

DEATH OF ELY WILL NOT PREVENT FLIGHTS

The death of Eugene B. Ely, who had been assigned by Mr. Curtiss to fly here on October 26th and 27th, will not prevent flights being made. Just who will take Ely's place is not known. The fair committee has not received a message yet from Mr. Curtiss, but Messrs. Chambers and Creswell are authority for the statement that there will be flights on the 26th and 27th, unless very bad weather, or accident prevents.

News Extra.

The News' extra, containing notice of the accident which cost Ely his life, was the first news the city had of the distressing affair. Following the account of the accident was a long biographical sketch of the aviator which was read by the public with keen interest.

A telegram from Mr. Curtiss announcing Ely's accident came to the fair officials at 5 o'clock. They had already read the story in the News' extra.

MRS. JONES TO COMPLAIN

Among the many pretty hostesses of which Mrs. John T. Sloan, of Columbia, who is Mrs. C. M. Carson's guest, is the inspiration, none will be more delightful than a luncheon which will be given in her honor Tuesday next by Mrs. Lockwood Jones, at her home on West Trade street.

One Defendant in Recorder's Court

There was only one defendant before Recorder D. B. Smith this morning, a white man named Will Davis, who was charged with vagrancy. He stood to the satisfaction of the court, however, that he was not so averse to work as never at any time to engage in it and was not convicted.

John Sloan, colored, who was yesterday convicted of keeping whiskey for sale, but judgment against whom was returned until this morning, was fined $50 and taxed with the costs.

Borrow Money to Move Cotton Crop

Special to The News.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20.—Southern banks are again facing the necessity of borrowing money from the north to move the cotton crop. Financiers are realizing as never before the fact that the South, prosperous though it be, still suffers from a failure to keep its money at home.

Figures compiled here this week show, for instance, that the amount of money spent in the north and east during the past year for fire insurance premiums alone amounts to fully one-fourth of the total banking capital in the South.

During the past thirty years the fourteen Southern states have paid $707,688,387, on fire insurance premiums. Of this only $68,181,112 was kept at home in Southern companies, while $639,507,275 was drained from the South into the coffers of northern and eastern banks.

Regarding this problem in relation to financing the cotton movement, it is the farmers themselves who lose in the last analysis, for the southern bank borrow the money from the north and then lend it, through necessity, at a higher rate of interest than they would charge if it were their own money. The more money here is in the South, the cheaper money is.

Assaulted and Robbed.

By Associated Press.

New York, Oct. 20.—John C. Golding, of Milwaukee, was found crawling on his hands and knees out of an uptown saloon by a policeman early today. Golding, who bore marks of a terrific encounter, told the bluecoat that he had been assaulted by unknown men and had missed cash and jewelry valued at $1,500 when he recovered consciousness.

Within the saloon the policeman found half a dozen broken teeth, shattered eye-glasses, a broken plate, containing four false teeth, several articles of jewelry and a trail of blood leading down two flights of stairs to the doorway.

Golding's assailants have not been found.

Slept Six Weeks

When the strange case of the Iowa woman who had slept constantly for 43 days was reported, many people who could not sleep at all wished that they might have a similar experience. You would be surprised to know how many people there are right around here who hardly ever get more than two or three hours' sleep at night, owing to bad health, general weakness and worn-out condition. Miss Louisa Ludwig, Newark, N. J., who went through all this has written a letter saying:

"Having felt weak, tired and badly rundown, with little appetite, and inability to sleep well I began to take Vinol which I had heard was the best remedy for that condition. It has done me great good by building up my strength, improving my appetite and enabling me to sleep soundly. If you are worn out and weak and want new strength so you can eat well, sleep well and be well, Vinol our delicious cod liver and iron remedy is what you need, and we guarantee it to satisfy you. R. H. Jordan & Co., Druggists, Charlotte."

Soda crackers are extremely sensitive to moisture.

Before the advent of Uneeda Biscuit the only persons who ever tasted fresh, crisp soda crackers were the people in the bakeries.

Imagine their trip from bakery to your table; exposed to air and moisture—kept in grocers' boxes and finally in a paper bag on the shelf in your pantry. Could they be the same as they were the day they were baked?

Now that we have Uneeda Biscuit—we have perfectly baked soda crackers—perfectly kept.

No moisture can reach them—no contaminating influences can affect their flavor—their goodness is imprisoned only to be liberated by you for you when you open the package.

Always in the moisture-proof package. Never sold in bulk. 5 cents a package.

JOSEPH BROWN MIXING WITH VOTERS

Special to The News.

