OWL'S EYE

By Ed Mann

Guest Columnist, Hillard Knight

Saturday November 15 will see more cusin' and fusin' about parleys and upsets, but who am I to worry; I never miss, yak! yak! except when I lay a little change down — then I never win — and I suppose that's the way it is with everyone.

You would never believe it but there are quite a few teams that have not been beaten or tied this season. I'll go on to name a few of the teams which have a golden horseshoe, around their necks. A few of the unbeaten are as follows: Michigan, Penn. State, Virginia, Georgia Tech, Utah, So. Methodist, Notre Dame, So. Oregon, and the Oklahoma Aggies. Wonder how they do it, "Owls"? They must have honest referees.

Note:— To the Owls' Supporters — all three of 'em. Keep it up kids, you're doing a swell job; but where are your friends?

The player of the week: Ed "Smiles" Wilson. Congratulations on your sterling line play in the Davidson game. "Smiles" wasn't alone in there, because little but powerful Bob Willie stayed in Davidson's backfield more than their own men. Some one told me they heard him hit that one fellow all the way to Central Ave.

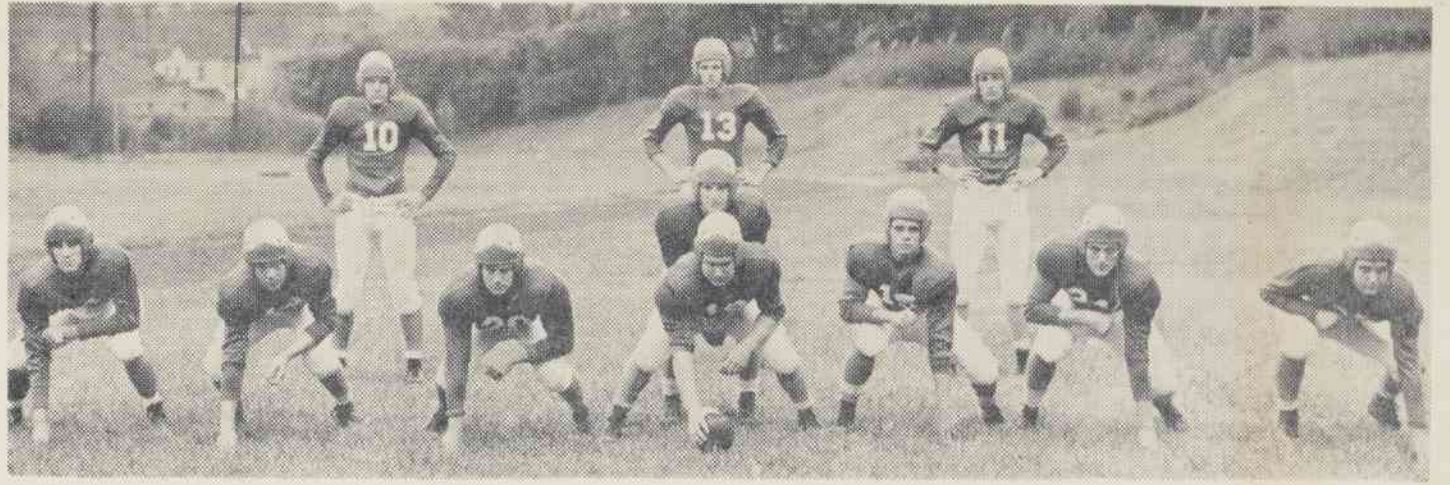

Eds. Note:— In the last paper we had a team picking. The results were Hillard got eleven, missed three, tied one, cancelled one; Footsie and I got nine, missed five, tied one, Hillard and I are trying this week.

C. C. Takes First Win

"Goat" Davis pulled the C. C. U. N. C. Owls out into the limelight this past Saturday night when he high-strutted the home team for an 8-6 win over the Hamlet All-Stars.

Early in the first quarter the Charlotte boys pulled ahead when end Carrol York caught Hanna behind the Hamlet goaline for a safety and a 2-0 lead over the Hamlet Red Devils.

Hamlet started a drive early in the fourth quarter and clinched it when Hamlet's Grayson connected with a 12-yard pass from Mapiex to roll up the score 6-2.

Just when Coach Footsie Woods had given up hope for the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina, Davis cut loose for a 45-yard sprint to pull the Owls ahead and win the game with a 8-6 score.

The Owls plan to meet their fourth opponent Oct. 12 in Memorial Stadium, the Applachin Jayvees. The other two games were defeats for the Owls with 33-19 loss to Presbyterian and 7-6 downing by the junior varsity of Davidson.

"Owls" Downed In Final Game

The Appalachian State's Jayvee's proved to be too strong for the Owls last Wednesday night when the Mountaineers rolled over the home team 20-12 in chilled Memorial Stadium to an estimated gang of almost 200.

Fred Boger and Bill Hendrix, two Charlotte boys, held the spotlight all night; however they held the spotlight for the Mountaineers with Hendrix scoring twice and Boger tallying once, completing two extra points. The most spectacular play of the game was the 60 yard pass from Webb to Hendrix who went over for the first Jayvee tally.

Bob "Goat" Davis made his usual sprint of the game when he slipped by the Mountaineers secondary and drove 52 yards for the final score of the game. "Goat" also connected to Dave Foreman for a 20 yard pass for the first Owls tally.

The fourth period remained scoreless and the visitors went home victors with a final score of 20-12. Barnett and Foreman played their usual good game; however the Owls line just refused to block Mathews who did an excellent job with that broken finger of his.

Davidson Upsets Owls 7-6

C. C. dropped their second game Saturday night a week ago to the Davidson Wildkittens by a heart-breaking score of 7-6. The first half went scoreless; however the Jayvee's didn't enter Owl territory once while the Owls played the entire time threatening Davidson.

With the 500 chilled fans on their toes as the Owls kicked off the second half, things broke rapidly. The Kittens fumbled and the Owl backfield plunged their way over with Davis carrying the ball to lead the game 6-0. Knowing the Owl line was too strong, Davidson took to the air for 105 yards passing attack which brought the J. V.'s down to the C. C. 1 yard line and Leach stepped over for Davidson to tie the score, but not for long as Brown booted the extra point to win the game for the visitors.
