

Forty-Niners Split Two Net Matches

Charlotte's tennis team split two matches in court play since the last issue of the Journal. The matches went as follows:

Charlotte's netters traveled to Belmont to defeat the Abbey Crusaders 5-4 Saturday, April 23. It was the improving tennis team's second win in its last three games.

The match was knotted at 4-4 when Charlotte's doubles team of Jay Currin and Art Meyer met Abbey's Ilderton and To-var. Currin and Meyer won the first set 6-2 but lost the second 4-6. The marathon final set fell to Currin and Meyer 9-7, deciding the cliff-hanger match in favor of Charlotte.

In other doubles matches, Jim Traylor and Jim Crawford lost to Nick Ehringer and Jim Christian of Belmont 6-0 and 6-2. Robert Burns and Scott Treadwell bested Jim Cornelius and Mudd, however, by identical scores.

Burns and Currin led the Forty-Niners in singles play. Burns triumphed over Cornelius in two straight sets 6-4 and 6-3. Currin beat Ilderton 6-1 and 6-4.

Scott Treadwell won his singles match also, but Crawford, Traylor and Meyer were overcome by their opponents.

North Carolina Methodist's tennis team emerged victorious from its Monday, April 25 encounter with Charlotte. Scott Treadwell provided one of the few bright spots for the Forty-Niners, smashing Methodist's Pete Pepelye 6-1 and 6-2 in singles play.

UNC-C lost all of its other singles matches as Crawford fell to McCracken 6-0 and 6-1; Traylor was bested by Wicker 6-0 and 6-1; Burns lost to Huchabee 6-1 and 7-5; Meyer was edged by Mengel 6-3, 3-6, and 6-2; and Mitch Borden lost to Barber 6-0 and 6-3.

In doubles, Traylor and Burns stomped McCracken and Wicker 6-1 and 6-2 while Crawford and Meyer found victory as Mengel and Huchabee forfeited. Traylor and Borden beat Pepelye and Barber of Methodist 8-5 in a pro set.

The tennis team's record is now 2 wins and 5 losses for all matches played to date.

Golf Team Victorious

North Carolina Methodist College met the Forty-Niners in a golf match at Cedar Wood Monday, April 25 and was beaten 10-8.

Rush Shull, Bill O'Herron, and David Cotter led the way to victory. Shull fired a blazing 75 to beat Methodist's number one man by a score of 2-1. Cotter also shot a 75 to defeat his man by the same margin. O'Herron snatched all three points from his man with a 78.

Skip Stanley beat the number five man 2½-½, but Rick Holt lost 3-9 and Frye lost 2½-½.

The win made the Forty-Niners' record 5-3 in conference play and 6-5 over all.

At the Journal deadline, the Forty-Niners had only one remaining match before the DIAC tournament. This triangle match scheduled for May 3 pits Charlotte against Methodist and Lynchburg in the Virginia city.

The Dixie Conference Tournament is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, May 5 and 6 at Pinehurst.

Any Mail?

Wait a minute, Mr. Postman, look and see if there's a letter, oh yeh, in your bag for us.

The Journal welcomes letters to the editor.

(The editor's a rather shy type guy and never gets much mail. When he does get some, he's so happy he sings as in the first paragraph.)

All letters should be typed on only one side of the paper. It doesn't matter which side, however. They should be double-spaced, too.

Please sign your letters. If you don't, we can't use them. We will withhold a name if we judge the reasons for doing so sufficient.

So what are you waiting for? Sit down and write us a letter. We're lonely.

value of a university? How do you measure the spirit?"

These were two questions that Dr. Colvard discussed as the principal speaker for the Convocation. The value of a university might be the campus, the building, the trees, the books, or how much the library is used. "But in the final analysis the real measure of the value is the performance of the alumni. What are the alumni capable of doing for the school?"

From the list of awards and the quality of the leadership at our University, it appears that our alumni will be able to do a great deal for their school in the years to come.

The spirit of a university is not necessarily how many "good mornings" you hear, or the union building, or the awards.

The spirit is measured in how much work is done for the success of the university. As Dr. Colvard said, "We can build a significant university."

Are you willing to help by being present at meetings and knowing what is going on in your student government?
