

Forty-Niners Place Third

BY JOHN LAFFERTY

The harriers traveled to Fayetteville, N. C. to participate in a tri-way meet with St. Andrews College, and the host team, Methodist College, Friday afternoon, November 4.

The 49ers, once again crippled by a shortage of squad members, placed a dismal third, losing to St. Andrews 20 1/2 to 37 1/2, and to Methodist 23 to 38.

First place went to St. Andrews' Jim Smith, who toured the 4.2 mile course in 23 minutes 32 seconds. Charlotte was led by John Lafferty, who tied for second with a time of 25:18. Mike Ridge finished in 26:35, good enough for a seventh place. Other 49ers making the trip were Larry McAfee and Billy Baumgardner.

In spite of the poor record compiled by the team during the regular season, the members are optimistic about their chances in the conference meet which will be run at St. Andrews next Saturday, November 12. It is hoped that a full team of seven runners will be able to make the trip, thus giving the 49ers an advantage they have lacked all season.

Union Delegates Learn In Columbia

BY BOBBE BERRY

Four delegates from this campus attended the Association of College Unions Region V conference on the University of South Carolina campus on October 27-29.

This meeting gathered representatives from schools in Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, and South Carolina to discuss the topic "The Union in a Challenging College Community."

In small discussion groups the delegates had an opportunity to exchange ideas with students and administrators from large and small schools on a wide variety of topics such as "The Union and the Student Body", "Incentives", "Special Events", and "Union Board and Union Staff."

All of the Charlotte delegates seemed enthused over the ideas which they brought back with them and which they plan to initiate in the present Union program.

One beneficial aspect of the conference was the opportunity it gave delegates to learn how other Union programs function and have solved many of the problems which presently hinder this Union program.

Mr. Brent Steele, Program Director of the Union, Nelson Lemmond, Vice Chairman of the Union, Tisha Schenck, Secretary of the Union, and Bobbe Berry, Chairman of the Union Recreation Committee were the delegates chosen to attend the conference from UNC-C.

A tentative date for the next Student Party meeting was set as November 16.
