

Freshmen U.A. Drive Falls Short

The freshman class was in charge of the United Appeal drive on campus this past week. A wide assortment of activities brought in well over a hundred dollars; although, according to newly-elected Freshman Class President Gary Williams, the amount collected was far short of expectations. A car bash netted almost twenty dollars at a quarter per swing; the car was almost completely destroyed. A bake-sale brought in eighteen dollars, while a forty-seven-person-and-one-cat dance held in the Union Saturday night resulted in twenty dollars for the Appeal. About the dance, Williams said, "Those of us who came had a big time. Those who missed it have only themselves to blame. Anyway, at least we tried to make this a big thing; but you know how the students here are..."

The most successful event was the United Appeal Witch Contest, held in the Union. The manner in which a vote was registered was simple; each penny counted as one vote. The money piled up slowly through the course of the week as the money-jars were weighted down with more and more silver and copper. When the final count was taken, Miss Cindy Trexler had been elected the United Appeal Witch for 1968. The other contestants were the following: "Bewitching" Barbara Jean Smith, "Deadly" Donna Raley, Dee Dee Vaughan, Paige Young (from the centerfold of November's edition of PLAYBOY), and Susie Parker.

When informed of her triumph, "Tricky" Trexler replied, "Oh, no. You're kidding. I don't know whether that's really a compliment or not, not that it really matters. I'd like to say that it was fun, but, having been out of town, I don't really know. Thank you, witch-people everywhere."

"Tricky" Trexler

"I will not serve that in which I no longer believe whether it call itself my home, my fatherland, or my church: and I will try to express myself in some mode of life or art as freely as I can and as wholly as I can, using for my defence the only arms I allow myself to use-- silence, exile, and cunning."

Jewish Chautauqua Society Gives Lectureship

The University of North Carolina at Charlotte has been presented a grant from the Jewish Chautauqua Society to provide a lectureship for the academic year 1968-69.

The grant will make possible a course in each semester to be taught by Dr. Israel J. Gerber, Rabbi of Temple Beth El in Charlotte. Dr. Gerber will teach the course, Survey of the Old Testament.

Dr. Gerber holds a diploma from the Talmudical Academy in New York, the Ba degree from Yeshiva University, the MS degree from City College of New York, and the Ph.D. degree from Boston University.

A visiting professor at Hood Theological Seminary at Salisbury since 1962, he has served Temple Emanu El in Dothan, Alabama, and has been a U.S. Army Chaplain.

He is author of three books, "Psychology of the Suffering Mind," "Man on a Pendulum," and "Immortal Rebels," and a large number of articles for various periodicals, many dealing with religion and illness. He is now working on a manuscript on Jeremiah.

The Jewish Chautauqua Society, founded in 1893, is the educational project of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods created to bring about a better understanding of Jews and Judaism among college youth. The Society this year is sponsoring 70 resident lectureship courses on Judaism.

Recruiters On Campus

Last week several representatives of the United States Armed Forces were on campus for the purpose of distributing military propoganda and recruiting. A table was set up opposite their's in the Union by some students who were passing anti-army leaflets. The leaflets were warnings to the poor and the black man about the way that armed services use the unfortunate. Later, a table was set up in order to obtain signatures on a petition asking the Union officials to make some sort of written policy statement about who can and who can't use the Union.

Some sort of dialogue between the soldiers and the non-soldiers was inevitable. Unpredictably, however, most of the dialogue came in the form of pleasant conversation. The above picture depicts one such mild confrontation.
