

Fraternity Vote Bypassed

The Student Activities Committee has put the recommendation for Social Fraternities and Sororities on the docket of the Faculty meeting agenda. The recommendation was on the agenda at the February 5th meeting but was not reached because of lengthy discussion on other items. If the faculty approves the recommendation at its meeting in March, it will then go to the Chancellor for final approval. This will culminate a study of social fraternities which actually began last spring. It is expected that the recommendation will meet with approval from both the faculty and the Chancellor.

The nominations for Who's Who will occupy part of the agenda of the next meeting of the S A C. A new sub-committee is considering an objective point system for the election of Who's Who nominees.

with the work of the market economy, it tends to reduce the moral and physical strength of the nation, that when it takes from one man to bestow on another, it diminishes the incentive of the first, the integrity of the second, and the moral autonomy of both, that we will be free only so long as the national sovereignty of the United States is secure; that history shows periods of freedom are rare, and can exist only when free citizens concertedly defend their rights against all enemies; that the forces of international communism are at present the greatest single threat to these liberties; that the United States should stress victory over, rather than coexistence with this menace; and that American foreign policy must be judged by this criterion: Does it serve the just interest of the United States?
