Circle K Takes First Place Honors At Convention In Raleigh

The Circle K Club on campus took first place honors in service projects at the Circle K convention at the Carolina Hotel in Raleigh March 29 through March 31.

The club's flagpole project which resulted in the placing on campus of the beautiful flagpole now outside the administration building won first place in the single service competition.

Chip Wright, president of Circle K on campus, was elected treasurer of the Carolinas District. Terry Hartsell, pres-ly a Mitchell College student, but who will transfer here next fall, was elected Lt. Governor for the Piedmont Division of the Carolinas District.

"The club was real pleased," commented Mr. Wright. "We spent a lot of time and effort on the project itself and we also spent a good deal of time on the report of the project."

"We are very encouraged,"

he continued, "by the award and plan to send the report to the international competition this summer at the Circle K International Convention at Pittsburgh August 25-28."

Distinguished guests and speakers at the convention included Stephen B. Richer, International Secretary from Princeton University and former Vice-president of Circle K International Dudley Sleeby, a Duke Law student.

A message of importance to all people at The Rebellious Age.

There comes a time in your life when it seems absolutely right to rebel against old ideas. Against all the things that seem to be stacked up against your generation.

Unfortunately, religious faith is one of the things that may get discarded right about now.

But should it be?

Your Faith echoes the very feelings you probably have right now. About injustice. Inhumanity. Poverty. Cruelty. Prejudice. Hate.

That's why your Faith is the very thing you should be working with.

It can strengthen you. It can make things happen. In yourself, and in all the world around. But only if you let it. And only if you put it to work.

President John F. Kennedy said: "God's work must truly be our own."

What do you say?
