AMUSEMENTS

AT THE ACADEMY

Tonight at 8:30—"The Girl of the Golden West." Thanksgiving Attraction—"Miss Nobody from Starland."

"The Girl of the Golden West"—T. Night.

No production of grand opera ever given in the English language has ever been given on so lavish a scale as that which Henry W. Savage has given Puccini's "The Girl of the Golden West," which will be presented at the Academy of Music tonight.

"Miss Nobody from Starland"—Tomorrow.

"Miss Nobody from Starland," said to be the best and most unique musical production that has ever been produced, full of novel situations, two dozen big features, all of which are innovations in musical comedy.

"Miss Nobody from Starland" will be seen at the Academy of Music tomorrow afternoon and night as the special Thanksgiving attraction. Seats are now selling fast at Hawley's for both performances, and two capacity houses are assured.

"The Thief." Interest runs high in the forthcoming appearance in this city of that far-famed sensation, "The Thief," the intense, throbbing, human drama of love and jealousy which scored the greatest triumph New York has ever known and ran for two solid years at the Lyceum Theatre, that city.

The morning after its first production in Paris, Bernstein awoke to find his name a nevery tongue, and before a week had passed all Europe was hailing him as the greatest dramatist of his time. In New York, upon the first presentation of "The Thief" at the Lyceum Theatre the critics exhausted themselves trying to do justice in panned words to the intense, powerful and overwhelming play given us by the Frenchman. He was praised unanimously as the greatest dramatist of the day and his "Thief" was acclaimed an electric sensation.

"The Thief" comes to the Academy of Music Saturday, matinee and night.

"Fritzi Scheff."

The renowned singer and beauty, Fritzi Scheff, and her opera company in a new Victor Herbert comic opera, is the announcement of the Academy of Music for Wednesday night, December 6th, when the queen of comic opera will make her first local appearance in "The Duchess" by which name the Victor Herbert-Joseph Herbert comic opera is known.

Rosita Boutonniere, the central figure of the play, is a young girl of such charming qualities and wonderful beauty that her suitors are as the sands of the sea. She is the daughter of a florist, and the first scene shows the flower shop, of course with pretty Rosita as the daintiest and sweetest flower of them all. And the comparison doesn't stop there, for Rosita is for sale. Her father has his own ideas as to his daughter's marriage and he has picked out a doddering nobleman with money. Such an arrangement does not suit the girl, especially as she has not been considered, or even consulted, and as her heart yearns for some one else, why the story just naturally has to end according to Cupid's way.

The three scenes show the florist shop, which is in Paris, the chateau de Montreville and the hotel of the Duc de Montpensier. The cast in support of Miss Scheff includes many well known men and women, and the Messrs. Shubert have staged the new opera in most gorgeous fashion—elaborate scenic effects and the latest London and Paris gowning. The new Victor Herbert melodies are said to be more like the catchy spirit of the Gilbert and Sullivan compositions than anything ever previously developed by an American composer.

STANLEY AND LITTLETON I NOPEN BREACH.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Representative A. O. Stanley, chairman of the house committee of inquiry into the United States Steel Corporation, has refused the request of his colleague, Martin W. Littleton, of New York, that he call the committee together to investigate assaults upon his integrity and standing as a member of the committee.

Mr. Stanley, after receiving formal requests from Mr. Littleton to subpoena John A. Hennessy, the editor of The New York Press; Henry B. Martin, secretary of the anti-trust League; David Lamar, a New York broker, and others whom he declared had part in circulating an attack upon him, replied to the New York congressman, stating that he had no jurisdiction in the matter and that Mr. Littleton's only recourse was on the floor of the house of representatives. Mr. Stanley's reply was in fact an open declaration of war upon Mr. Littleton, who said he would first appeal to individual members of the committee to request the issuance of the subpoenas. If this fails he will take his fight to the floor of the house and he counts upon the support of many democrats.

"I have no authority, expressed or implied under the resolution authorizing the investigation of the affairs of the United States Steel Corporation," said Chairman Stanley in his letter to Mr. Littleton, "to either summon witnesses or try the issue presented."