Atlanta, Oct. 20.—Former Governor Joseph M. Brown is showing himself more in this campaign than in any of the preceding ones. The first time he was elected, few people knew his face at all except for the newspaper pictures, and few knew the man's mind except through his trenchant cards. But now Governor Brown is spending considerable time at his headquarters, meeting all comers, and discussing affairs like a politician. He saw over 100 visitors yesterday.

ASSOCIATE MANAGER FOR POPE BROWN.

Special to The News.

Atlanta, Oct. 20.—The work of the Pope Brown gubernatorial headquarters has become so heavy that Solicitor William H. Beck of the Griffin city has become associated with Volney Williams in the management of the campaign. The addition to the Pope Brown working forces has caused no little comment because of the known fact that Mr. Beck was formerly an ardent Joe Brown advocate.

Mr. Beck is predicting, by the way, that Spalding county will give Pope Brown a larger majority than it gave Hike Smith in the last election.

RUMOR THAT BILL MINER WAS CAPTURED.

Special to The News.

Atlanta, Oct. 20.—A wild rumor circulated through the streets this morning that Old Bill Miner had been captured at Jessup, Ga., after shooting a railroad conductor.

Both the prison commission and the Southern Express Company set the wires to working, and so far as can be learned, there was no foundation for the report, except that a farmer claimed to have seen Bill Miner in that locality.

Mrs. Vance's Funeral - Relatives Return

Mrs. M. C. Tate, Messrs. Thomas and Miles Pegram, and John Tate, returned last evening from Greensboro, where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Katie Tate Vance, wife of Mr. Charles N. Vance, whose death, in Asheville several days ago, brought sorrow to many hearts. The services were conducted at the cemetery. Floral tributes came from friends all over the state and from Washington city. Mrs. Vance's is survived by her husband; two brothers, Messrs. Charles and Ferdinand Tate, of Greensboro, and half brother, Mr. J. C. Tate, and half sister, Mrs. J. V. Weaver, of Charlotte; four nephews living in Charlotte, Messrs. Tom and Miles Pegram and John and Robert Tate, and a niece, Mrs. T. B. Whitted, of Charlotte.

President Hennmann Signs Manager

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Word was received at Cub headquarters yesterday that President Hennmann, of the Cincinnati National League Club, had made the announcement that he had signed a manager for 1912 and that the new leader was a "famous shortstop" but did not disclose his identity.

Because of negotiations known to have been on between Hennmann and Joe Tinker, the Cub shortstop was immediately guessed to be the man but the guess was pronounced a bad one by President Murphy and by Tinker himself.

Murphy was positive it could not be Tinker because no deal had been made with Cincinnati for the release of the player, who is under contract to the Cubs for two years more. Tinker said he was sure the announcement did not point to him for it was the first he had heard of it.

There are many "famous shortstops" in the game to make the field of eligibles a large one and it generally was believed that Hennmann meant either Hans Wagner, of Pittsburgh, or Hugh Jennings, of Detroit.

Timid Brides Safely Wedded

By Associated Press.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 20.—Because the bride-elect was too timid to enter the lighted parlor of the minister's home to have the marriage ceremony performed, Rev. T. D. Strong, pastor of a Methodist mission at Thunderbolt, a resort near Savannah, performed a double marriage ceremony by the aid of a small electric light at a trolley station on Wednesday night while the grooms stood upon the ground and held the hands of the brides who remained hidden in the shadows cast by the top of a hack hired for the purpose of making the journey from the city. The parties who were married were Mr. Thomas L. Lassiter and Miss Nora Dukes, and Mr. Nisbet A. Morgan and Miss Susie Dukes, all of Savannah. The brides are sisters and the grooms very close friends. They decided upon a double elopement and engaged a hack to drive them to the home of Mr. Strong. Arriving there the girls refused to enter the house or to get out of the hack. The minister was accommodating and agreed to go to the deserted station to perform the ceremony at 11 o'clock at night. The colored hackman was the only witness to the marriage. Parental forgiveness has been obtained and both couples are apparently happy.

William Randolph Back In Fold

By Associated Press.

New York, Oct. 20.—Out of William R. Hearst's announcement that he was back in the regular democratic fold there grew much speculation today regarding the fate of the Independence League. This organization was founded by Mr. Hearst and nominated candidates supported by him in the last national and state campaigns. The question now is, to what extent if at all, he will use the league in coming political battles.

Mr. Hearst declared himself last night at the opening rally of the local fusion campaign. "I am preparing," he said, "as a good citizen, I hope, and also as a good democrat, Mr. Murphy and his kind drove me out of the democratic party five years ago but the commendable course of the national democracy has brought me back into the fold."

