Rome, Nov. 30.-The concluding and most impressive ceremony connected with the creation of the new cardinals occurred this morning at the great public consistory at the Vatican when nineteen princes of the church including the three American prelates, Cardinals Falconio, Farley and O'Connell, were invested with the red hat indicating their rank.

From early morning an immense stir was visible all over the city, the places of residence of the new cardinals being centers of attraction. Much attention was focused on the move large crowds gathered around the doors of the Hotel Bristol to see Cardinal Farley enter his carriage; about the Hotel .Quirinal where Cardinal O'Connell is stopping, and about the monas-tery of San Antonio where Cardinal Falconio rests with his brother, Franciscan monks. Thousands of persons also gathered on balconies and roofs and along the streets to witness the passing of the cardinals, the great clerical nobles, the ambassadors and the guests invited to attend the ceremony in the Vatican. Inside the Vatican unusual excitement was evident as for four years no Friends of Prohibition consistory had been held and for centuries not so many creations had oc-
