A LUCKY HIT

was made by our Mr. C. H. Long, when in New York recently. An unusual opportunity enabled him to close out the entire line of agent's Samples and Winter Clothing on hand of one of the country's first firms, whose goods we regularly handle. Our only aim and object in so large a deal was to secure the benefit of a legitimate sale to our trade. A sale full of valuable savings at so opportune a time as to deserve and earn the title by which we shall announce in our open Wednesday at 10 A. M. and while a carnival means 'a good time' in a place prepared to offer such. This Sale's unusual savings on Choice Merchandise will be very pleasant times appealing to the self interest of particular men and the city's best families.

This store will not be open for business tomorrow, Tuesday, nor until Wednesday 10 A. M.

Dr. Jerome Bruce
Died Last Week
Distinguished Brother of Mrs. L. J. Dowd Passes Away at Sanford, Fla. — Versatile Writer, Skilled Physician, and a Southern Gentleman.

Mrs. L. J. Dowd of North Tryon street, received the sad news yesterday of the death of her only brother, Dr. Jerome Bruce, of Sanford, Fla.

Dr. Bruce was a native of Carthage, N. C. He was a man of marked ability and prominence in both his native and adopted states.

Dr. Bruce is recalled as a prominent visitor to the city last summer. He spent several weeks with his sister, and later joined her and her family in the mountains of western North Carolina. On his passing, The Metropolitan, one of the leading papers of Jacksonville says in Friday's issue:

"After a brief illness at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. F. H. Boyer, 617 Laura street, Mr. Jerome Bruce, of Sanford, Fla., quietly passed away at 3:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon."

"Dr. Bruce was the author of that celebrated portrayal of ante-bellum days, 'Studies in Black and White,' being pre-eminently fitted to write such a story, as he was one of the best decreasing number of 'old school' Southern gentlemen."

"The talent of Dr. Bruce was versatile, he having been a writer and skillful medical man. He was more than that. He was beloved as a man, citizen, friend and Christian gentleman. He was a member of the Church of Christ."

Was Highly Esteemed.

"The following excerpt from an old issue of the Sanford Herald voices the esteem of those among Mr. Jerome Bruce lived for many decades:

"Dr. Jerome Bruce came to Sanford in 1894 and for sixteen or seventeen years was actively engaged in the practice of medicine, endeavoring himself in many ways to the hearts of our citizens. As a physician he stood in the front rank with an experience dating back to 1856, at which time he graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. He retires now, moves away from us, and will be sadly missed by all who know him. Inclement weather, nor feeble health, nor old age never restrained this noble man when called on to visit a human sufferer, no matter how poor or obscure, and many of these live today to testify to his professional skill and tender attention. His sympathy with his patients was one of his chief characteristics, and his kind words and gentle touch will long be remembered from the mansion to the cabin."

"It is with profound regret that our people part from Dr. Bruce as physician and friend, and as one of the most cultured, courtly gentlemen who ever came into our midst."

"Bearing with him the highest esteem of the community and sincere love of his friends he returns to Newberry, S. C., where we trust he may long live in the enjoyment of pleasant old memories and associations."

Funeral Held Today (Friday).

"Dr. Bruce leaves bereaved, a wife, two sons and four daughters, Robley Bruce, of Palatka; Wallace Bruce, of —Circus week.

—The callope is heard in the distance.

—Congressman Webb, of Shelby, has returned home after a stay of a few days in the city.

—Mrs. T. M. Hargett continues very ill at her home at 303 North Graham street.

—Mr. E. D. Latta, who has been indoors for ten days, quite sick, was able to be out driving yesterday afternoon.

—The host of friends of Rev. Dr. Bridgers, will regret to know that he is sick. For a week he has been confined to his room.

—In the Philadelphia party, which visited Charlotte last week, was a familiar face in Capt. C. W. Westbury, formerly of Charlotte and Richmond, he running as conductor between the two points. Captain Westbury is now district passenger agent of the Southern with headquarters at Richmond.

—Two matinees in one day is doing pretty well for Charlotte Town. One was at the opera house, the other was the baseball matinee over the Western Union.

ONE CENT A WORD.

Fernandina; Mrs. Kate Norman, of Kansas City; Mrs. P. H. Boyer, of Jacksonville; Mrs. F. V. S. Chamberlain, of Honolulu, H. I.; and Mrs. E. Vordermark, of Jacksonville, also Charlotte, N. C.

"Rev. J. T. Boone officiated at the funeral services at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, 617 Laura street, at 3:30 this afternoon, and the private interment being made at Woodlawn cemetery."

Prominent Georgian to Locate Here

Mr. B. F. Roark, a prominent citizen of Rome, Georgia, is spending several days in the city. He will be a citizen of Charlotte after January 1. On that date he will open up a first-class jewelry store in the Davidson building on Tryon street adjoining the Schauss Smoke Shop.

The store will be completely overhauled and remodeled before that date and equipped with the latest fixtures in the way of light, etc., and the new firm will be up-to-date in every respect.

Mr. Roark at present owns the largest jewelry store in North Georgia and is one of the leading business men of that section. He will be a welcome addition to the business of Charlotte.

Mr. Roark is a friend of Mr. J. M. Murphy, of this city. He will bring his family with him.

A Handsome Building

The Egbert Hartly building on South Tryon street, which the Williams-Shelton Co. is to occupy as a wholesale house, will be completed early in December. The big wholesale firm, whose new home it is to be, hopes to eat Christmas dinner therein. The building is one of the handsomest in Charlotte. It is built after the manner of similar buildings in New York City.

A Matter of Sound.

"Through sin we lose our hearth, to heaven," said the preacher. And Willie, with his thoughts upon aviation, wanted to know if the "airship" referred to was a biplane or a monoplane.—Boston Transcript.
