

Lemond Shoots From Outside in UNC-G Game

49'ers Fall To Two Va. Schools

UNC-C emerged worse for the wear, following a week-end basketball tour of Virginia. They fell to Lynchburg College and Washington and Lee on two successive nights.

mond had 14 points, Anthony 11, Gary Cress 10, Donahue 9, Robbie Snipes 8, and Basinger 6 in a more balanced attack than has been featured in more recent games.

Friday night, Lynchburg College defeated Charlotte, 75-55, paced by Ed Guill's 24 points and Ronnie Mason's 22. Charlotte was led by Jerry Anthony, who scored 14 points in the first half, and 7 in the second for 21. He was followed by Pete Donahue, with 12, all of which came in the first half.

This was no match for Washington and Lee, who had six players scoring in double figures, led by Neer, with 16 points.

Roundballers Victorious In Match Against Greensboro

UNC-C's 49ers opened the new year with their second victory of the season. Led by Jerry Anthony's 30 points, but sparked by the play of Pete Donahue, Charlotte held a 46-33 half time lead, which they ran to a 96-80 victory, in the game played at Greensboro.

Bob Lemmond, and Anthony led the first half, with 13 points each, while Gary Cress and Pete Donahue added 5 each. Only Boyd Edwards' 13, and Charles Cole's 12 kept the Spartans alive in the first period.

Charlotte ran away with the second half, as Jerry Anthony teamed up with Donahue for 33 points. Had not Coach Murphy pulled his starting 5 the difference would have been far greater than the score indicated.

It was Pete Donahue who sparked this, the finest effort of the young 49ers. As described by one viewer, "he was everywhere, up and down the court, rebounding, shooting, everything. . ."

High scorer for the game was Boyd Edwards, who had 33 points, for Greensboro. Jerry Anthony grabbed 30, Pete Donahue 21, and Bob Lemmond 15 points for the victors.

Animals Defeat Rotoract In Intramurals Pre-Season Finals

The Animals Intramural team defeated Rotoract 44-34, in the finals of the pre-season tournament, held at Harrisburg gym, Dec. 15.

To gain the finals, the Animals defeated the Engineers 25-55, on Dec. 11. They were led by Hank Rivers and Lane Hurley, with 18 points apiece, while Rimer's 13 paced the losers.

On the 13th, the Animals took the balanced scoring of Rivers, with 13, Weston with 12, and Hurley and Payne with 11 each, to a 54-19 win over the Sophomore-Jrs. Finally, the Animals gained the finals by defeating the Gladiators 47-17 on the 14th. Rivers led with 20 points, followed by Weston with 12. The Gladiators were paced by Norman Scott with 11.

The Rotoract Club, after a first round bye, won their first game over APO, 30-21, led by Brown with 10, and Overcash with 9.

Dick Latty scored 10 for the losing team, in the game which took place on December 12.

On the 14th, Rotoract gained the finals with a 44-26 victory over the Freshmen. Setzer had 16,, Overcash 14, and Brown 12 to pace the victors, from a narrow 15-13 half-time lead.

In the final game, the winning Animals were led by Rivers, who had 20 and Ray with 10, while Brown grabbed 12 for Rotoract.

Spotlighting

Jerry Anthony scored 30 points for the 49'ers in a winning effort over UNC-G, and added to a long list of basketball achievements garnered since enrolling at UNC-C. This is the third year of varsity experience, for the 6'3" junior who hales originally from Pittsburg, Penn., but has lived in Charlotte for 10 years.

According to Jerry, he has been playing basketball since he was 8, with experience coming in Jr. high school. He was, however, too short to play for Myers Park, his high school alma mater. In his Freshman year, he gained the extra height, and was soon a 49er regular. He was one of two starters which remained eligible after the now infamous mid-term exam period, three years ago.

In 1966-67 he was elected co-captain of the team, and was having one of his top years until a broken cheek bone forced him to sit out half of the season.

His 30 points, on January 3rd was not his high. When he was a freshman, he once scored 31 against Asheville-Biltmore. But he is best known as a top defensive star for the 49'ers.

And his immediate wishes. "I hope we can start playing better, more like a team."

Jerry Anthony, one of the 49ers top assets.

49'er Wrestling Team Travels To Wesleyan

The 49'ers young, small, but hardworking wrestling team was scheduled to travel to N. C. Wesleyan for their first DIAC match, Monday, Jan. 8. Terry Eudy, Mike Anderson, and David Sells are looking toward their debut optimistically.

The only actual scrimmaging they have had, has been against the Davidson Wildcats, who they work out with each Wednesday afternoon. Coach Paul Flemming commented that the team had been scoring against their more experienced Southern Conference opponents and had been holding their own. Only the match results will tell. The 49'ers can't win with their few members, but individually, they can shine.

Armstrong College. Trailing by 10 at the half, UNC-C fell apart in the second period, when Armstrong, led by Tatum's 30, hit for 52 points, and finished the game with a 93 to 68 edge.

Gery Cress led the 49ers with 20 points, Charlotte's only player in double figures. For the Pirates, Hatrich grabbed 19, Simms 16, and Aycock and Burke had 13 each to lead scoring.

Charlotte closed out its pre-Christmas season on Tuesday, December 19, against Washington and Lee University, at Garinger High School. With Basinger scoring 10, and Cress 7, to carry the scoring load in the first half, the 49ers fell to a 23-38 half-time disadvantage.

The second half went better for Charlotte, when Basinger added another 10, to finish as high man, Cress added 11 more, and Lemmond hit for ten points before fouling out. Never-the-less W&L held its lead, paced by Cartwright's 24 points, and Neer's 20.

The final margin was 85-65, Washington and Lee.
