Suffragettes Swoop Down Upon Louisville -- There In Large Installments

Louisville, Oct. 18.—The suffragettes are here. Long ones short ones, lean ones and fat ones are being conveyed to their various hotels for the opening of the annual convention of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, tomorrow.

The citizens have turned out in force to welcome them. Small boys herald their approach with "Ooo, Look Jimmy, There's another one." Drivers decorate their steeds with suffrage buttons. The restaurants are advertising meals at "equal" prices. A "suffrage cocktail" has sprung into being and before October 25th the close of the convention, it is expected that even the butchers will wear aprons.

The present gathering is the greatest in the history of the National Association. Women from all parts of the country have journeyed at their own expense to be present at its deliberations, for two matters of paramount importance to the cause will come before the delegates.

One of these will be a decision upon ways and means to further the fight for "equal rights" in America—a decision of preeminent importance for no less than five states have passed the suffrage bill and will submit the question of equal suffrage to their voters in the next elections.

The other is the presence of Miss Emmeline Pankhurst, head of the militant suffragette faction of England and the possibility that some important changes may be adopted in the American fight for equal suffrage through the exposition she will give of the success of English suffragists methods.

Hitherto the women of the United States have held aloof from the strenuous methods advocated by the disciples of Mrs. Pankhurst, preferring to conduct their campaign with an orderliness that has rivaled the political campaigns of the great parties that go before the voters. With five fights on their hands in the near future, however, it is thought that some change may be made.

Already the assembled delegates have split into factions on the question of English suffragist methods, and today many of those present stated that they thought the more spectacular methods of the Englishwomen would prove most efficacious in dealing with the coming campaigns. This feeling seems to have been brought about by a realization that suffragette speakers and campaign managers cannot be so divided as to cover the whole five states in a thorough manner.

On the other hand a very strong body is against any deviation from the methods that have won several states to the side of equal suffrage. This faction holds that any undue display of the militant would do more harm than good.

With regard to the campaigns themselves, it is said that strenuous efforts will be made to raise sufficient funds for the opening of offices and the dispatch of "spell binders" to the states where the voters will decide the suffrage question. It was also stated here today that another self denial week may be inaugurated, though on a larger scale than the one held to raise funds for the recent suffrage election in California. Several other methods of raising money are also under consideration, and it is probable that the convention will adopt a definite plan for the raising of funds for suffrage fights of the future.

Another interesting feature of the meeting will be a discussion of the California election, with explanations of the campaign methods used in what is conceded to be the greatest fight American suffragettes have ever made for the adoption of their measures. Several speakers have been selected from among those in charge of the California campaign.

Those in charge of the convention, under the direction of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the association, will have arranged a series of entertainments to occupy the spare moments of the delegates and their friends. These entertainments surpass anything ever provided for suffrage assemblies in the past. A female quartet will sing the latest suffragette songs. A vaudeville entertainment will be given by members of the association. Moving pictures depicting the different phases of the suffrage movement will be presented. And the usual "College Night" will be included at which Miss M. Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr will preside.

The list of speakers will include: Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst; Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry; Miss Harriet May Mills, president of the New York Suffrage Association; Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Association; Miss Laura Clay and many others.

JAMES C. DAHLMAN, "COWBOY" MAYOR OF OMAHA, "THROWS THE LARIAT."

Mayor Jas. C. Dahlman is of an interesting and impressive personality. Starting his career as a cowboy, he is at present Mayor of Omaha, and has the following record to his credit: Sheriff of Dawes Co., Neb., three terms; Mayor of Omaha, six years, and in 1910 Candidate for Governor of Nebraska. Writing to o'Fley Co., Chicago, he says: "I have taken Foley Kidney Pills and they have given me a great deal of relief so I cheerfully recommend them." Yours truly, (Signed) JAMES C. DAHLMAN.

TO DROP PRISON STRIPES

Federal Convicts to Have Uniforms, Music and Baseball.

Atlanta, Oct. 18.—In the endeavor to ameliorate conditions of the Federal prisoners here, announcement has just been made that within the next few days stripes will be done away with forever.

