Interest In Cross Country Grows As Three Join Team

BY DONNA HUGHES

"Interest is really growing in cross country at UNC-C this year," according to Coach Harvey Murphy, "And so is the team.

Since the last edition of the Journal we have added three new members to the cross country team."

One of the new Forty-Niners is Jerrold Burks, who was captain of the South Mecklenburg team during the 1964 season. He was voted South's most outstanding cross country runner in both 1963 and 1964.

Larry McAfee, who also joined the team recently, was co-captain of Harding's team in 1963 and captain during the 1964 season.

Billy Baumgardner, the third new team member, ran cross country during the 1965 season at Harding.
