S. Bost of the Episcopal church. Prior to the ceremony, the bride's sister, Mrs. Mary Yancey, sang "Because I Love You," and as Mrs. J. M. Manning Young, the couple and their attendants came down the stairway. Little Miss Mary Blackwell Prigden and her tripod lever at the Stokes-Master Taylor Check bore the ribbon and Miss Melodie, the four-year-

Gaffney

Gaffney, S. C., Oct. 14.—The Woman's Club of this city is making elaborate preparations for a "rummage" sale which they will give in two weeks. The proceeds of this venture will go to the city library for the purchase of new books and meeting the general expenses of the institution. The sale has already excited considerable interest. The club members are advertising extensively and it is thought that the affair will be a great success.

The Daniel Morgan Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. R. Brown, on Granard street. The meeting was a most enjoyable one in every respect. Directly after the conclusion of the business meeting the hostess served a delightful course of refreshments.

The faculty music recital, given at Limestone College last night by the members of the college faculty, was a decided success in every sense of the word. The recital was the first of the year to be given at this institution and the large number of the town people in attendance showed how much these events are appreciated by the Gaffney people. Among the faculty who took part in last night's program were: Prof. Frank L. Eyer, Miss Flora Westerman, Miss Mary Alice Dow, Miss Loulie Potter and Mrs. Clarkson of the expression department.

A happy bevy of young ladies who style themselves "The Club of Ten," gathered at the home of Miss Lucie Carpenter on Limestone street on Monday evening, the affair being the first of a series of entertainments at which the different members will be hostesses. At this meeting a program was mapped out and then fancy work and conversation were engaged in. A delightful menu was served by Mrs. Carrie Carpenter and Miss Sara Carpenter. The menu composing the new club are: Misses Pearl Crawley, Freeman Garrett, Ethel Hamrick, Lucie Carpenter, Amie Gaffney, Florie Sarratt, Jessie Lipscomb, Cleo Little, Lillah Sarratt, Wynnyne Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam I. Fort and little daughter have returned to their home in Clayton, N. C., after a visit to Mr. Fort's relatives in this city.

Mrs. Cora Johnson has returned to her home in Cincinnati, O., after a visit to Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson.

Mr. D. B. Wood, of Wofford College, at Spartanburg, spent the week-end in the city with his mother, Mrs. Baxter Wood.

Shelby

Shelby, N. C., Oct. 14.—On Thursday afternoon, at half after three o'clock in the beautifully decorated parlor of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McBrayer, of Mooresboro, their daughter, Carrie, became the bride of Mr. George F. Webb, of this place. Just prior to the ceremony Miss Bettie Chappell sang "Because I Love You," and to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Donna Bella Martin, the party entered and the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. C. Irvin.

The bride is one of the county's attractive women, and was educated at the State Normal. Mr. Webb is secretary and treasurer of the Cleveland Building and Loan Association, and is also one of the county's most efficient teachers. The large number of handsome presents attest to the popularity of the couple.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Webb left for a trip to Washington and Norfolk, after which they will make Shelby their home.

Approaching Wedding.

A wedding of great interest to the numerous friends of the parties in Shelby, Charlotte and other points, is foretold in the following cards just received here:

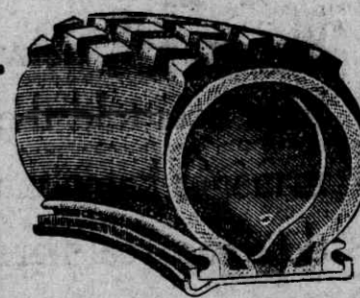

Mrs. Henry A. Wiseman requests the pleasure of your company at the marriage of her daughter, Willawee to Mr. Lee R. Weathers, on the evening of Wednesday, the twenty-fourth of October at nine o'clock, First Presbyterian church, Danville, Va.

Miss Wiseman is the sister of Mrs. Henry Kendall and has visited her here quite frequently. She is a young woman of unusual charm, and culture, Mrs. Weathers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Weathers, and is the able editor of the Cleveland Star, and was formerly on the staffs of both the Charlotte News and Charlotte Observer. He is a young man of fine qualities and is exceedingly popular socially. The wedding and arrival of the pair here will be awaited with great interest.

No-Rim-Cut Tires

With Double-Thick, Non-Skid Treads

10% Oversize

Winter Tires

With Double-Thick Treads—Deep-Cut Blocks—Countless Edges and Angles

The most efficient non-skid device ever employed. A separate tread, immensely wear-resisting, vulcanized to the regular tread. The latest addition to Goodyear No-Rim-Cut tires.

The Ideal Tire

The No-Rim-Cut tire, our patented type, has become the most popular tire in existence.

The control of this tire, in the past two years, has increased our tire sales by 500 per cent.

Over 700,000 have been sold to date. And the food-like demand now compels a capacity of 3,800 per day.

All because this is the one practical tire which can't rim-cut. And because it is made 10 per cent oversize, adding 25 per cent to the average mileage.

This patented tire, which costs nothing extra, is saving motor car owners many millions per year.

The Added Tread

Since 1908 our experts have worked to add to this tire a perfect Non-Skid tread. The final result is now pictured here.

Forty formulas were tested for resistance to wear in selecting the one for 'this tread.

Lenoir

Special to The News.

Lenoir, Oct. 14.—After spending a short time in Lenoir and during his stay enjoying a good practice, Dr. R. S. Gaddy, formerly of Monroe, sold his dental office to Dr. Oscar L. Moore, who has been practicing his profession at Beaufort, for some months. Dr. Moore is a former resident of Caldwell county and a graduate of the University of Maryland Dental College and since had had two years' successful practice.

Better Telephone Service.

The Lenoir Electric Company is planning to move the telephone exchange from the Harper building, over to the bank of Lenoir to the Kent building over Pulliam's store, at an early date. This company has recently undergone changes in the management of the concern and the new management has already begun work to give our people better service than they have hitherto enjoyed. Many new poles have been put up during the past week or two and it is their intention to re-cable the town and install some new fixtures and make many new improvements in the present system.

New Pastor.

The Zion Reformer church recently extended a call to the Rev. C. S. Peeler, of Lexington, to be their pastor, and after due consideration Rev. Peeler accepted the call and is now here.

WHITE MAN ATTACKED AND ROBBED.

Special to The News.

Wilmington, Oct. 14.—Mr. J. Brown, a white man of this place, was robbed near the outskirts of the city last night of a sum of money amounting to about $7. He was attacked by four white men, two of whom held his hands while the other two executed the extraction process. They escaped the police, and have not been found.

The more children a woman has the fewer theories she has concerning them.

miles west of town, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Little celebrated the thirty-ninth anniversary of their marriage last Saturday. Invitations were sent out to all the living guests who were present at their wedding except two, and their addresses were unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Little are both well preserved for their years and enjoy good health and have a host of friends.

Young Woman Ill.

The many friends of Miss Celeste Henkel will be sorry to know she has a typhoid fever at the Stokes-Master sanatorium, in Salisbury.