For some time stripes have only been worn by the third class prisoners here, those who have been broken some of the prison rules, and for this reason are distinguished from the others. After this however, all the men will wear dark blue suits.

The stripes have been kept this long because of the work being done around the prison, which might have allowed some of them to escape. Now the walls around the prison are complete and there is no danger of escape.

Other improvements have also been made recently. One of them was the establishment of the prison band and orchestra. Concerts are given every Sunday and are attended by large numbers of Atlantians.

Another innovation has been the establishment of a prison baseball league. Several games have already been played and the interest has become intense. The prisoners have also become greatly wrought up over the world's series and are carefully watching the papers to see how the games are going.

ELKS FIGHT OUT KINGSHIP

Younger Buck Masters Older in Terrific Combat Before Herd.

Danville, Pa., Oct. 18.—Moving picture men lost a grand opportunity by not being in the vicinity of the game preserve of Alexander Billmeyer, at Washingtonville, Friday when they might have snapped a fight for supremacy between the monster elk, Jumbo, and his younger rival, Job. The fight which was thrilling from the start, lasted an hour, and resulted in the downs of Jumbo and the exaltation of Job. The wild animals fought ferociously and without a moment's let-up Mr. Billever describes the fight as unparalleled by anything he has ever seen.

The bulls were deborned about the last of August and yesterday was the first time they have been permitted to come together since. Jumbo weighed about 1,400 pounds, while his rival weighed but 1,200. Job, however, is younger and had the advantage of agility and endurance.

Time after time the animals would retreat a distance from each other and then come together with such force that they were thrown by the recoil back on their haunches.

The herd of elks stood about watching the fight and ready to accept the victor as their leader. From now on Jumbo takes second place.

BAN ON MIDDIES' WHISTLING

Too Much Rag-Time Gets on Academy Officers' Nerves.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 18.—Unable to stand longer the strains of "Alexander's Ragtime Band" sweeping through Bancroft Hall, the authorities of the Naval Academy have forbidden all whistling in the midshipmen's dormitory and fixed as the punishment of any guilty midshipmen the imposition of 25 demerits.

As long as the midshipmen limited their melody to "Anchors Aweigh," the Academy song, the authorities did not complain, and they even showed a disposition to stand for "Silver Bells," "Every Little Movement" and the "Barber Shop Cord," but the latest "rag," with its stirring invitation to "come and hear," proved the last straw. The edict has gone forth that all leucis fustile notes are barred and banned in Bancroft Hall.

SAY THEY KIDNAPPED MAID

Strange Charge Against Family Where Servants are Scarce.

Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 18.—Servants are difficult to obtain in this city, but no householder has been charged with kidnapping one and unduly influencing her to remain until the charge was made today against Mr. and Mrs. George Gulick. The charge is made by the mother of the girl, but the girl herself, 18-year-old Katie Brennan, of Kingston, appears thoroughly satisfied and wants to remain where she is.

The mother appeared at the United Charities today and asked the officials if they could not get her girl to return home. She says the Gulicks had virtually kidnapped her and influenced her so greatly that she will not return home. When the mother went to the house a few days ago she says the girl locked herself in a room and the mother was turned out. The United Charities will see what can be done tomorrow. The Gulicks say they pay the girl good wages, that she likes her place and would rather work for them than go into a silk factory and turn her wages over to her mother.

SHE HAD MARRYING HABIT

Woman Arrested for Larceny Seems to Have Four Living Husbands.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Roberts-McIlvane, 24 years old, has been arrested in Richmond, Va., and is now at the Washington House of Detention charged with stealing a $50 bracelet from a local boarding housekeeper.

