Banquet Highlights Season

Kappa Sigma heads softball all-stars

By David Watson

In what appeared to be an attempt at monopolization, Kappa Sigma placed four players out of fifteen on this year's Intramural Softball All-Star team as selected by CAROLINA JOURNAL sport staff. Selections were made by the sport's staff along with the consultation of Coach Kerr.

The fifteen man team roster reads as follows: Dick Loeb, Reid Carter, Eddie Sherrill, and Rusty Sitton (Kappa Sigma); Lane Alexander, Joe Turner, and Dave Barden (Old Timers); Tommy Curlee, Randy Freeze (Wrestlers); Pete Donahue (Chi Phi); Joe Briggs (Outhouse); and

Coach Paul "No hands" Fleming (Zippers.)

Also selected was an Intramural All-Star Team made up of the seventeen boys thought to have exemplified the most versatility in this year's eleven intramural events.

Selected from the Engineers were Tommy Poteat and Randy Gaforth who have guided their team to a demanding lead in the overall point standings.

Larry Haulsee was the only representative of APO, currently tied for second place with Kappa Sigma which placed Thurmond Willis, Reid Carter, Dick Lolb, and Rusty Sitton on the roster.

Other selections include: Joe Turner, Lane Alexander, and Roddy Kerr (Old Timers); Jerry Blevins and Dale Lands (Hockos); George Lloyd and Dave Taylor (Chi Phi); Joey Howel and Mike Wade (Theta Psi); and Bill Bridges (Hockos).

The All-Star Teams are only a small exemplification of the ability and hustle showed by the boys who accounted for a most successful intramural season.

A banquet will be held on Thursday night, May 14, at 7:30 P.M. in the Resident Cafeteria to honor all persons who participated in intramural athletics during this past year. A buffet dinner will begin at 7:30 with awards following.

Overall point standings, tabulated through regular season softball, read as follows:

Engineers	988
APO	880
Kappa Sigma	880
Outhouse	851
Hockos	715
Old Timers	635
AKPsi	525
Chi Phi	473
Theta Psi	455

Standings are not final, with the tennis and softball tournament winners yet to be determined.

The winners of this year's intramural events are:

- Football - Old Timers
- Tug-O-War - APO
- Basketball - Phi Nu Pi
- Table Tennis - Ayad Al-Hamdani (Ind.)
- Pool - Danny Kersh (Kappa Sigma--)
- Volleyball - Hockos
- Badminton (Singles) - Paul Chang (Outhouse)
- Badminton (Doubles) -
- Softball (Reg. Season) - Engineers
- Softball Tournament - Kappa Sigma
- Golf - Chester Melton (Ind.)
- Bowling - Engineers
- Tennis - Engineers

Alpha Kappa Caps Undefeated Season

Kappa Sigma posted a 14-4 victory over Alpha Kappa Psi to cap an undefeated season and highlight last week's intramural softball action.

In other action, the Hockos bested the Wrestlers 10-6, as did the Zippers and the Old Timers by scores of 13-3 and 13-4 respectively.

In a make-up game, Alpha Phi Omega toppled Alpha Kappa Psi 15-3 to take over fourth place in the fraternity division and earn a spot in the tournament.

Tournament play opened on Monday, May 11, with the top four teams in each division as participants. Kappa Sigma and the Engineers, who also finished 4-0, figured to be the favorites although any of the other six teams are capable of pulling upset wins.

"For there is no joy in Mudville . . ." the batter grimaces as a pitch eludes him in last week's action.
