

Photo by Robert Pliner
Rush Shull Displays The Form Which Brought Him Honors At Pinehurst.

Shull And Smith Spark The Golfers

The Forty-Niners, paced by sizzling scores from Rush Shull and Roy Smith, roared from far back in the field to capture third place in the Dixie Conference golf tournament held on the number two course at Pinehurst on Thursday and Friday, May 5 and 6.

Shull shot an 82 the first day and a 78 the second on the par 72 course which has given the likes of Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus bad cases of the bogies. Smith, the boy wonder of the tournament as a freshman this year, wowed the gallery both days with phenomenal scores of 80 and 85.

Shull's two day total of 160 was good enough to earn him the honor of being the runner-up medalist in the tournament. He was edged out for medalist honors by St. Andrews' strong senior, Bill McGinnis, by a mere two strokes. Shull forced McGinnis to birdie the last hole to claim the honor, however.

After the first round on Thursday, the Forty Niners found themselves mired in fourth place due to a bad case of nerves and unfamiliarity with strict USGA rules. The rules took their toll on Bill O'Herron and were a major factor in his 96, carded on Thursday. O'Herron, forgetting there are no free shots in USGA play, slapped a less-than-six-inch putt off the green and was forced to play it. Thus, he finally five-putted the green.

Other first day scores included Skip Stanley's 85, David Cotter's 88, and a 91 by Rick Holt.

After a night of counseling and calming down with team adviser, Dr. Roy Moose, Charlotte's duffers went to the final day of play poised and ready for action. Friday was an entirely different story for Charlotte.

Shull and Smith received much needed support from the other four team members. O'Herron regained that young-blood feeling with a sand-singing 80. Skip Stanley and David Cotter carded two sizzling 89s between them and Holt picked up his second 91.

This strong finish was enough to grab third place from Fading North Carolina Methodist and scare the Tony Lema shirts off the backs of the second place North Carolina Wesleyan boys.

St. Andrews copped first place honors and Lynchburg and Charleston brought up the rear, finishing fifth and sixth, respectively.

Prospects for next year are brighter than a Cheer wash with only one man, Skip Stanley, graduating from this year's Forty-Niner squad. Freshman Roy Smith, who joined the team in mid-season and has amazed his opponents ever since, will be serving a six-month hitch with Uncle Sam in a few weeks but will return in time for the spring semester. Shull, Cotter, O'Herron, and Holt will also return.

The Forty-Niners were the only outfit at the tournament this year lacking school supplied clubs and bags.

Gov. To Speak At Commencement

Continued From Page One

Spratt, Jr., Mechanical Engineering; and Donald Flynn Talley, Electrical Engineering.

Candidates for Associate in Arts Degree are Carolyn Winston Ferrell, General Business and Secretarial Science; Ann Marie Lapp, General Business and Secretarial Science; Arnold Leon Long, Business Administration and Accounting; Joan Eilen McCarty, General Business and Secretarial Science; Elizabeth Morgan, General Business and Secretarial Science; David Lawrence Rector, Business Administration and Accounting; Donna Marie Waters, General Business and Secretarial Science.

B-Ballers To Dribble Far Away

By LARRY KEITH

The UNC at Charlotte basketballers will dribble in and out of six different states in the 26-game schedule announced by Coach Harvey Murphy for the 1966-67 campaign.

Highlighting the four month long itinerary are the Florida Presbyterian College Tip-Off Doubleheader and two Christmas Holiday Tournaments in Virginia and Georgia.

Opponents and pairings for the Bridgewater Rotary Holiday Tourney on December 29-30 in Bridgewater, Virginia and the Berry College Holiday Tourney on January 2-3 in Rome, Georgia, have not been completed.

When the last bag has been unpacked the Forty Niners will have traversed most of the south via station wagon, chartered bus and chartered plane.

Last season, six key losses due to academic reasons resulted in a 6-17 overall record. A 4-6 conference mark earned fourth place. This year's squad will have many new faces, but 6-2 lettermen Jerry Anthony and Robbie Snipes head the returnees.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE 1966-1967

Saturday, Nov. 19, King College at Charlotte.

Fri. & Sat., Nov. 25, 26, Fla. Presbyterian College Doubleheader at St. Petersburg, Florida.