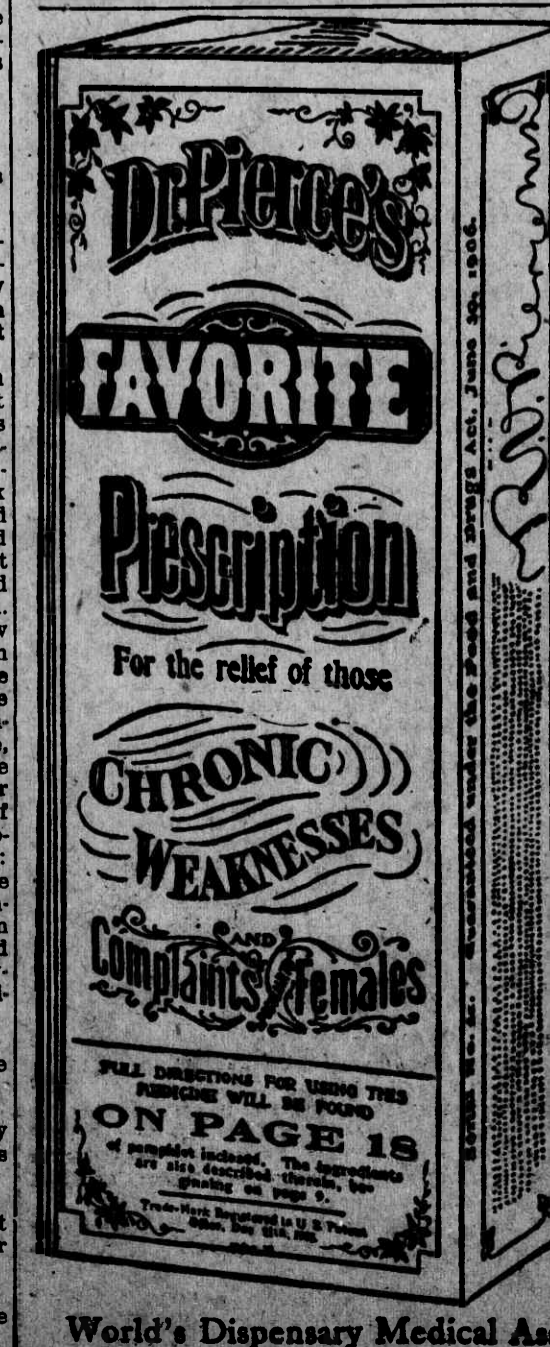

After causing her arrest, Washington police claim to have discovered that the woman has four living husbands and the charge of larceny will be superceded by bigamy charges. The police say she married A. J. Burbank when she was 16 years old. She tried when she was 16 years old. She tried of him within two years and without the formality of a divorce married Charles Tibbals, of Cheshire, Conn. This yoke hung heavily and a few months later she married Kenneth Roberts, of Ansonia, Conn. While Roberts was preparing to institute divorce proceedings she came to Washington and married Robert McIlvane, formerly of Connecticut. The divorce suit is pending. Asked to account for her evident fondness for residents of the Nutmeg state, Mrs. Burbank-Tibbals-Roberts-McIlvane sighed and said: "I was born in Connecticut, and have always believed that the men of Connecticut were the most honorable in the whole country. I have been fond of them always, but I cannot say anything at this time about those marriage reports."

Woman's True Friend

Experimenting with new and untried medicines is foolish, and often dangerous. It would take a medicine more than forty years, to prove itself so universally good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. During all that time it has been woman's favorite medicine—a restorative, tonic, uplifting and invigorating the nervous and discouraged and giving them the final touch of perfect health.

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines for it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs—is not anything like advertised, secret, or patent medicines—does not claim to be able to do impossible things.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments, and adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper.

You can't afford to allow yourself to be over-persuaded into accepting any secret nostrum as a substitute for this honest square-deal non-secret medicine. Don't do it. No honest druggist will attempt to cheat you in this way. He who does should be rebuked and avoided. Doctors prescribe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their worst cases because they know what it contains and know its ingredients to be of the very best.

It's well now and then to gently cleanse out bowel germs that breed weakness, cause foul breath, loss of appetite, dizziness and headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep bowels sweet and clean. Recommended by druggists because of their purity, goodness, and active gentleness.