He declared he would continue his fight against the "undemocratic principles" of Tammany Hall but that the greatest benefit local democrats could confer upon the national democracy was to free it of the "hindrance and handicap" of Murphy and Tammany Hall.

Ray has issued a warrant charging Richardson with first degree murder.

Druggist Tells Story.

After arriving at headquarters Deputy Superintendent Watts said he received word last evening from Newton Center that William Hahn, a druggist of that town, had sold cyanide of potassium to Richeson, whom he knew well, on the night of October 10th. Mr. Watts himself at once interviewed the druggist, who, according to the police official, told the following story of the alleged sale:

"Rev. Mr. Richeson, whom I know well, came to my store on the night of October 10th and told me he had a troublesome dog which he desired to be rid of the easiest way possible. I suggested that he chloroform the dog, but Mr. Richeson said he did not like the smell of the drug. I then suggested cyanide of potassium and put enough in an open vial to kill three dogs. I warned the minister to be careful how he handled the potassium and to destroy the vial after he had killed the dog.

"Mr. Richeson had sent me an invitation to his wedding with Miss Edmonds and before he left the store he told me not to forget to come.

"The minister also requested me to keep the sale of the cyanide of potassium a secret. I told no one until the Linnell case developed."

First Degree Murder Charged.

A warrant charging Richeson with first degree murder was issued by Municipal Court Judge Murray during the forenoon.

It was arranged to bring the minister into court without delay and continue his case until October 31st.

Avia Linnell, 19 years old, whose home was at Hyannis, Mass., was found dead in the bath room of the Y. W. C. A. home in this city last Saturday evening. At first it was believed she had committed suicide, but later developments showed that she had unknowingly taken cyanide of potassium, given or sent to her by some other person, which she used in the belief that it would remedy physical conditions which were causing anxiety. Miss Linnell had previously been a friend of Mr. Richeson and it was understood at Hyannis that an engagement existed.

Later, however, the clergyman became engaged to Miss Edmonds, whose father is a trustee of the Newton Theological Institution, where Mr. Richeson studied for the ministry.

Richeson is 35 years old and is a native of Rose Hill, Va. He was graduated from William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., in 1906. Later he took the ministerial course and was graduated from Newton Theological Institution. He was ordained to the ministry in St. Louis. His pastorate at Hyannis was his first regular charge.

Mr. Richeson according to those who know him, is of nervous temperament and has been in ill health throughout his ministerial career.

Sensation In Stephenson Hearing

By Associated Press.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—The story that Edward Hines, the lumberman, helped "put over" the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson, and that Hines employed Robert J. Shields to work on the case, both at Washington and at Madison, Wis., was repeated before the senatorial investigating committee today.

Wirt H. Cook, a lumberman of Duluth, declared he had obtained the information from Daniel Haley, of Duluth, another lumberman. This information was that Shields had had a falling out with Hines because Shields wanted $15,000 for the work and Hines refused to pay that much, saying that Stephenson ought to pay half of it.

Shortly after hearing this, Cook testified, he met Shields on a train and asked him about the story.

"We were talking about both the Stephenson and the Lorimer cases," said Cook. "I asked Shields how he came out with Hines in the dispute over the job at Madison. 'Oh, that's all fixed up,' said Shields. That's all about that was said."

Cook then related a conversation which he said took place between Hines and Henry Turrish in a hotel lobby in Chicago in May 1909.

"Turrish asked Hines how he was getting on. 'Having a hard time,' replied Hines. 'For instance, there is Stephenson. After I elected him he goes down to Washington and voted for free lumber. I have had a hard time trying to get him lined up right.'"

Cook was asked concerning a conversation he had with Lieut. Gov. Thomas Morris in the office of Attorney McCormick in Chicago. Paul O. Hustling, a state senator, and assistant attorney General A. C. Titus, both of Wisconsin, were present, Cook said.

"Did you tell Mr. Morris that Stephenson and Hines each up to $55,000 to get the election and that Shields was paid to do the job?" asked Senator Heyburne.

"I did not say that. What I did say was that Edward Hines raised about $100,000 or $115,000 to put over the election. The statement was based on what I'd heard about Shields."

"Did you tell Morris that Shields went to Washington before Stephenson's election in 1909 and brought back a lot of money?"

"I never made any such statement. All I know about the whole matter was based on what I had heard."

HEATING STOVES

Of course you want a heating stove to save fuel, to hold fire over night and all that sort of thing, but the most important thing is that they heat the house properly and that they are built so they will last.

There is a good deal of difference between a guarantee covering "defective material and workmanship" and our guarantee of perfect satisfaction. We are willing to leave the decision to your judgment, but we want you to see our stoves and make the comparison before you buy. It will pay both of us.
