CUMMINS URGES REVIEW OF TOBACCO TRUST PLAN

Washington, Dec. 14.—Senator Cummins of Iowa, in a speech last yesterday urged speedy action on his bill providing for a review by the supreme court of the United States of the decree of the United States circuit court of the southern district of New York, approving the reorganization of the American Tobacco Company.

Mr. Cummins said that notwithstanding the supreme court's decision dissolving the American Tobacco Company had been based on the fact that the tobacco business had been so largely controlled by one company, the control of the affairs of the company was continued largely in three holding companies—the American Company, the Liggett & Miller Company, and the Liggett & Myers Co., owning $213,000,000 of the stock, $223,000,000 of the old American company.

"The same men who owned the American Tobacco Company own these three companies and own them in the same proportion that they owned the old company," he said, "so that they will control the business under the new arrangements as completely as they controlled it under the old order. If it was unlawful for these men to concentrate the business so completely as they did, it is giving the people a stone instead of bread, to permit the new order to continue."

He declared that the other eleven companies were owned by the same people who own the three, "so that the only result achieved will be to make the administration more inconvenient."

In expressing regret that the attorney general had not appealed from the circuit court's decision Mr. Cummins admitted that without legislation the supreme court of the United States was incapable of granting an appeal in the absence of a motion by the attorney general. Hence the necessity for legislation.

The circuit court, he said, had disregarded and nullified the order of the supreme court, but if no appeal is practicable, the decree of the lower court must stand as the final result of the litigation against the tobacco trust. He believed that the country had a right to the higher court's opinion.

No action was taken on the bill.

GETS VERDICT FOR $15,000.

One of the largest verdicts given by a York jury in several years was that given Thursday in the case of Lida E. Drennan, administratrix, against the Southern Railway Company, Carolina division. This was a suit for $25,000 for injuries received by L. B. Drennan, a son of the plaintiff, at a crossing in Rock Hill, on July 12, 1910. The case occupied the court for two days and the jury after being out about one hour, returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $15,000.

This case was the outcome of Mr. Drennan, who was driving a wagon being run into at a street crossing in Rock Hill and being so badly injured that he had no further use of his left arm, and physicians stated he was so badly impaired in his health that he could not withstand an attack of typhoid fever, and died a short time ago.—Fort Mill Times.

PINEVILLE MAN AN INVENTOR.

Mr. Halton M. Stroup, of Pineville, says the Fort Mill Times, has recently secured from the government patent office in Washington official approval of his gin-saw cleaner, an invention which gives promise of being of great value to ginners throughout the country. Mr. Stroup has been in the ginning business for 12 years and is a ginner of experience. He has a wayside gin in Pineville, which will be of interest to all those concerned in the business. The invention is said to do in one minute what 30 men are required to do in the same length of time. It can be used when the cotton is being ginned and when wet cotton is being cleaned. It does the work effectively and at time when the service is most needed.

SITE SELECTED MONUMENT TO CONFEDERATE WOMEN.

Special to The News.

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—The site for the monument to North Carolina women of the Confederacy to be erected at a cost of $12,000 by Hon. Ashley Horne, has been selected in Capital Square, by the state board of buildings and grounds and is to be facing the main entrance to the state fireproof building now being erected, and will be on the plat half way between the Fayetteville street entrance to Capital Square and the Morgan and Salisbury street corner. Col. Horne says of his determination to donate the monument to the state: "I have been thinking for a long time that the state would never build a woman's Confederate monument, and I, being a soldier of Lee's army for four years and seeing the work that the women of my state did in carrying food and clothing, and being in every battle that was fought around Richmond and knowing that they were as great or greater soldiers than the men, I have decided to build this monument myself. The time has come in my life when I think no loyal citizen of the state could think that I have any ulterior motive in so doing."

PARDON OF CHARLES DENTON IS ADVISED BY BOARD.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 14.—The state pardon board yesterday recommended the full and unconditional pardon of Charles Denton, of Colfax, La., sentenced in 1905 to a life term in the penitentiary for being an accessory with Mrs. Savilla Roberts to the murder of his uncle, Harvey Williamson, in 1903. Mrs. Roberts was also sentenced to life, but was pardoned. In joining her efforts with others to secure the pardon of Denton, Mrs. Roberts said that when she implicated the "green country boy" she was in love with him and did not want to be in prison while he remained free. Another reason, she said, was that Denton's sisters laughed at her when she was sentenced.

CADE TYPESETTING MACHINE.

The stockholders of the Cade Manufacturing Company held a meeting here recently and elected officers. A report from A. Nackle & Sons, builders of the Cade typesetting machine, was read, showing that the machine is 80 per cent finished and will be ready for operation in January. The only work that is to be done is to stamp the mats and make the pump and melting pot. They say its success is now an absolute certainty; that it has passed far beyond the experimental stage. The builders seem enthusiastic about it. The Cade Manufacturing Company, composed of Cleveland county men, has applied for patents on the machine in all the leading foreign countries.—Shelby Star.

COTTON BALE CAUSES DEATH.

Special to The News.

Statesville, N. C., Dec. 14.—Mr. Adam C. Troutman died at his home, some miles from Statesville, from the effects of injuries sustained Monday, when he was caught beneath a bale of cotton as it fell from a wagon. Mr. Troutman and his son, Mr. A. F. Troutman, were hauling two bales of cotton home from C. M. Wagner's gin, Mr. A. F. Troutman sitting on the bale in the front of the wagon, while his father sat on the rear bale. As the wagon was passing over a rough piece of road within a half mile of the Troutman house, the rear bale toppled off and Mr. Troutman was caught beneath it. He was quickly released from beneath the cotton by his son, and with the aid of others was carried to his home and placed under the care of a physician and carried home, but one side of his body and one leg were so badly crushed that he gradually grew worse, until death relieved the suffering.

Hand Caught in Gin.

Mr. Jackson Smith, who lives in the Mt. Pisgah neighborhood just across the line in Alexander county, has a badly injured hand and arm as the result of an accident at his cotton gin Monday. He was brushing some cotton seed from a belt, when he accidentally placed his hand too near a rapidly revolving pulley, which caught it around the shafting. The hand was badly torn and bruised and the bone broken at the wrist.

They are Leifeld, Byrne and Campbell, all of whom live in St. Louis.

Hauser, of St. Louis; Abstein, of Memphis, and Conner, of Hartford, are other players whom he has signed to play indoor baseball. Konetchy agrees to cancel the contracts as soon as the regular baseball training season opens.

FORTY-TWO MOROS KILLED BY AMERICAN SOLDIERS.

By Associated Press.

Manila, Philippines, Dec. 14.—Forty-two Moro outlaws were killed here this week in an engagement with a detachment of American scouts. There were no fatalities on the American side. The battle occurred in connection with the campaign for suppressing organized brigandage among the Moros. The disarmament of the entire Moro population of Mindanao and Jolo was ordered by the American military authorities three months ago after a number of murderous attacks on Americans. Since that time the troops have been actively engaged in carrying out the order.

Most of the chiefs gave up their weapons peacefully but there has been a series of sharp engagements with bandits. The casualties among the Americans have been few.
