

Intramural Lead Split

Animals Forfeit Game, Lose Lead

The Animals received their first loss by a forfeit to the Freshmen Tuesday to make a four-way tie for first place in intramural football. APO dropped a game to the Gladiators and edged out the Engineers to put them in second place. The Business Club and the Engineers tied in a scoreless game Monday and, both losing their other games, ended up third and fourth respectively. The Sophomore-Junior team was in last place as of Friday, still seeking their first win.

In the first game Monday, Action's Ben Chavis scored two touchdowns and Harold Cohen and Charlie Parker made one apiece as Action shut out the Sophomore Juniors, 26-0. Nick Stavrakas and Lane Hurley put across the extra points on the second and third touchdowns.

Monday's second game pitted the Engineers and the Business Club. It ended in a scoreless tie.

The Freshmen scored seven points in the first half of Tuesday's first game, but failed to cross the goal line the second half as the Animals outscored them 19-7. However, the game was awarded to the Frosh as Hank Rivers who was originally with Action played for the Animals. Erik Jordan scored the Freshmen's touchdown and Donald Morgan the point after. In the second half Bucky Weston scored the Animals first TD with John Mims making the extra point. Pat Queen and Mims later scored one touchdown apiece. Had the Animals not forfeited this game they would have held the number one spot in the league.

In the second game Tuesday, the Gladiators' David Corry and Cam Harris scored the only two touchdowns as their team put down APO 13-0. Norman Scott made the extra point on Harris' TD.

APO won their next game, though. In Wednesday's first game they edged out the Engineers 2-0 on a safety in the first half.

The Animals' John Mims made three touchdowns during the first half in the second game, leading his team to a 33-0 victory over the Business Club. Bucky Weston scored the point after Mims' third TD. In the second half Joe Briggs finished what Mims had started by putting across two TD's. The Animals picked up another two points on a safety.

Thursday's first game saw the Gladiators defeat the Soph-Jrs. 19-6, as Donald Corry scored all three of the Gladiators' touchdowns. Corry made two of the TD's in the first half, one before and one after Phil Rimer scored the Soph-Jr.'s only six points. Corry made his third touchdown in the second half and Adkins made the extra point.

In the last game of the week the Freshmen's Tal Phillips scored twelve points in the first half, but Action came back in the second with two TD's and an extra point to take it 13-12. Nick Stavrakas and Ron Bassinger put across Action's two touchdowns and Ben Chavis made the extra point on Bassinger's TD.

After two weeks of play John Mims of the Animals was the leading scorer with six touchdowns and one point after for a total of 37 points. Tal Phillips of the Freshmen and David Corry of the Gladiators were tied for second with four TD's apiece.

Thinclads Meet Lynchburg Today

The 49er thinclads open their home season today, October 25, with a meet, against Lynchburg College. Scheduled for 3:30 this afternoon, the meet will be run on campus, and pits the only two teams which remain undefeated in DIAC competition.

UNC-C supporters are invited to cheer on their team.

Quarterback Latty directs APO drive.

B'ballers Open Practice

The 49er basketball team ended the '66 - '67 season with a seven win, twenty-one loss record. For this years roundballers, coached by Dr. Harvey Murphy, with the aid of Lane Hurley, records such as these are history, which they don't care to repeat.

Aiming for their opening game, November 28, with Guilford at Park Center, the team is working hard on fundamentals which, according to Coach Murphy, "they sorely lack."

This must be the coaches, sole complaint. He holds only praise for the 49ers. When interviewed, he stated, "the attitude is good, the moral is high, and they are working hard! I can have no complaints when the boys are working this hard."

There appears to be a lot of hustle, and a lot of spirit, both unusual for workouts characterized by repetitions of fundamentals, and stressing defense.

Physically, the team is in good shape. The seventeen members average just over 6' 1", with Bob Lemmond, at 6' 7", the tallest member of the squad.

The 49ers want to win this year. They are working to do so.

Notes From The Sidelines

By John Lafferty

Lo, It Is Fall

Lo, it is fall. The leaves are practically gone from the trees. The morning and afternoon air has a bite to it. Lights burn brighter in Chapel Hill since Carolina won its first football game, while N.C. State continues to roll up an impressive string of victories. Cross Country runners pull toboggans tightly over their ears as they roll up the mileage, in preparation for the end of the season. The lights burn late in the bym at Harrisburg Junior High as the basketball team drills, and drills, and drills, and drills. Coach Fleming nervously paces the track at daily cross country drills, which he has taken over for Dr. Murphy, while he worries about the arrival of his Wrestling Mat. And intramural Competition tightens.

Meanwhile, the Sports Editor worries, wondering what he shall fill next weeks paper with. I, for one, will look forward to the day UNC-C fields many teams, during all seasons of the year. It makes my job much easier.

But for now, lets make the teams we have good. There is no reason to expand if you can't support that which you already have.
