The cindermen broke twelve school records in two meets last week, and established one new one.

Netters Nubbed By Pembroke, Belmont Abbey Over Weekend

BY DONNA HUGHES

The Netmen fell 9-0 in two week-end tennis matches with Pembroke and Belmont Abbey on April 7-8.

"Everybody played well," said Spencer Edwards, "We were just out-played." According to Spencer one of the main drawbacks of the team is the fact that "many good tennis players aren't joining the team because we lack good courts for practice."

Art Meyer, captain of the team, feels that the netmen "have a lot of room for improvement, but it is still early in the season, and everybody is working hard to improve."

According to Mr. Gary Peterson, who attended the Pembroke match with the team, "The match score wasn't indicative of the individual play. The doubles play was very close at Pembroke and also much better than the singles."

"The outlook for the match next week-end is more optimistic," said Mr. Peterson. The netmen's next match is with Fayetteville Methodist.
