49ers Feature Defense & Shooting Balance

By Donna Hughes

On hand when basketball practice began at Derita Elementary School gymnasium, Monday, October 17, were several returnees from last year's team including Robbie Snipes, who was captain of last year's squad and averaged 10.6 points per game and Jerry Anthony, who was a co-captain last year and compiled a 13.3 points per game average.

"Jerry was our number one rebounder last year," according to Coach Harvey Murphy, "And averaged around 8.8 rebounds."

Also returning is Nick Stavrakas, who was a starting guard second semester. Ronnie Payne, who was ineligible second semester will be back.

"Ronnie was one of the best defensive players we had. He showed a considerable amount of action when it was especially needed," said Coach Murphy.

"We also have several new players who I think will help us," Coach Murphy related. New additions to the team are Bill Redmond, Jerry Harris, Lane Lure, Jim Corbin, Don Keel, Dan Daily, Eddie Goodall, and Bucky Weston.

Bob Lemmonds a six-foot seven inch center who lettered in 1965, will join the Forty-Niners this season although he was ineligible last year.

"We also have two boys who will be ineligible first semester," Coach Murphy said. They are Ronnie Satterfield, who played freshman ball at Aust in College in Sherman, Texas, and Ben Basinger, an all-conference player from South Rowan High School.

According to Coach Murphy, the rebounding should be much better tahn last year. "The height is much better this year with Bob Lemmonds at 6'7" and Don Keel at 6'5" and a strong jumper as well."

"Our defense should also be considerably better, mainly because of improved rebounders and the ability to handle the ball is much better," he said.

Coach explained that his biggest worry now is shooting. "Presently we have better shooting balance, but, in my opinion, we don't have anybody capable of getting hot and breaking up a game."

The first game is Saturday, November 19, at Garinger High School's gymnasium with Kings College of Bristol, Tennessee.

"If we have enough players we will play about a ten game junior varsity schedule," Coach Murphy concluded.

Faculty Hands Senior Surf Its First Defeat, Narrowly

The faculty eeked out a hard-fought, 14-12 victory over the Senior Surfers in a rough student-faculty touch football match Saturday morning at Veterans Park.

Professor Clay and Mr. Peterson each hauled in a touchdown to lead the faculty team. Ed Frye ran back the opening kickoff of the second half and Mike Thomas found paydirt on a fake reverse to account for the two Senior Surfer tallies.

A safety which found SS quarterback Mike Thomas trapped in his own end zone proved to be the winning margin.

"The difference was in their wonderful line-backing," said Surfer Frank Jones. "The faculty worked together as a team."

Although both teams were charged up and tension ran high, only a few brief temper flare-ups occurred in the bruising contest. "Both teams really wanted to win badly," said Mr. Clay.

The two squads agreed to a rematch within the next couple months.

Anderson Quips To Audience

and for Wednesday's performance he did not venture into the realm of the last two categories.

Mr. Anderson's next two presentations took their source from the Bible stories of Daniel. The second of the two was the story of Daniel in the Lion's Den.

The last presentation was given by Mr. Anderson after a brief intermission and lasted 45 minutes. The audience was swept away in the presentation of Oscar Wilde's Portrait of Dorian Gray.

After the performance, Mr. Anderson chatted with students at a reception held in his home. He related that New York was like a second home to him. He said he would like very much to do some acting on or off Broadway.

He reflected, "Hum, off Broadway's real nice. I like that." One student, remarking about

Mr. Anderson's ballet stance on stage (third position), asked if he had ever had any training in the ballet. Mr. Anderson answered that he had, but only a little.

In regard to ballet, however, he related an event which took place earlier in his acting career. He said that after a performance one night, a gentleman from the audience asked him if he maintained a "third position" on stage out of the habit of once having taken ballet. Mr. Anderson's reply was, "No, it keeps my knees from knocking together when I'm nervous."

Concert Schedule Now Set

By PAUL BOSWELL

The University Chorus, has announced its fall concert Schedule. This series of concerts will be the first presented without the aid of the Cleveland County Choral Society.

The first presentation, for students and the public, is scheduled for Wednesday, December 14 at 11:30 a.m. The remaining pair of presentations are to be given on Monday, December 19. A private performance of about 30 minutes, for the Charlotte Rotary Club, will be given at 1:00 p.m. following a 12:30 luncheon. That evening at 8:00 p.m., the public is invited to attend the final and complete program of the Fall selections. All presentations will be given in the new ballroom in the Union.

The Chorus, which boasts a fifty members, will sing a varied program of Christmas music. Mr. Harvey Woodruff, director, guarantees a program of "light happy, easy to listen to" choral music.

The numbers on the program offer great variety to the listeners ear, and promise to be delightful. Types of music will range from solemn anthems as De Victoria's Latin number, to calypso style carol, "Sleep, Little Tiny King."

The Chorus, displaying an excellent balance in early rehearsals, promises an inspiring and harmonious Christmas presentation.
