A recent survey shows that the ratio of male students to female students at the College Center is about twelve to one. That's just the ratio, of course. We can't go into their proportions.

Add similies: Taking off like a herd o' turtles.

Economy: Cutting the payroll of the Internal Revenue Department, whose investigators earn less than $5,000 a year for themselves, but who earn many times that amount for the Government in detecting tax evasions.

Men are polygamous.
Higamus Hogamus,
Women monogamous.

If all of Wallace's supporters are as weak as those we heard, he had better wear a belt or he'll be caught with his pants down.

Don't expect too much from Washington. A man has to have a college degree before he can pull your tooth, but the Constitution does not require the President of the United States to be able to read or write.

Then perspire.

Life can be beautiful—especially when the pictures of the bathing beauties are in full color.

From our B.B.S. (Bureau of Boring Statistics): Grades of male college students have risen an average of six percent since the advent of the new look.
