

Lynchburg Defeats 49ers

By FRANK SASSER

Lynchburg College narrowly defeated UNC-C in cross country, 25-30 last Wednesday, in the only home meet of the season. Lynchburg is now the only undefeated college in the conference. UNC-C stands second in the conference, with one defeat.

The course began on the playing field, and circled the trash dump cut across the campus in front of L and A Buildings, continued around the field in front of the campus, past Swan Lake and the Administration Building to the bell marker (the 3 mile marker), through the Liberal Arts Complex to the heating plant, and back to the playing field. Rotoract members were stationed in three important spots on the course to keep the boys from making the wrong turn, and to prevent motorists from blocking any of the runners.

Many students braved the October gusts to see the meet from various places on campus. All the team members agreed that their spirits were boosted by hearing someone root them on.

Although the 49ers finished closely by the clock they didn't cross the finish line together. They only placed first, fourth, sixth, ninth, and tenth.

Marty Fleming finished first in the four mile race with a time of 22:59. Larry McAfee, John Byrd, Woody Frick, and John Lafferty finished in slightly over 24 minutes within 36 seconds of each other.

Notes From The Sidelines

He Is That Kind Of Guy...

After receiving their first conference loss from Lynchburg last week, the cross-country team suffered another blow. They were losing their second coach of the season. Coach Paul Fleming assured them that it wasn't because they were not wanted. He has to build a wrestling team, and the athletic department is short of personnel.

Last Wednesday's meet was the team's first since Mr. Fleming had assumed Dr. Murphy's former coaching assignment. Yet, in his short stay, Mr. Fleming has truly influenced the runners. When he ran them, they hated him, but after it was all over, everyone knew it was because he wanted the team to do better than its 5 and 3 record, and because he wanted the team to take the conference crown. Besides, Coach Fleming had a way that got you to work a little harder.

Feeling dejected after Wednesday's loss, the team came to Thursday's practice expecting, "one hell of a workout!" When Marty Fleming showed up with a football, they played a hard game, until the sun set. The next day, Coach Fleming had them run, "each 440 like it was the last, and try to beat Marty!" And then he wound up practice with another football game.

Everyone was sad about Mr. Fleming leaving. He was tough, and he worked you hard. But you knew he wanted you to win. And those football games will be missed too. (But with no daylight savings time, there wouldn't be much time!)

Mr. Brenton Steele, last years track coach will take over, so there won't be any lag in the nature of workouts.

Still, the harriers will miss Mr. Fleming. He had confidence, and even though he claimed to know nothing about cross country, he proved that he knew enough to get you to work. And he knew enough to make practice part play.

Coach Fleming inspired a team. He is just that kind of guy.

Frosh-Animals Remain Tied For Intramural Lead

By JOHN BYRD

The Freshmen and the Animals remained in a tie for first place after last weeks intramural football games, while the Gladiators and Action dropped back to a tie for second place. The Business Club held the third spot.

The Freshmen beat the Gladiators 19-13 in the first game Monday. The Gladiators opened the game with a touchdown by Lee Atkins, and the PAT by Norman Scott. Donald Corry made another TD in the first half, which gave the Gladiators a 13-0 halftime advantage. The Frosh came back to dominate the second half, when Donald Morgan crossed the goal-line twice, and added an extra point on a third TD scored by Jerry Blevins.

In the second game, the Animals shut out the Sophomore-Juniors, 39-0. Kent Carlisle and Pat Queen each scored a touchdown in the first half. Rick Matheny put across the PAT on Queen's TD. Opening the second half with a 13-0 advantage, the Animals went on to score four more times. Ron Payne, John Mims, Bill Billups, and Pat Queen each scored once, and Matheny made the extra point on Mims' TD, while Jerry Page added one on Queen's.

Intramural Results

RESULTS, OCT. 23-	OCT. 26.
Freshmen 19	Gladiators 13
Animals 39	Soph.-Jrs. 0
Business 7	APO 6
Action 0	Engineers 0 (tie)
Animals 6	APO 0
Freshmen 7	Business 6
Soph.-Jrs. 7	Engineers 0
Gladiators 6	Action 6 (tie)

The Business Club-APO game went scoreless in the first half of Tuesday's first game, but Don Melvin scored once for APO, and Eddie Goodall evened the score for the Business Club in the second half. The Business Club took a narrow decision on the basis of Carpenter's extra point following Goodall's TD.

Tuesday's second game saw a scoreless tie between Action and the Engineers. It was the Engineers second tie, which gave them credit for a win, their only one of the season.

The Animals' Hank Rivers scored late in the second half in Wednesday's first game, to defeat APO in a previously scoreless clash. This was the Animals fifth win, against one forfeiture.

The Freshmen received their fifth win in the following game, when they squeezed by the Business Club, 7-6. Business' Skip McCotter scored first. Joe Howell, of the Frosh followed quickly, and Donald Morgan made the extra point for the winning margin.

The Soph.-Jrs. received its first win in Thursday's first game, as they defeated the Engineers 7-0. Roger Blackwell scored the TD in the second half, and Steve Patterson added the PAT.

In the last game of the week, Ron Basinger scored a touchdown for Action, and Chuck Pendergast one for the Gladiators, to leave the game in a 6-6 tie. Both touchdowns were made in the first half, and neither team was able to mount a drive in the last half.

The weeks leading scorer was Donald Morgan who scored 13 TDs, followed by Pat Queen who tallied 12.
