Atlanta, Nov. 28.—Atlanta is going to have its "fashionable" military company in the fifth regiment of the National guard. It will be known as the "Fulton Blues" and will be com-posed almost exclusively of young "Peachtree swells." The captain, Harrison Jones, is a well known young man about town, prominent in social and club life.

This company will be mustered in very shortly, and efforts will be made to make it one of the crack organizations of the state.
