

Green Garter Goes Grimm- - -

The Grimm Brothers had quite a rendition of the Lettermen style.

"We are going to present something that has never been seen on this stage before - a morality play."

They gave all they had to the "mushy-mouth" song about sex perversion - a man and his Weetina, Queen of the breakfast foods.

A school counselor "helps" a psychotic happy, popular student - a hit at every performance.

The brothers recruited much support for zoning man and his noble crusade.

Get paper bags to clear up those pimple problems - "wherever fine paper bags are sold."

The Grimm Brothers take a bow after an entertaining performance.

John Hostetter pleased the audience with his antics.

The Green Garter will return this spring.

Journal Photos By Dean Privette