Friday, Dec. 2, Lynchburg College at Lynchburg, Virginia. Saturday, Dec. 3, Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Virginia.

Wednesday, Dec. 7, N.C. Methodist College at Charlotte.

Saturday, Dec. 10, St. Andrews College at Laurinburg, N.C.

Tuesday, Dec. 13, N.C. Wesleyan College at Charlotte.

Thurs. & Fri., Dec. 29, 30, Bridgewater Rotary Holiday Tourney at Bridgewater, Virginia.

Mon. & Tues., Jan. 2, 3, Holiday Tourney at Rome, Georgia.

Saturday, Jan. 7, College of Charleston at Charleston, South Carolina.

Tuesday, Jan. 10, Florida Presbyterian College at Charlotte.

Saturday, Jan. 14, Lynchburg College at Charlotte.

Saturday, Jan. 21, Belmont Abbey College at Belmont, North Carolina.

Tuesday, Jan. 24, Tampa University at Tampa, Florida.

Friday, Jan. 27, Kentucky Southern College at Louisville, Kentucky.

Tuesday, Jan. 31, N. C. Methodist College at Fayetteville, N.C. Friday, Feb. 3, College of Charleston at Charlotte.

Saturday, Feb. 4, Belmont Abbey College at Charlotte.

Wednesday, Feb. 8, St. Andrews College at Charlotte.

Friday, Feb. 10, Washington and Lee University at Charlotte.

Saturday, Feb. 11, N.C. Wesleyan College at Rocky Mount, N.C.

Thurs.-Sat., Feb. 16, 17, 18, D.I.A.C. Tourney.

Monday, Feb. 20, St. Leo's College at Charlotte.

Friday, Feb. 24, Armstrong State College at Charlotte.

Fuzzballers Place 5th In Tennis Tournament

The UNC-C fuzzballers journey to Laurinburg, Thursday, May 5 to participate in the DIAC tennis tournament. The hustling Charlotte squad finished fifth after two days of scrambling.

Art Meyer was the only Charlotte man to win a single

Scott Treadwell

Jim Crawford

Art Meyer

Jay Currin

Bob Burns

match. He skunked Fred Smith of North Carolina Wesleyan, 6-0, 6-0.

All others lost their singles matches. Scott Treadwell fought valiantly but was eked out by Ian McGregor of North Carolina Methodist, 6-4, 0-6, 8-6.

Robert Burns was vanquished by Carlos McCracken of Methodist, 6-2 and 6-3; Jim Crawford bowed to Terry Wicker of Methodist, 5-7, 7-5, and 6-4; Jim Traylor fell to Wade Griffin of Lynchburg, 7-5, 6-1; and Jay Currin was bested by Eddie Barber of Methodist, 5-7, 6-0, and 6-2.

Treadwell and Burns provided some heroics in doubles play, scrounging Farmer and Pratt of Wesleyan, 6-4 and 6-2. They went on to smear the pride of Charleston and tournament favorites, Mickey Bell and Gerald Lominac, 6-4 and 6-3. Bell and Lominac had been undefeated for the season until they met the rampaging Treadwell and Burns.

Charlotte's dynamic duo finally fell to St. Andrews' Mullens and Jones by scores of 6-1 and 6-1.

Meyer and Currin won their first doubles match from Pepeye and Huckabee of Methodist, 7-5 and 6-3. They were then stopped by LeGrande and Trotter of St. Andrews.

In other doubles play, Lynchburg's Sweeney and Griffin beat Crawford and Traylor.

RECORD CITY DISCOUNT
105 W. Trade St.
On The Square
CATERING TO COLLEGE TASTES
PHONE 375-6205

UNITED SELECT FOODS

Wishes To Congratulate

RUSH SHULL

Standout Golfer

the WORLD FAMOUS OPEN KITCHEN

Fine Italian Food

1318 W. Morehead St.

Charlotte, N. C.

375-7449

THE AMBER HOUSE

"Greek Salad And Charcoal Steaks"

Open 6 A.M. To 11:30 P.M.

5525 North Tryon Street

Plaza Men's Store now has two (2) locations to better serve your needs: 1500 Central Ave. and 3732 Coliseum Center. We feature Conservative, Traditional, and Continental clothing fashions. Traditional fashions are featured throughout the two stores. We solicit your patronage.

The Management