Law Suit Over Large Estate

Special to The News.
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28.—Claiming that Louis P. Ewald, who died in Louisville two years ago leaving an estate of about $5,000,000 was of unsound mind at the time he made his will, Harry F. Ewald and Mrs. Rosa E. Damon, of St. Louis, brother and siter respectively of the testator, to-day brought suit in the Jefferson circuit court praying that the court annual the order to probabte the will and that the adoption by the testator of Philip Golden, Helen Golden and Sterling D. Golden, of St. Louis, be set aside. The petitioners charge that Mr. Ewald was unduly influenced by the principal beneficiaries of the will Mr. Ewald was for many years steel manufacturer of western Ken tucky. A secret process for the manufacture of steel netted him a large fortune but as he converted all of his wealth into cash and distributed it among banks in Missouri and Kentucky the size of his estate cause surprise when he died. The Kentucky authorities immediately brought suit for retrospective assessments and succeeded in obtaining $100,000 or ore in back taxes.
