Tar Heel Writers Roundtable Contest

Raleigh--The first writing contest sponsored by the Tar Heel Writers Roundtable has been announced by Roundtable Director Bernadette Hoyle. Categories are short story, article, juvenile fiction, and poetry. All entries must be unpublished and deadline for submissions is June 15, 1968.

Contest rules include enrollment in the Fourth Annual Tar Heel Writers Roundtable a two-day session for published and unpublished writers, to be held August 16-17, 1968 at the Sir Walter Hotel.

First place winners in each contest category will receive a beautiful trophy, second and third place winners will receive certificates. The awards are being given by the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, N. C. where the Roundtable is held annually, and will be called the Sir Walter Hotel Writing Awards.

Contest rules and official entry forms may be obtained by writing to Bernadette Hoyle, Box 5393, Raleigh, N. C. 27607.

State Government employs over 36,000 persons in 1,300 different types of jobs. Business, accounting, rehabilitation, social work, laboratory science, education, computer programming, and the natural and physical sciences are only a few of the possible employment areas. Brochures, which fully describe the employment opportunities, are available at the Placement Office. In addition, State Government offers its employees a continued education program,
