

Harriers Fall To Catawba College

By LARRY McAFEE

The team came on strong in the running events, especially the distance runs. The 49'ers took four first places and four seconds.

Marty Fleming took a double victory in the mile run and the three mile run. Marty led the whole distance in both of these. He lapped four of the runners in the three mile.

John Lafferty and Jerry Dawson provided strong competition in the 440 yard run. And finished 2nd and 3rd. Larry McAfee held off a strong finish by two Catawba runners to take a first in the 880 yard run.

Gary Cress finished in almost a dead heat with two Catawba runners in the 220 yard dash, but he was judged third. The mile relay finished about 60 yards ahead of Catawba's. Each runner increased the lead, and the team finished with a time of 3:34.0 which is just three-tenths of a second off the school record.

Campus Survey Shows No Tie Between Promiscuity, Mental Health

By FRANK SASSER

Dr. Diamant, professor of psychology, began a Senior Classical League-sponsored lecture Wednesday on sex, "a subject near and dear to the hearts of students," by stating that "Freud is not the God of sex and Diamant is not his prophet."

Since Freud is perhaps the most widely known psychologist, Dr. Diamant frequently referred to him and his work. When most people hear the term "Freudian" they think of two things, something dealing with the unconscious, or considering something from a psychological and sexual point of view. However, Dr. Diamant stated that "New theories place emphasis on sex on a different level from Freud."

At about the age of four the child notices genital differences between the sexes and then "all roads lead to heterosexual genital sex," he pointed out. At this same time the Oedipus complex begins, with love wishes for the opposite parent and death wishes for the parent of the same sex, he said.

Dr. Diamant pointed out an interesting difference in the mores of Victorian and ourselves; whereas Victorians sought "to fall into love without falling into sex," we moderns want "to fall into sex without falling into love." There is now, however more affection present in sex than in "the good old days." This affects the prostitutes--"Their trade has been cut into"--because they don't give affection, he commented.

Dr. Diamant also pointed out a relationship between promiscuity, permissiveness, and mental health in a study of co-eds at the University of Wisconsin. Eighty-six per cent of the co-eds visiting psychologists engage in promiscuity whereas only 20% of those who don't visit psychologists engage in promiscuity. However, on this campus in a study of 120 students, no correlation has been shown between promiscuity and mental health

Sports Car Club On Move, Speed Gymkhana Planned

By JOHN LAFFERTY

The 49er Sports Car Club, formed on this campus last fall under the leadership of Stewart Auten, is reviving itself as the warm weather approaches.

Following a dormant winter, the club is planning a string of activities to fulfill their stated purpose; To promote enthusiasm in sports cars and competitive driving.

The first of these planned activities will be a speed gymkhana, sponsored in conjunction with the Porche Club of America. This event, in which drivers from our campus will compete for prizes, will be held Sunday, March 31 in the main parking lot of the school.

A meeting will be held for interested persons on March 27, in U 233 to plan this gymkhana, and also several autocrosses, rallies, and other competitive speed events to be held later. New club officers will be elected at this meeting.

Date Phil Blundell Contest Underway

By ROD SMITH

The Carolina Journal is presently co-sponsoring the "Date Phil Blundell Contest" in conjunction with the local chapter of EMFC. Entry blanks can be obtained at the Union Information Desk. The contest is open to all single females.

Entry blanks must be completely filled out in their entirety before they can be validated. The main focal point of the applications is the twenty-five-word essay on "Why I Would Like to Date Phil Blundell".

In addition to the contest, the tentative opening date of the Phil Blundell Room at the Park Drive-In is April 1. The "Phil Blundell Kite Flying Contest" will also take place one week from today. Entry fee will be $.25. Prizes will be awarded for the largest, most unusual, smallest and highest flying kites.

In other P.B. Fan Club news, the two newest additions to the script are: "that isn't going to look very good on the expense account" and "people cannot respect one another unless they respect each other".

Phil Blundell Day (April 1) will be filled with festivities, including a picnic by the lake. Come, and bring your friends.
